VIVIAN MARTIN, "SUBMARINE" SERIAL AND CHRISTIE

The week-end programme at Imperial is a particularly long one and filled with interesting motion pictures. In the first place winsome little Vivian Martin, who is considered a rival to Mary Pickford, Marguerite Clark, Mary Miles Minteer and other diminutive stars, will appear in a pretty and yet rather strenuous story of the Kentucky mountains entitled "The Stronger Love." This is a Morosco-Paramount production of the new issues and marks a pronounced step forward in the offerings of this particular company. Miss Martin is surrounded by a splendid cast of players. The "Secret of The Submarine," serial story reaches its 13th chapter this week and shows signs of a tremendous surprise and climax in the succeeding two episodes, which will conclude the fiction. There will be a Christie comedy in today's programme as well, in all making an eight reel show.

A FEATURE THAT SHOULD BE OF MUCH INTEREST

In addition to the regular performance by the Homan Musical Company at the Opera House tomorrow afternoon the company will present what is called a Fashion Shop. During the course of this Fashion Shop—each lady member of the company is fitted with a dress—cat, designed and finished from material selected on the stage and made in full ylew of the audience. This is a thoroughly practical lesson in fashionable dressmaking, and should not be missed by any lady interested in the world of fashion.

Catarrh is as much a blood disease as scrofula or rheumatism. It may be relieved, but it cannot be removed by simply local treatment. It causes headache and dizziness, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, affects the voice, deranges the digestion, and breaks down the general health. It weakens the delicate lung tissues and leads to consumption.

Hood's Sarsaparilla goes to the seat of the trouble, purifies the blood, and is so successful that it is known as the best remedy for catarrh.
