

Mrs. Burns moved, seconded by several ladies, that the Tellers retire to count the ballots.

Mrs. Brownell reported distribution of literature at the Fair.

On motion of Mrs. Lytle, seconded by several ladies, a rising vote of thanks was tendered Mesdames Carlyle and Hilborn for their faithful and arduous work at the Fair, coupled with a message of sympathy to Mrs. Hilborn, who, through illness, was not able to be present.

The nominative ballot for President showed Mrs. Bascom to be the almost unanimous choice of the meeting.

Mrs. Chamberlain moved that the informal ballot be made the formal.

As Mrs. Bascom positively refused to stand for re-election, the result was as follows :

President—Mrs. E. A. Stevens.

Vice-President—Mrs. A. M. Bascom.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. M. M. Brownell.

Recording Secretary—Mrs. A. G. Wilson.

Treasurer—Mrs. Fannie Moffat.

Reports of Scientific Temperance and Gospel Tent work were given and adopted.

The latter, by Mrs. Forster, recommended that it be made a department of District work.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.
