SHEA'S ONCE MORE.

Next week Shea's Theatre will reopen for the season of 1909-10. The headline act for the week will be Miss Edna Aug, the singing comedienne, who has but recently returned from abroad, where she was a furore in her repertoire and a new and clever monolog. A novelty and one of the most attractive offerings on the vaudeville stage is Melville Stolz's little Bellini's Opera I Puritani; Potourri, players in the musical phantasy, Kid-Kerry Mills, Wm. Scheeley; Piccolo dieland. The beautiful production is all worked out by the tiny people in egrity permitted by:
