STANLEY 14 TEMPERANCE

WOMAN'S WORLD.

DRIFTING.

Easy to drift to the open sea. Easy for the tides are swift and strong. And whistling and free are the rustling winds of the open sea. But, oh! to get back is hard and long.

Easy to drift to the sea of doubt. Easy to hurt what we cannot heal. Easy to rouse what we cannot soothe. Easy to speak what we do not feel. Easy to show what we ought to conceal.

Easy to think that fancy is fate— But, oh! the wisdom that comes too late!

The Countess of Carlisle.

The earl of Carlisle and his daughter, Lady Dorothy Howard, represented the Countess of Carlisle, the new president of the World's W.C.T.U., at the Boston convention. She was unable to attend on account of heart trouble. The earl also represented the United Kingdom Alliance of Great Britain, an important and long-established organization for the promotion of personal total abstinence, of which the late Sir Wilfrid Lawson was president.

The earl and his entire family represent one of the strongest aristocratic temperance households in Great Britain. The family occupy two historical estates, the ancient Naworth Castle, of border warfare fame, at Carlisle, and the magnificent Castle Howard, at York, where a kingly retinue is required. There is also a handsome town house at No. 1 Palace Green. In none of these palatial homes is liquor ever served; the whole family being united in its unequivocal opposition to the social glass in particular and to the liquor traffic and all it stands for in general. There were 11 children in the family of the Earl and Countess of Carlisle, all of whom are now grown up. Lady Dorothy is one of the most charming types of English beauty; and is as clever as she is beautiful. She (with her sisters, Lady Mary Murray, Lady Cecilia Roberts and Lady Aurea Howard) is a strong champion of the temperance reform. Both the Earl and Lady Dorothy will visit Canada.

WORLD'S PATTERN DEPARTMENT.

Designed by Mildred Cassells.

LITTLE GIRL'S DRESS—No. 1070—

A pretty design that may be easily adapted for the little girl is here illustrated. The waist is gathered on the shoulders, and the front cut "V" opening over a chemise and finished with a sailor collar. The sleeves are finished with a cuff, or band of trimming to correspond with belt and collar. The skirt is in straight box-pleated style and attached to the waist. Cashmere, albatross, henrietta or any lightweight woolen goods would be suitable to carry out the design. The pattern is cut in six sizes, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 years. It requires for five yards of material 27 inches wide.

THE GREATEST CRIMINAL OF THE PAST CENTURY

ALDERMAN NOT A 'SERVANT' THEREFORE NEEDN'T ANSWER

Adam Worth, Who Stole the Famous Gainsborough's "Duchess of Devonshire."

This is the story of Adam Worth, alias "Little Adam."

If a fiction writer could conceive such a story, he might hesitate to write it, for fear of being accused of using the wildly improbable.

The sober, cold, technical judgment passed upon Adam Worth by the greatest thief hunters of America and remarkable, most successful and most dangerous professional criminal known to modern times.

Adam Worth, in a life of crime, covered almost half a century, looted at least $2,000,000, and most probably as much as $3,000,000.

He cruised through the Mediterranean on a steam yacht with a crew of 20 men, and left a trail of looted cities behind him.

He was caught only once, and then through a blunder of a criminal associate. He ruled the shrewdest criminal planned deeds for them with craft that had defiance to the best detective talent in the world.

If he had not become prominent recently as the man who stole the famous "Duchess of Devonshire" portrait, the public probably never would have heard of him. Before Worth fled, William and Robert Pinkerton sought him out and induced him to go over the Gainsborough who stole the famous portrait.

All this will prove interesting to our local theatregoers, as Miss Roselle Knott's dramatic scenic production, in five acts, "The Duchess of Devonshire," appears at the Princess Theatre during the week of Nov. 5, with Miss Knott two months abroad visiting Devonshire, England, getting local color for her production, and the settings are exact reproductions of originals. The furniture, tapestries and bric-a-brac are being imported by the designer, Ernest Shipman, especially for this production, and are most magnificent and costly.

WITH THE MINISTERS.

