PLAYS AND PLAYERS

Budget of News Concerning Stage Favorites Known to St. John Audiences.

Forbes-Robertson, who is now making his farewell tour of the English provinces, has finally decided upon the repertoire during his farewell tour of America, opening in New York early in the autumn of 1912. He will present the same pieces which he is now using, including "Hamlet," "The Merchant of Venice," "The Light That Failed," "The Passing of the Third Floor Back" and Bernard Shaw's latest revised version of "Caesar and Cleopatra."

B. F. Keith has instituted a rigid system of five drills and uniform inspection in his New York houses.

Klaw & Erlanger have engaged Gustav von Seifertitz to stage "The Apple Cart," a new detective play in which Robert Hilliard is to star this season, and to create the strong character role of a German scientist who turns counterfeiter.

Jane Wheadley, recently of the Boston forces, has been engaged by William Fox for his production of "Julius Caesar." The cast now includes Tyrone Power, Frank Keenan, Fuller Mallah and Julie Opp.

The tour of the world which William A. Brady has arranged to begin early in April with four of his successful American plays, is being laid out with as much exactness as if it were a near or distant night stands in New Zealand. "It looks like a very big contract on his face," said Mr. Brady, "and as a fact, it is not only very big but also of an unusual nature."

Mr. Brady, "and as a fact, it is not only very big but also of an unusual nature."

These we shall make close connections for China, Japan, India and South Africa. The tour will occupy nearly three years, perhaps longer, depending on how it works out after the company reaches South Africa, where there is an immense appreciation for anything the people really like.

Alice Lloyd, an English comedienne who will be next week in the pretty musical production, "Little-Miss-Fixing," is playing this week at His Majesty's Theatre, Montreal, and is making her usual big hit.

Harold J. Rehill, a dashing young actor who played the title role in the production of "The Muppet" when it was presented here in New York, is this week having a pleasing part in "The Count of Luxembourg," a new comic opera in two acts which is going to have a long run.

Because of her great admiration for Captain A. H. Rooster of the S. S. Carpathia, which rescued the Titanic survivors, Miss Connie Magness, one of the dancers in "The Passing Show of 1912," at the Winter Garden, last week disguised herself as a boy and boarded the vessel at the pier in New York just before sailing time. She was discovered in an unoccupied stateroom taken before the captain and after a lecture lowered into a passing tug. Miss Magness, who was very attractive in male attire, explained that it was not for her to serve under Captain Rooster as a cabin boy.

Alicyn Arbellie has gone back to her first love, or rather the public's first great love for him, The Roundup, in which she may be seen in London. As with David Warfield and his Music Master, James O'Neill and his Monte Cristo, and Sylvia Beller and his Raffles, Joseph Jefferson and his Rip Van Winkle and Charles Warner and Drink, the success of finding it hard to live down his success. The message of the one play man hanging over him is that he is a long way from farming at Roundup Ranch at Washington, N. Y., to make him forget it. There he drops all cases, but not once of overdrift.

Virginia Harrel in a new playlet of her own authorship, has begun a fifteen week engagement ending for Greater New York in the Colonial this week, after which she goes on tour. The new playlet, which she has written for her former vehicle, also written by herself, "The Idol of the Hour," has been playing to big houses here with Zoe Barrett under J. C. Fisher's direction, is touring in Upper Canada, and has been playing to big houses. The company will continue through to the Pacific Coast.

MUSIC TAUGHT FREE

Home Instruction.

Special Offer to Readers of The Times and Star

In order to advertise and introduce their home study music lessons in every locality the International Institute of Music of New York will give free to our readers a complete course of instruction for either piano, organ, violin, mandolin, guitar, cornet, banjo, cello or sight singing. In return they simply ask that you recommend their Institute to your friends after you learn to play.

You may not know one note from another; yet, by their wonderfully simple and thorough method, you can soon learn to play. If you are an advanced player you will receive special instruction.

The lessons are sent weekly. They are so simple and easy that they are recommended to any person or little child who can read English. Photographs and drawings make everything plain. Under the Institute's free tuition offer you will be asked to pay only a very small amount (averaging 14 cents a week) to cover postage and the necessary book.

No one should overlook this wonderful offer. Tell your friends about it—show this article to them.

The International Institute has successfully taught others and can successfully teach you, even if you know absolutely nothing whatever about music. The lessons make everything clear.

Write today for the Free Booklet, which explains everything. It will convince you and cost you nothing. Address your letter or postal card to International Institute of Music, 85 Fifth Ave., Dept. 406B, New York, N. Y.

