Punctuation as a Means of Expression. Its Theory and Practice. By A. E. LOVELL, M.A. 50c. This is much more than a mere statement of rules. The author has written an interesting and helpful manual on the subject, that will greatly impress the intelligent student and be much appreciated by all who value clearness and thoroughness in writing.

Style Book of Business English. 234 pp., 85c. Fifth Edition Revised and Enlarged. For Stenographers and Correspondents. This new treatise will especially appeal to the teacher of English wherever it is seen. Teachers of this subject using this work can feel assured of vastly better results than they have ever before secured. It will be an inspiration to both teacher and student. Adopted by the New York High Schools.

"It is a real pleasure to me to testify to the merits of your 'Style Book of Business English.' I recommend your book for the following reasons: It is so comprehensive, thoroughly practical, and, above all, it is so plainly composed that a teacher even unfamiliar with the subject can conduct a class with it."—Prof. F. R. Brygau, Columbia University, New York City.

Civil Service Examinations for Stenographers. Just published. Stiff paper covers, 25c. By LEONHARD FELIX FULD, Ph.D., Examiner, Municipal Civil Service Commission, New York.
