HATS OFF TO THE KNITTERS!

Last May the young ladies of Class 27 of Dundas Centre Methodist Church divided themselves into three teams for a knitting contest, which were captained by Misses Edna Martindale, Lettie Page and Alice Vsrwere captained by Misses Edna Martindale, Lettie Page and Alice Vertin. During the summer fingers were kept busy, and on Thursday evering the socks were all called in. The knitters and their friends brought their socks to the vestry of Dundas Centre Churca, and the socks came in two, threes, dozens, twenty-fives and so on, and the president capped the climax by bringing in 142 pairs herself. It showered socks, it rained socks, in fact, there was a deluge and a downpour of socks. One literally socks, in fact, there was a deluge and a downpour of socks. One literally waded through woolly aisles of socks, around tables and chairs piled up. filled to overflowing, and finally when there was no place else to put them, even the floor was piled with socks. When all the pairs were count-ed it was found Miss Lettie Page's side had won, with a total of 268 pairs, and the grand total of the three sides was 695 pairs, with more to follow. "Send Our Socks," signal the boys in the trenches, and Class 27 surely

After congratulations, the wedding luncheon was served. A toast to the bride was responded to by the groom, the bride's father, George H. Scott and J. J. Mason. Many beautiful gifts bear testimony of the esteem in which the bride is held, and who has been very successful in her career as a graduate nurse. The bride wore a dress of white georgette crepe, pearl trimming, veil with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white roses, old lace and heather, sent from England by Arthur Mason, who is in the aviation corps. SUGGESTIVE QUESTIONS ON THE UNIFORM LESSON FOR SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1918. ONE GOLDEN TEXT SUGGESTION. By Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D. Fruits of the Christian Life.-Matt., 25:14-30; 5:1-12.

QUESTIONS FOR TODAY.

18. Verses 1-12. Christ was doubtless giving his own experience, would you, or not, and why, say that he has made provision that all his true followers may enjoy a like blessed experience?

19. What would you say are the present enjoy a like blessed experience?

19. What would you say are the present possessions of the followers of Christ according to the words of Jesus?

20. What is necessary for each person to do in order that he may possess all the blessings, that Christ here pronounces, all the time?

Golden Text—All things are yours;
... and ye are Christ's: and Christ s God's. 1 Cor., iii., 21b, 23.
"YE ARE CHRIST'S AND CHRIST IS GOD'S."
The chief reason why all things worth having are literally ours is because we The chief reason why all things worth having are literally ours is because we belong to the great God who owns all things. "God owns the cattle upon a thousand hills," and, "the silver and the gold are his." He made all things, he controls all things, all the forces of nature are under his command. His hands are upon the throttle valve of the universe, and therefore all things are ours. We are the children of a king; God made us, he is our Father, Jesus Christ is our brother, our Savior and our friend; the Holy Spirit is our comforter. We dwell in the heart of God; he truly loves us and cares for us; he loves us with an infinite love, and because we thus belong to him, and are his sons and heirs, all things he program to the source of the course we thus belong to him, and are his sons and heirs, all things he program to the source of the course we have the source of the course of the c ong to him, and are his sons and heirs, all things he possesses we

FOOD BOARD FLASHES FOR FEMININE FOLK

We haven't been saying too much about them all summer, but now that this year's crop is a reality, it is high time to begin talking potatoes again. The crop is a fair one. The war gardens have helped considerably and few homes this year will be without some potatoes of their own growing. The farm houses will have the usual large quantity to put down in the cellar for winter use.

The farmers' wives do not have far to look for substitutes for what flour for use in bread-making while they have plenty of potatoes left over from dinner. They can be used with flour up to a 50 per cent proportion. The oven should not be too hot when baking bread with potatoes, and the large natural moisture content of the tuber should be taken into account in preparing the sponge.

Can Lard Be Sweetened?

Dear Miss Grey,—I would like to know if any of the Pageites could tell me how to sweeten lard. I put it in crocks in the spring, covered with a thin cloth and a layer of salt, then tied paper over it, but it is not keeping nicely. I would like to know a better way, and if this that I have can be made fit to use.

FOREST. and any nints will be very welcome. In case no one else responds, Forest, I may say that to place the lard in a good-sized kettle, pour boiling water over and let it boil, has been found a simple and good way of sweetening lard. Passes It On.

Dear Miss Grey,-Just a line or two o thank you for helping to get The Advertiser to France to my son, who has written to thank us all. After he has read the paper he passes it on. I notice the sending out of lonelies' names has been such a help to boys over there. has been such a help to boys over there.