Denominational Associations Hold Their Regular Meetings.

The Congregational Ministerial Association yesterday elected Rev. Jas. Peck as president and Rev. E. D. Slocum secretary. Mr. Peck reported on his visit to the American board of foreign missions. Mr. Peck said that Christianity of the present of eight missions was to bring the gospel to China, Japan and other places, and to leave it to the people themselves. The Presbyterian Association was addressed by Rev. G. W. Ginty of Scotland, and Rev. G. W. Ginty of Toronto. A social will be held at the December meeting of the Presbytery. Rev. Dr. Shorey, of the Methodist conference visited the Methodist Association. The first Sunday in December will be held in the interests of the Toronto Methodist Union, and Nov. 18 in the interests of the Methodist Y.M.A.

THE FROCK COAT SUIT.

The book that pictures the prevailing modes for men.

In the book, "Manners and Modes for Men," there appears a reproduction of an oil painting by a New York artist, showing the frock and back of the new frock coat as produced in the ready-to-wear suit, silk-faced, are sold for $25 and $30.

Frock coats are the color of most tailors, for few of them can give the easy flow and yet retain the correct fit. It is the art of the dressmaker to make a light fitting garment that is a fitting one.

The Semi-ready Overcoats are worth seeing, too, particularly the new French Chesterford style, and also the new frock coat, at 31 Yonge-street, and also at 47 West Queen-street. Ed. Mack.

WIDOW AND NEIGHBOR KILLED ASSASSIN MAKES HIS ESCAPE

Colecamp Mo., Oct. 22.—Mrs. Alice Winemiller, widow, was shot and killed last night at her home in Warsaw. The assassin fired thru a window.

Mrs. Winemiller's young son was badly wounded. Felix Crawford, a neighbor, who hurried to the house, also was shot. He died two hours later.

Crawford's son-in-law, J. A. Long, is charged with the crime. He escaped.

The Ven. Archdeacon of Simcoe will have charge of the induction. Canon Cody will conduct the service, and Dr. O'Meara, principal of Wycliffe College, will preach. Is Disease a Crime?

Not very long ago, a popular magazine published an editorial in which the writer asserted, in substance, that all disease should be regarded as criminal. It is not a crime, in the sense of suffering of mankind is due to violation of certain of Nature's laws. But to say that sickness should be regarded as criminal, and that every reasonable individual as radically wrong.

It would be harsh, unsympathetic, cruel, yet criminal, to condemn the poor, weak, over-worked housewife who sinks under the heavy load of household cares and burdens, and suffers from weakness, various displacements of pelvic organs and other derangements peculiar to her sex.

Frequent bearing of children, with its exacting demands upon the system, coupled with the care, worry and labor of rearing a large family, is often the cause of weakness, derangements and debility which are aggravated by the many household cares, and the hard and never-ending work which the mother is called upon to perform.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a remedy for woman's peculiar weaknesses and ills. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a remedy for the greatest obstacles to the cure of this class, and the fact that the poor, over-worked housewife can not get needed rest from her many household cares and labor, to enable her to secure the benefit of his "Prescription" is its full benefit. It is a matter of frequent experience, he says, in his extensive practice in these cases, that those with whom his treatment fails, by reason of the patient's unwillingness to rest, or by reason of her not abstaining from hard work long enough to be cured. With those suffering from prostatic, ante-ventral, or other displacements of the female organs, it is very necessary to abstain from any kind of sexual intercourse, and to rest for a long period, or for long periods, on their feet. A heavy lifting strain, or any other kind should also be avoided. As much rest as possible should be taken. Let the patient observe these rules and the "Favorite Prescription" will do the work.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. 31 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 50 stamps for cloth-bound.

If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels.

French Cabinet Making.

Paris, Oct. 22.—M. Clemenceau has begun the formation of a cabinet. He offered the foreign office portfolio to M. Poincaré, minister of finance in the Sarrien administration, who was finance minister in the Waldeck-Rousseau cabinet. But to say that the portfolio of finance is regarded as certain that M. Briand, minister of public works; M. Barthe, minister of agriculture; M. Ruan, minister of agriculture; M. Doumergue, minister of commerce, will remain, and that Gen. Picquart will get the war portfolio, and M. Millerand, minister of labor, will be created with M. Vivian, the well-known socialist deputy, at his head.

