SKATING.

Wants International Meet.

Hilton Belyea will apply for the holding of the big international skating championships on his rink in West St. John. An engineer's report will be submitted to the committee. Hilton says he is ready to construct a grandstand that will accommodate 5,000 people, and in addition 2,000 can be taken care of in the rink. With an adequate street car service and the two rinks operating he feels that the public could easily be handled.

Boat in Portland.

Portland, Maine, Nov. 29.—"Sailor" Byron, New England light-weight champion, won a newspaper decision over Johnny Leonard of Allentown, Pa., last night, knocking his opponent down three times early in the bout.

New Yorker Wins.

New York, Nov. 29.—Jack Bernstein of New York, won the judge's decision over Babe Herman of California, in a 2-round bout here last night.

BILLIARDS.

Conti Leads Here.

New York, Nov. 29.—Roger Conti of France, last night increased his lead over Edmond Horemans of Belgium, in his 1,800 point 182 ball pool billiard match. The score at the end of the second day's play gave him 1,800 to 78 for the Belgian.

BASKETBALL.

Centrals Win.

The second basketball team of the Central Baptist church, playing four men, defeated Ludlow street Baptist church team 20 to 15 last evening. The players were: Centrals, Golding, MacDonald, Arthur and Beans; Ludlow, Naring, Hammond, Toole, Edwards and Belyea.

Young Judeans Win.

The Y. M. C. I. Junior Basketball League opened last night, when the Young Judeans and the Sons of Zion played a fast game, the former winning the long end of an 8-7 score.

Game This Evening.

An interesting game of basketball will be played in the Y. M. C. I. gymnasium this evening between last year's champions and this year's High School team. The latter aggregation have been practicing hard and are anxious to score a victory over their more experienced opponents.

FOOTBALL.

New Record.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 29.—Financially Yale has broken all American intercollegiate football records this season. Twice the bowl has been filled to its capacity of 77,000, the Army and Harvard drawing these crowds. Yale attracted 65,000 persons. No minor college drew less than 10,000, the average attendance at these contests being 28,000. Ten games were scheduled, two more than usual, making between $100,000 and $200,000 as the total receipts for the season.

BILLIARDS.

Hoppe's Comeback.

(New York Times)
Willie Hoppe once more is supreme in the billiard world. Last week he regained the 182 championship by winning the international tournament at the Hotel Pennsylvania. That his victory was a popular one was emphatically demonstrated by the acclaim with which it was received. Never has there been a more enthusiastic demonstration following the crowning of a king in sports than that which greeted him to the clash between Hoppe and Jake Schaefer, who had held the title for a year.

That Hoppe's successful comeback occasioned some surprise was to be expected. Last season he was twice defeated by Schaefer in succession. He defeated Hoppe in the final game of the international tournament at Chicago and repeated the dose in the play-off of the tie for first place. Later he successfully defended his crown against Hoppe in a challenge match of 1,800 points. To many this indicated that Schaefer had Hoppe's number; that Willie at last had met his measure. But Hoppe upset these calculations.

Hoppe's victory was one in which grit and bulldog tenacity in refusing to admit defeat played a leading part. Prior to the tournament the former "boy wonder" believed that he was in the best possible physical condition to withstand the terrific strain. But he developed a nervous disorder in his right shoulder which seriously handicapped him in executing treacherous masses. For a time it seemed that this handicap would prove too great for him to overcome and would lead to his downfall. But Hoppe is a fighter as well as a master billiardist. He realized more than any one else what he was up against. He knew how seriously his playing was affected. It was then that he called all of his resources into action, and frequently during the last three of his five games extricated himself from difficulties by making bank shots and around-the-table drives in preference to attempting masses. It was his accuracy in executing these strokes that saved him.

Jake Schaefer, Roger Conti and Edmond Horemans were tied in the matter of games won and lost, each scoring three victories against two defeats. The tie was decided by the grand averages. On this basis they finished in the order named, and Schaefer and Conti will play a match game of 1,800 points within sixty days for the privilege of challenging Hoppe for a match of similar length for the title. Should Hoppe be beaten he can challenge for a return match. Thus, plenty of activity is promised during the remainder of the season.

HOCKEY.
St. Patrick's Win Great Game.
Winnipeg, Nov. 29.—The world's champions, St. Patrick's of Toronto, were victorious in the first game of the western tour here last night, defeating the Edmonton Eskimos 2 to 1.

All the goals were scored in the second period. The win was rather a lucky one, as a soft shot from Randall's stick, which Winkler pulled into the Edmonton net when it was a foot outside the post, decided the conflict in favor of the Pats. But it was the greatest exhibition of hockey staged on Winnipeg ice for many a year and abounded with thrills from going to goal.

The lightning rushes of Simpson were the feature of the Edmonton play, while Stuart and Randall did the heavy work for the winners.

