FURTHER RESTRICTIONS ON

Charlottetown, P.E.I., April 12—The prohibition act amendments now before the legislature prohibit the sale of all fermented or malt beer of any kind, irrespective of the amount of alcohol it contains. Heretofore beer which contained up to 3 per cent of alcohol could be sold.

Another amendment provides that no druggist shall sell intoxicating liquor, either as a medicine or as part of a prescription, unless such druggist is registered. Any registered druggist who commits a violation of the act may have his name removed from the register.

There is another clause with respect to offences, first, second, third and so on. It simplifies greatly the work of the clerk of the court, requires merely to state the dates of previous offences, if any, and reduces to a minimum mistakes in making out informations.

The premier led off the debate on the amendments with a three hours' speech, in which he sought to defend the government against the attacks of the Temperance Alliance. Other members of the government joined in, bitterly attacking the alliance. The latter is preparing a complete reply to the charges.

Ottawa, April 12—The bad boots supplied to Canada's soldiers are being whitewashed, under government orders. The coat of kalsomine is being made thick and strong in the hope that it may cover up the holes, the splits, the spongy soles, the broken uppers and other frailities, which were sworn to in the evidence of the men who had to wear them.

All day parliament debated the majority and minority reports. It is a straight partisan report, the government industriously applying the whitewash, the opposition as vigorously, exposing the ugly actuality. Each of the seven members of the committee spoke. That took all day and night.

Then Premier Borden and General Hughes made the final apology. The latter declared that as a result of the cry of scandal an order from the Russian government for $3,000,000 worth of boots to be made in Canada had been can

SCHOOL MATTERS

J. Stewart Henry, teacher in grade X., sigh school, was granted six weeks' leave of absence on half pay at last night's meeting of the school board, in rder to allow him to take a course of nilitary training in Ottawa.

The Women's Canadian Club was ranted the use of the High school as-

The Women's Canadian Club was granted the use of the High school assembly hall on April 19.

Margaret Adams applied for a position on the teaching staff.

Enoch Thompson, of La Tour school, reported that the teacher, pupils and other had purchased a piano for the school and asked that the board should accept it and have it insured. The gift was accepted with thanks and instructions were given to follow out the request of the donor.

Dr. Bridges explained to the meeting that the Women's Canadian Club proposes to carry out some patriotic celebration on May 18, Loyalist Day, and he said that Mrs. G. A. Kuhring asked him if some of the pupils of the school would be allowed to sing on the occasion. He said that about 600 children have been training under Miss Robinson and would answer the purpose for which they are required. On being informed that the board would incur no expense, all agreed to co-operate with the Canadian Club.

The matter of framing a letter of condolence to relatives of the late Edward Manning, M. A., who was for many years secretary of the board, was referred to a committee.

The secretary reported 7,721 pupils enrolled for the month, and an average daily attendance of 6,720; per cent. of enrolled being 90.08. The truant officer's report showed that during the month there were 99 irregular attendants and 19 truants.

At the meeting of the board of school

At the meeting of the board of school rustees last evening the members de-lined to abide by the cut of $10.000 made in the estimates by the city com-nissioners. Chairman Emerson was remayor and commissioners and he and another trustee will probably meet the council on the matter at the next session. From the reports submitted, it would appear that already about $1,800 of the "cut" had been spent. Trustee Coll said that while he and Dr. H. S. Bridges were in Fredericton recently the attorney-general and the premier had both said that the commissioners had acted beyond their authority, and two commissioners present had agreed with them.