A Well Deserved Appointment.

Mr. W. S. Kerman, who for many years has been the representative of W. Wingate & Johnston Limited, the well-known shipping firm of London, Liverpool and Glasgow, has been notified of his appointment as a director of that company. Mr. Kerman was appointed in 1883, and during that time has made many friends who will be glad to hear of his advancement in life.

Honors Overlap.

Dr. Coughlin's appointment to the Belleville Deaf and Dumb Institute will leave a vacancy on the provincial board of health, to which he was recently nominated.

SHOE FAITH

SUPPOSE a shoemaker tells you that his shoe has oak soles. How do you know? Suppose a shoemaker tells you that his shoe is made of the finest calf and kid. How do you know? You've got to buy a shoe mostly on faith—faith in the honesty and integrity of the maker.

In whom can you put the most faith? In the maker having no reputation or in the maker with a reputation as valuable as that of the Slater Shoe Company? The one can afford to sell any kind of a shoe. He has nothing to lose. The other can afford to sell nothing but the best shoe he knows how to make. He has a $500,000 reputation to lose.

The Slater Shoe Company has spent 50 years and hundreds of thousands of dollars building its reputation, now reputed to be worth half a million. It can lose that reputation in one year by lowering quality.

Would it pay?

Throughout Canada at $3.50 and $4.00—$1.00 less than American makes, and precisely the same shoe as American makes. For men and women.

The above is Style 277, for women—ball and toe, low, patent vamp and toe, the new high heel and arch, slender smart shape.

Goodbye Process.

INSURANCE TOO COSTLY.

Committee Finds Rates Permit of Extravagance and Theft.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 22.—A special committee, appointed by the governor, which has been investigating the office of the auditor of state for a year, with special reference to mutual life insurance companies, to-day submitted its report to Gov. Handy.

The general conclusions of the committee are that "the cost of life insurance to the public is too high. The present maximum premium rates for insurance are so much in excess of needs, as to permit of extravagant management of companies, thefts of their funds, diversion of profits and other great abuses, without rendering the companies insolvent. Indiana insurance companies, like many companies of other states, have been guilty of extravagances and abuses they have maintained solvency."

COSTS MORE THAN VOTED.

Galt, Oct. 22.—Announcement was made today by Chairman Spiers of the collegiate institute board, that the college building just completed will cost $75,000—$10,000 more than the rate-payers voted.

Carthaginian Reloated.

Sovereign Bank Opens at Hamilton.

A branch of the Sovereign Bank of Canada has been opened in the City of Hamilton, under the management of W. Wallace Bruce, formerly assistant manager of the head office, Toronto.

BRITISH CABINET CHANGES.

London, Oct. 22.—According to the Morning Post, the close of the autumn, or the beginning of the next session of parliament is likely to see important changes in the cabinet.

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the premier, probably will be raised to the peerage, and will lead the Liberals in the house of lords, remaining, however, as premier.

This would enable the aged Marquis of Ripon to retire as Liberal leader in the house of lords, and H. H. Asquith would become Liberal leader in the house of commons.

ON DEPARTMENTAL BUSINESS.

John Armstrong of the provincial bureau of labor is going to London today on business connected with the office.

The Lonely Life

The Tragic Confession of a Spinster, Who Realizes That No Fame or Wealth Can Compensate for the Solitude of Her Life.

In this article the author, whose name for obvious reasons we are not at liberty to disclose, drops for once the mask which she in common with other "Bachelor Maids," is accustomed to turn to the world.

Though no longer young, she frankly says she longs for the companionship of a husband and the care of children. The circumstances which have kept from her the happiness which these blessings bring are stated with the same directness which characterizes the whole article. It is the life-story of a "successful" woman, a drama of real life in which the last act is a tragedy.
