

NEW EVIDENCE AT PARIS TRIAL

At the afternoon session of the Paris trial, yesterday, John McDonald continued his evidence. Others who testified were Mrs. Joseph Gerow, Alfred M. Byers, William J. Lavigne, Robert A. Elliott, Walter Humphrey and Luther B. Smith.

The first new witness in the case, Luther B. Smith, a West Side contractor and lumberman, was then sworn. He told of motoring to the city on Aug. 2, and seeing a man, apparently excited, whom he believed to be Paris. He saw the man, who was dressed in khaki, between 1 and 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. Smith said he thought the man was going to kill him, as he came within twenty or thirty feet of him before wheeling about and starting hurriedly in the direction of the bridge. Witness thought the stranger had on riding breeches. He noticed his build, height and general appearance. In his judgment and belief the man in the dock was he. The place witness first saw the stranger was at a point between 200 and 300 feet from the Cowan property, towards the bridge, and on the city side of the Murray & Gregory road.

To Mr. Vernon, Mr. Smith said the

RECENT WEDDINGS

Lockhart-Lingley.
A very pretty wedding was solemnized last evening, Wednesday, September 27, at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. H. B. Clarke, of the Portland Methodist church, in Paradise row, when Muriel Amanda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Osborne Lingley, of 80 Kennedy street, became the bride of Harry Berton Lockhart, also of Kennedy street. The bride was attired in a suit of navy blue serge with picture hat to match. The bride was attended by Miss Thelma Armstrong and Herbert Lingley, brother

Modern, Easy-to-clean Rugs at Economy Prices —

The woman who does her own housework will find Gold-Seal Art-Rugs real time and labor savers. In place of tire-some sweeping and beating, she runs a damp mop over the firm, sanitary surface. In a twinkling the rug is spotlessly clean, its bright colors fresh and new.

These rugs lie perfectly flat on the floor without any fastening—never "kick up" at the edges.

In Gold-Seal Congoleum Rugs you find all the warmth of color and beauty of design formerly available only in the better grade of fabric rugs. They come in most attractive patterns, appropriate for the various rooms of the house. Note the surprisingly low prices.

Scheme for The Blind
The annual report of the National Institute of the Blind, just published, outlines a new scheme which it is hoped will be of considerable help to blind people south of the Thames in London. The Ministry of Health is co-operating in a scheme whereby blind workers can be provided with tools and equipment in their own homes. Raw materials would be supplied at cost price and markets found for the goods produced.
