> World. Dr. C. S. Eby addressed the Toronto Vigilance Committee at a argely-attended meeting in Brown's Hall, College and Ossington, last night, and referred to a number of the vices that should be eliminated from Toronto, either by educative methods or enforcement of different laws. He said one great advantage give nto reformers was the fact that the people did not take the same objection to hearing about vices in regard to the sexes as in former years. Only good could come from people understanding, and parents should be thoroly prepared to hear what science had found out regarding questions that seriously affected the home and civilization.
