The rush to the Klondike next spring The Sanatorium, although it has only the opened for four months, has already oved that its work is no longer an eximent. Up to the present time 45 titents have been received, 24 of whom two come from Toronto, the others from the low area of Western Ontario, reprending all classes of society, editors, minters, business men, servants, mechanics, udents, clerks and other. In almost every use it can be said that remarkable process has been made. A number have been scharged by the medical superintendent tred, or with the disease arrested so that ork may be resumed.

One of the indications of improvement in the patients, which might be noted, is the acouraging fact that 42 out of 45 have only a decided increase in weight. About the patients, which might be noted, is the patients, which might be noted, is the patients, which might be noted, is the own a decided increase in weight. About the patients have gained from 15 to 28 to 15 patients have gained from 15 pat by far the best route to the Klondike that it is no longer necessary for the sick ones to take a weary pilgrimage to Colorado or California, and thus be exiled far from home?

An incident occurred recently which serves to express the spirit of "new hope" that comes to those who enter the Sanatorium. One of the best known citizens of Toronto, having occasion to bring, his sick daughter to the institution, said to a friend at the dinner table: "This is the first meal I have eaten for a month." During the previous weeks he had been watching, with troubled heart, his child, weak and suffering from the disease, but after entering the Sanatorium, with its cheering the Sanatorium with its cheering the Sanatorium, said to a friend at the dinner table: "This is the first meal I have eaten for a month." During the previous weeks he had been watching, with troubled heart, his child, weak and suffering from the disease, but after the sanatorium with the cheering the Sanatorium, with its cheering the Sanatorium, of the others were available to him. Canada will secure the bagger part of the Klondike trade next spring, and the whole country will be greatly benefited thereby.

It has been a common saying ever since I entered the business that electrical development was only in its infancy, and, notwithstanding all that has taken place, I am still convinced that the saying is almost as true to-day as it ever was. Great as the development has been in the past, there is a vast field in the future yet to be occupied. Not only will every waterfall and rapid be utilized for the production of electrical energy, but the force in every gale of wind will be called into use for the same purpose. Electric or trolley lines of railways will be extended over all the principal highways of the country, and all steam railways will be run by electric power. Our houses will not only be lighted but heated by electricity, and we shall require no more coal in our houses for any purpose. Horses will largely disappear, and we shall have better and cleaner streets. Tall and smoky chimneys will disappear. Every farmer will have an electric motor for use in streets. Tall and smoky chimneys will disappear. Every farmer will have an electric motor for use in his work of various kinds, and this leaf of various will be convenient. As if to emphasize the bull talk, both Armour's and Letter's men bought wheat to-day. Armour's movements are closely velled, but Letter's engineers made no secret of their dealings in May wheat. Already that option is regarded as being very dangerous for the public to handle. Smokers, fine briars in cases, and fine cases, and fine with cases and the Canadian Niagara Power Company the latter is legally obliged to develop only 25,000 horse power in Canada, to deliver only 12,500, or one half of it. This is the bald fact underlying this precious document. Provided it supplies Canada with 12,500 vided it supplies Canada with 12,500 horse power, this company can defy the Government and devote all its attential that the case will. Ward No. 3 for aldermanic honors there is perhaps none who is deserving of support more than Mr. A. F. Webster, the well-known passenger agent, corner King and Yonge-streets. Mr. Webster is a main in whout the citizens can safely trust where the best interests of the city are at stake.

LIVER, LANGUOR AND CONSTIPATION.

When your liver gets slug-gish, inactive, your whole health suffers, your bowels become called for by the act. This duty does gish, inactive, your whole health constipated, tongue coated, complexion muddy, your head aches, you have the "blues."

Helping the liver to resume its proper function, removing the bile that is circulating in the blood and poisoning the system, is the work of Burdock

Blood Bitters. In all these years of its existence B.B.B. has yet no rival for diseases of the stomach, liver, blood and bowels,never fails in the worst cases of constipation. Here's a remarkable instance.

Miss Mary R. Anderson of Frankford, Ont., says that for five or six years she suffered from liver trouble and constipation so severely that she nearly went out of her mind, she tried doctors in both the country and town, and took medicines too numerous to mention, but all to no purpose. Then she started taking Burdock Blood Bitters which succeeded beyond all expectations, requiring only two bottles to effect a complete cure.