What the Sale Saves You in Browish Fur

Like flares. The broad dark striping of the deep shawl collar is reflected in the sweeping border and of course there's a satin lining of special artistry. These are but two among two hundred remarkable models at no-profit reductions that prevail this week only at

H. Mont Jones
EXCLUSIVE FUR DESIGNERS
92 King Street.

FOR A BEAVER with color character and lightness of weight, together with perennial wear, commend yourself to the South American Nutria—here is one at the $100.000 Sale that's discounted at $150 off its old price of $300.

On a 36 inch Sport Model the wrappy shawl collar spells warmth, comfort and favoring fashion. A pull-through belt lets it hang in three long folds or it may snug in at the waist in half or all-around belting. Sleeves are turned back and the lining over the 70 inch sweep is pussy-yellow tulle.

Quenfishes for someone at $350—or $150 off.

Or the King of the 'Coons

FOR resplendent fur-fur in Raccoon none equals our own New Brunswick "bushies." An opportunity came for the designer to assemble a group of big heavily haired specimens into a Fifth Avenue Coat at a Mont Jones price—and this week it goes down again from $175 to $425. Quality 'Coons are here as low as $270, but this one is King of them all. Single pelts were enough for roamy sleeves with kimono-like flares.

Refuses $5,000 for Season.
Toronto, Nov. 29.—Leo Dandurand, owner of the Montreal Canadiens, offered Lionel Conacher a $5,000 one-year contract here yesterday, but the local athlete declined to jump to the pro-ranks. The offer is the largest ever made to a hockey player in this country, but Conacher says he would not turn professional under any consideration. The lure of football will keep him permanently out of pro hockey.

Fredericton, N. B., Nov. 29.—Much surprise is being occasioned here by comment appearing in some of the New York and Boston newspapers regarding Bill Sharen, 2,044, a Fredericton bred trotter, at $28,000, in Canadian funds two years ago to Thomas W. Murphy of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., made him the highest priced trotter ever bred in Canada. After reducing the record for Canadian bred trotters to 2:04 1/4, last season, he is to be sold at the Old Glory sale in New York on Thursday. Locally the opinion seems to be that his value has been chopped about in two by the fact that he has been gelded. One of the surprising statements by turf writers recently about the chestnut is: "Bill requires man-handling of the severe sort at times, or at least has in the past." Nothing was ever further from the truth, according to his breeder, S. J. Boyle of this city, and his original trainer, Bill Sharen.

"That kind of treatment and the disposition not to race him out in front, we believe, the reasons Bill Sharen is not now listed among the two minute trotters," said one who knows as much as anybody about the horse.

In the Clerical League Waterbury & Rising took three points from the General Electric quintette. The winners totaled 1332 and the losers 1274.

In the N. B. Telephone House League team No. 4 took all four points from team No. 1. The winners totaled 1280 and the losers 1143.

In the Commercial League Ames-Holden-McCreedy took three points from G. E. Barbour. The winners totaled 1289 and the losers 1273.

In the Bankers League the team from the Charlotte street branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia took all four points from the Main Office quintette. The winners totaled 1307 and the losers 1192.

In the Garrison League Headquarters team took three points from Artillery No. 1. The winners totaled 1440 and the losers 1368.

In the Inter-Society League St. Peter's team took three points from St. John the Baptist quintette. The winners totaled 1189 and the losers 1147.

Lowie of the latter team had 117 in his third string.

In the Y. M. C. I. House League the Hawks took four points by default from the Sparrows. The team rolled and totaled 1407. Winchester established a new league record of 130 for a single string.

COLLEGIATE SKATING ASSOCIATION URGED
International Union Wants New Sport Body Formed—Allocates Championships.

(New York Times)
The national ice skating championships will be held in Chicago this winter, the Canadian championships in Montreal, and the international championship meet at St. John, N. B. These selections were made at the recent convention of the officers of the international Skating Union. In addition, the officers mapped out a plan for a vigorous promotion of the sport. A forward step was that of suggesting to the colleges of the different state and district associations to get into communication with the schools and colleges in the same district with the formation of an intercollegiate skating association in view. There is already an intercollegiate Hockey Association. A number of colleges now have rinks of their own, or have the use of rinks in the cities in which they are located, where competitive events in speed and figure skating could be held.

During the last three years ice skating has flourished as never before in its history. More than 400 cities have built ice rinks on tennis courts and vacant lots, lighted them for evening skating, and promoted carnivals of a municipal nature.

How successful the effort to organize an intercollegiate skating association will be is problematical at this time, but the fact that a determined drive in that direction is to be undertaken indicates that it may bear fruit in the not distant future. Practically all of the country where the weather is favorable support hockey teams and it is argued there is no good reason why they should not support skating teams as well and engage in competitions with other colleges.

MAN WITH HUGE APPETITE
EATS CHIPS AND THEN DIES
London, Nov. 1.—(By Mail)—It was stated at a Blyth inquest on Henry Christie, who was found dead, that he had a voracious appetite, and that recently he ate a great quantity of chips.
