THAT INVESTIGATION

The Campbellton Graphic says the friends of Hon. Mr. Currie are not troubled about the outcome of the enquiry into the charges made against him in the legislature, and adds—"When the commission is appointed to investigate these charges we hope that its powers will not be limited to this certain charge, but that it be empowered to investigate the matter for some years back and we feel sure that Restigouche county will contribute some spicy evidence before said committee. Let the investigation be thorough and down to the bottom."

NOT TOOLS BUT DYNAMITE

Valley Railway Sub-Contractor Charged in Police Court—Military Service Policeman in Trouble

In the police court this morning Tony Marshall, sub-contractor on the Valley Railway, was charged with having more than ten pounds of dynamite in the private residence of Mrs. Creamer, 79 Bridge street, last night, without her knowledge. He was declared liable to a heavy fine and was sent inside. According to the evidence, Marshall bought the explosives for railway work, took them to his home on the West side and put them in a valise. This he purposed to take to Otonabee and put aboard as ordinary freight. Being called suddenly to the city, he went to Mrs.
Creamer's house and left the valise there, leaving his name, but saying that there were carpenter's tools in the valise. Being suspicious, Mrs. Creamer looked inside and found the explosives and sent for the police. Detectives Bridges and Duncan went over and arrested Marshall.
One man was remanded on drunkenness charge and three men reported for breaking traffic regulations were fined $50 each, all fines being allowed to stand.

A military service policeman was charged with being drunk and using firearms in Union street last night. He was allowed to go on $400 recognisance until next Friday. The prisoner was formerly a member of the Fighting 28th. He pleaded guilty to all charges, including that of assaulting a negro in Union street. Magistrate Ritchie in summing up the case said, "The trouble is not that this man here was a negro, not that the defendant was a Dominion police officer; not that he had a revolver; but that he was drunk. It's only one more trouble that we have here. If we were not for rum we'd have precious little work here."

THREE ST. JOHN MEN AMONG THEM

Welcome Given Today to Soldier Home From The War

Returned soldiers who arrived in the city last evening from Halifax were tendered a formal reception at the discharge depot this morning by the returning soldiers' reception committee. His Worship Mayor Hayes on behalf of the people of St. John and New Brunswick welcomed the soldier boys back to their native land. Included in the party were three St. John men, Privates W. Levine, J.
Booth and John Bosset.
Private Bosset was a member of the original 28th battalion and on the same ground on which the terrific battle is now being fought. Private Bosset got his first wound. He was wounded twice, once at Kemmel and the second time at Courmaitre.
Private Levine of Lombard street crossed overseas with the 140th battalion and was transferred into the 28th.
He was wounded twice, once at Hill 70 and a second time at Vimy Ridge.
Private Booth of 227 Wentworth street was a member of the first railway consignment. He was wounded by shrapnel in both ankles at Vimy Ridge.
He was in France for fourteen months.
The ladies of the committee presented to the boys bags containing candy and cigarettes.

GOOD WORDS FOR FERNHILL

Last Post Society, Montreal, Commends Action Relative to Burial of Soldiers Here

A copy of the annual report of Fern-hill Cemetery was recently sent by the superintendent to The Last Post Society in Montreal, an organization which looks after the proper care and burial of discharged soldiers and at their annual meeting the following resolution, proposed by Col. J. J. Creelman, D. S. O., and seconded by Brig-Gen. Labelle was carried unanimously:
"Whereas the 'Last Post' Imperial Naval and Military Contingency Fund, in annual session, have recommended that the directors of the Fernhill Cemetery Company of St. John, New Brunswick, have donated a conspicuously located 'field of honor' for the interment, free of any charge for burial, of any officer, or non-commissioned officer or man who has served the empire either at home or abroad;
"And whereas this beautiful burial plot has upon it two field pieces, and a flag staff from which the Union Jack flies on Sundays and other occasions, "And whereas the 'Last Post' Imperial Naval and Military Contingency Fund has for the last nine years been carrying on a work which they have persistently urged the provincial and federal governments to assume as a national obligation.
"And whereas there is reason to suppose the federal government are at present giving consideration to the matter of assuming the responsibility of accrediting a military or semi-military funeral, when possible to make such an arrangement, in recognized naval and military plots, to any ex-navy or ex-army man who has served with the forces of the empire in the present great war, or in her previous wars, or who has been honorably discharged.
"Be it resolved that the 'Last Post' Naval and Military Contingency Fund desire to convey to the directors of the Fernhill Cemetery Company their sincere appreciation of the sentiment and public spirit which has prompted them to take this action; and be it Further resolved that the federal government be strongly urged to consult with those who for years past have undertaken from a sense of patriotism a duty which it is daily becoming more obligatory for the government to assume, before taking any definite action in the matter.

HARD NAVIGATION

The ferry Governor Carleton again got into difficulties with the swirl of spring tides in the harbor and on her 5.50 trip to the city this morning was slowed sideways, and found herself unable to enter the slip. She went ahead several hundred yards, but so strong was the current that she again came to the slip out of control. It was more than half an hour before she finally managed to make her wharf.
