BIG DEAL IN REAL ESTATE.

The Jamieson Corner, 40x80 Feet, Sold by the Ontario Government for $101,000.

EXTENSION OF VICTORIA-STREET

Favorably Reported on by Commissioner Fleming—New Budget From City Hall.

A big deal in real estate was consummated and registered yesterday afternoon. The 4000 foot lot upon which the Jamieson building stands was sold by the Ontario Government to the trustees of the estate of the Hon. William McMaster, for $101,000.

This is at the rate of $25.25 per foot, with a depth of 80 feet. The transaction is a striking commentary on the refusal of the trustees to sell the Knox Church site, a much larger property, for $120,000 lately.

Report on New Hotel. The report of the Assessment Commissioner to the Board of Works today was strongly favorable to the extension of Victoria-street for the immediate benefit of the projected new hotel. The Board required a report on three matters, the value of the extension as a street, as to its effects on surrounding property, and as to the legal aspect of the proposition.

The commissioner reports that in the interest of the whole city the work should be carried out. He would, however, assess a small proportion of the cost of the extension to be determined upon in accordance with the accruing benefit. The legal aspect of the case simply is that legislation to confirm the city's rights will have to be secured.

How Soap Deal Stands.

Solicitor W. G. McWilliams, on behalf of a ratepayer, has written the Mayor threatening action to secure an injunction upon the execution of the Sunlight Soap agreement. Mr. McWilliams says that he has written the Mayor threatening action to secure an injunction upon the execution of the Sunlight Soap agreement.

Mr. McWilliams says that he has written the Mayor threatening action to secure an injunction upon the execution of the Sunlight Soap agreement. He says that he has written the Mayor threatening action to secure an injunction upon the execution of the Sunlight Soap agreement.

After the Poor Ferry Action. In threatening on behalf of a ratepayer his injunction against the operation of the free ferry, Mr. McWilliams refers the Mayor to the city's own collector, who, he says, "must advise you that the corporation has no power to operate a ferry, free or otherwise, except the chain ferry provided for by the act of the last session of the Legislature."

So that the continued bluff made necessary by the misconduct of affairs at the legislature is now being called in to wobble the cards?

Costworth Had Decided It. The sub-committee of Property, in charge of the cattle market trouble, fixed it all up yesterday, or rather City Commissioner Costworth did it for them. The commissioner, who had been instructed to draft plans of the market as proposed to re-arrange the present market, with the additional information that the work involved had already been carried out, he decided the total cost is to be $2000 for all alterations. The sub-committee report the remodelled market sufficient for all present needs.

Will Clinch the Matter. At the Property Committee yesterday it was decided, on motion of Mr. Sheppard and Lamb, to clinch the argument by referring the matters in dispute, respecting payment for furniture, to the City Solicitor with instructions to take action on the agreement between city and county. The point of difference is between the city's contention that the city should be reimbursed for all the furniture, and the county's claim that it is not to be reimbursed for anything but for replacing of furniture.

Faying Double. The City Solicitor is contracting for telephones for another month at the old City Hall. Phones are also being paid for at the new, so that the city is paying double for its haste in occupying the new hall. Manager Dunstan of the Bell Telephone Company is asked to rebate all or a part of the cost of phones at the old hall.

Commissioner Costworth recommended the acceptance of an offer of $180 for a year's lease of the slaughter house at the cattle market, but tendering was more acceptable to the committee. The City Solicitor was permitted to apply for patents to certain water lots near the ordinance lands.

Ward's Leasehold. A couple of excellent lease deals have been made by Assessment Commissioner Fleming, one releasing the David Ward property and the other the Front-street property east of York-street, on the south side.

The rest of the time was occupied with complaints from Sheriff Mowat, Chief Grasset and others, respecting apartments at the new City Hall, and with the passage of the Allocation Committee report relating to the offices of county officials.

Three busts of the Queen were bought from John Nunn, at $10 each. They are to adorn the committee tables.

