The making of "contraband" in various parts of the country at the present time, and subsequent deaths of many inexperienced manufacturers, has re-called the incident of the still that se mysteriously disappeared many years ago. It is stated that this still is now, and has been all these years, within ten miles of Cascade, although it has not been used to make liquor for many years.

CASCADE, lowa, April 21.—Not many people know that there are a number of old stills still in existence, but not in use, in this section.

Why go to the mountains of Tennessee for movie scenario when the "propra" and everything are within the gasy reach right here in lowa—if you happen to know the location. The outfits for making "mountain dew" are bere, and have been for Torty years or more. The scenery for adding a touch of the wild to the picture is also here. The main point, then, is where are these stills located? That is the real point, all right. It has been the whole point with the government for forty years with regard to one particular outfit that found its way into this section.

It is alleged to have been shipped from some eastern point, and was trac
