

person within the Township keeping a cart, or waggon, or a team of one or more horses, or yoke of oxen, shall send, on every day to be appointed by the said Overseers, a cart or waggon, or other implement and team, and one able bodied man to drive the same, for such space of time as he shall be liable to work on the said roads, according to law, allowing eight hours for such day's work, which said day's work, with a team and driver, shall be held equivalent to two days' personal labour for one man; and if any labourer or driver shall refuse or neglect to work faithfully, or to carry sufficient loads during the time above mentioned, it shall and may be lawful for the said Overseer, and he is hereby authorized and required to discharge such person or labourer, and the person furnishing such team shall be liable to the forfeiture which every such person would have incurred by virtue of this By-Law, in case such labourer had not attended, or such team and driver had not been sent, and shall not be allowed for the part or portion of the day which he may have labored.

X. And be it further ordained and enacted, that every person liable to perform Statute Labour in any division, and not having compounded for the same, according to law, who shall neglect or refuse after having been duly notified as aforesaid, to attend himself, or send a sufficient able bodied man in his stead, with such carriage, team, implement or instrument, as may be by this By-Law required by the Overseers, at the time and place appointed, shall forfeit and pay the sum of five shillings for each day he shall so neglect or refuse, to be recovered on complaint upon oath of the said Overseer of Highways, by warrant under the hand and seal of a Magistrate, after having duly convicted the party complained of, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the person so offending, rendering the overplus (if any there be) to the party, after deducting the penalty and legal costs and charges attending such conviction, distress and sale; and the imposing such fine or penalty on any person shall not in any wise release such person from performing any duty required of him by this By-Law, but he shall be liable and subject to perform the same, at any time within the current year when called upon so to do by the proper officer, as though no such penalty had been imposed.

XI. And be it further ordained and enacted, That if any person shall wilfully stop up any road or roads, or otherwise encumber the same with timber, cord wood, stones, or shall pull down or destroy any fence, railing, or guard, that shall have been erected along any water, bridge, or precipice, for the safety of travellers, or any guide or finger post in this Township, such person or persons so offending, on being convicted before a Justice of the Peace, on the oath of one or more credible witness or witnesses, shall forfeit and pay with costs, a sum not less than five shillings nor more than five pounds, to be recovered in the manner provided by the preceding clause of this By-Law: or in case any tree or trees shall be cut down, or fall out of any inclosed land or other lands which shall be occupied by a