Rest's Fortnightly. In his report to the Board of Works today, the City Engineer recommends, on suggestion of Street Commissioner Jones, the removal of the York-street avenue city stables to Tammy Hollow. This is the result of reports from the Medical Health Officer concerning the present stables.

Following up Aid. Lynd's motion, he recommends further that the sewage west of Miller-street should be treated for a mile east, separately. He would extend the Fort Miller-street sewer along Dominion-street and the Miller-street sewer to the end of the wharf, at a total cost of $1000.

To secure more wharfage accommodation, an offer by Mr. George Fears of the wharf on the west side of George-street slip, at $200 and taxes for the year, and the whole wharf, 520 feet deep, for the next four years, at $700 and taxes per annum, is recommended for acceptance.

To secure a car line from Avenue-road to the Union Station, Mr. Eastwood tries to secure legislation permitting the running of cars through the University ravine.

However, he adds, "before recommending any more street railway routes, I desire to call the attention of the committee to the fact that the Toronto Railway Company have so far failed to comply with the order of Council to make certain extensions of their system already recommended by the City Engineer and endorsed by Council, and it would appear that they have no intention to make these extensions. I, therefore, think it would be advisable for your committee to consider the question of taking legal proceedings to compel the company to carry out the orders of the Council."

The ... Truth About the Ha-wood Indictment

A despatch published in the World of June 24 announces that an indictment has been secured at Pittsburg against John H. Patterson, president, and Joseph S. Crane, M. N. Jacobs, D. E. Perkins, N. F. Thomas and Thomas Savagere-agents of the National Cash Register Company, charging them with conspiracy. The indictment is based upon an affidavit sworn to by W. H. Gill, agent for the Ha-wood Cash Register Company at Pittsburg.

Gill was formerly in the employ of our Pittsburg agent, Mr. M. N. Jacobs, but was discharged for cause. He was appointed sales agent for the Ha-wood Cash Register Company.

The above statements are wholly false. The reason they failed to succeed in Pittsburg was because of the inferior quality of the Ha-wood registers, which were maliciously conspired and agreed to defraud the Ha-wood Cash Register Company, and "dishonest and unlawful acts and false statements and representations destroyed and ruined the business of the Ha-wood Cash Register Company."

The New Hat

Don't Forget That!

To-day Dineens remains open until 10 p.m. for the convenience of patrons who will not have time to stop at the store in the morning for the hats that are to enhance the enjoyment of Dominion Day outings to-morrow and every hat purchased up to the closing hour will be delivered to any address in the city.

We have never made such extensive and elaborate preparations for a new hat event as to-day's displays of correct, up-to-date midsummer hats for the holiday outing to-morrow. There are no less than ten different styles in featherweight felt hats of bright tints to choose from, and the shapes are the latest—a little fuller in crown and wider in rims than the forms which came out earlier in spring.

In buying a new hat at Dineens to-day you are sure of the styles that you will see most in vogue next month.

New styles in straw hats for July, which arrived at Dineens from New York yesterday, are quite a bit nobbler than anything that came out and went out a month or so ago. There are midsummer fancies in the weight and get-up of the new midsummer straw hats which are unmistakably different from the spring reminiscences in straws seen most anywhere else. The constant freshening of stock at Dineens is the natural operation of a great big business.

You don't expect this in a smaller concern with a smaller trade—and, at Dineens you are not fooled in either the styles or the prices.

For ladies, there is a new caprice of fashion in both felt and straw hats—mere wafers in weight, but decidedly dressy—which will be in great vogue all through the month of July and into the fall season. A rakish elegance is expressed in an expansive rim, surmounted with a dainty little crown, trimmed in exquisite taste with white, and variegated China silks in plain and fancy effects. A full feathered eagle's quill, thrust in the side of the crown trimming, adds the dash which distinguishes the Ladies' "Rough Rider" from any other outing hat-style designed by the men who fashion the military ideals of the day. These hats are shown at Dineens in all the shades to suit different tastes—in white, pearl, turquoise, tan and the other fashionable tints.

and the prices at Dineens are no higher than those styles and inferior qualities are offered at elsewhere.