Canadian Doctors Prescribe and Recommend Duff's Pure Malt Whiskey

The good results derived from Duff's Pure Malt Whiskey

the great tonic stimulant, among leading doctors having been so marvelous here, they feel their duty to express themselves publicly for the benefit of the profession as well as the public health.

KNOWN IT TWENTY YEARS.
"I might say that I have known Duff's Pure Malt Whiskey for twenty years, and am happy to tell you that I consider it the purest and very best product of its kind on the market." Dr. J. A. A. Aselin, St. Rose, Quebec.

I OFTEN PRESCRIBE IT.
"I do not advocate indiscriminate use of alcohol, but I often prescribe Duff's Pure Malt Whiskey in moderate doses, especially for elderly people suffering from senile changes and debility. I order it to be taken during the principal meal of the day, and well diluted."

BENEFICIAL RESULTS.
"I have employed Duff's Pure Malt Whiskey where indicated for a great many years with great success. I would not be without it, as it is pure and palatable. Have had many cases of rheumatism and lingering illness in children and the old. Its low proof and delicate flavor is especially adapted to the aged, and its hastening convalescence." J. P. Sivegrist, M. D., Chatham, Ont.

CHORAL SOCIETY NOW HAS 210 MEMBERS

The second annual meeting of the St. John Choral Society was held at the Congregational church hall last night. Officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows: President, Hon. Dr. D. H. Hays, Hon. Wm. Pugh, Mayor Frink, president; C. G. Burnham, secretary; C. A. Munro, assistant secretary; C. G. Fawcett, treasurer; Arnold Fox. The society has had a very successful year, having produced ten operas in musical circles by the St. John Choral Society during last season and ready recognition was made of their good work by appreciative audiences.

NOVA SCOTIA MEN SHOT, ONE IS SERIOUSLY INJURED

Amherst, Sept. 24.—The quiet town of Wallace was thrown into a high state of excitement by the news spread that two of its most prominent and well known citizens had been shot and seriously injured by being carried with buckshot on the previous evening.

Flynn, the superintendent of the Wallace telephone quarry, accompanied by Henry Gray, the engineer in the car, were on their way to the head of Wallace Bay in a boat on Saturday evening last. They were in a small boat and were suddenly surprised by being fired upon by parties hidden behind the rocks.

Two weeks ago Carrie was young, when the most exclusive society circles copied her hair and gowns, and when the most famous hair dressers of the country gave their latest creations her name. Those were the days when she was the belle of the town, when she was the belle of the town, when she was the belle of the town.

W. R. Haun, a farmer living near Larned, Kan., still has some of the snow that fell on that day a drift 12 feet high formed near Haun's house. He covered the drift with several loads of straw and the top layer of snow was soon converted into ice. Haun has been furnishing church and school socials with ice cream frozen from his snow and ice pile.

Aunt Sally's Advice to Beauty Seekers

Lydias says: "I've tried most everything for my freckles, but can't lose them. What do you suggest?" See answer to "Stella." The treatment suggested I've never known to fail in any case of freckles or other outcrops of skin.

P. J. K. asks: "Is there anything better than massage to remove wrinkles?" Too much massaging may aggravate a wrinkled condition, tending to loosen and loosen the tissue. I advise bathing the face in an astringent lotion, such as a weak solution of powdered salicylic acid in a half-pint of water. This is remarkably effective.

Stella writes: "My complexion is horribly muddy. What shall I do for it?" Get an ounce of mercuric iodine as your druggist, apply this mud-like you use cold cream, washing it off morning. This will cause the offensive cuticle gradually to make way by a process gentle absorption, for the clear, velvety, healthy skin underneath.—Woman's Realm.

ABSORBENT POWDER
Gottschalk, Supt. of the Dept. of Health, New York, says: "This powder is a most valuable remedy for the treatment of skin diseases, especially for the removal of freckles, pimples, and other outcrops of skin." It is a most valuable remedy for the treatment of skin diseases, especially for the removal of freckles, pimples, and other outcrops of skin.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS AT CONVENTION OF THE MANUFACTURERS

Nathaniel Curry Wants to See Prompt Action in Naval Defence—Trade Questions

Ottawa, Sept. 24.—Ottawa never had a more important assembly than the forty-first annual convention of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, which opened in the Chateau Laurier this morning. The association has a membership of 3,000 manufacturers in all parts of the Dominion, representing a capital of $400,000,000.

The address of President Nathaniel Curry, presented at the afternoon session was distinctive in the feature of the opening day of the convention. He dealt in a masterly way with such important matters as trade, industry, labor and compensation, transportation, reciprocity and imperial defence and reviewed the growth of Canada's industrial side, as shown by the returns of the last census. In his address the president stated to note that our government has opened the way for a free movement of goods between Canada and the British West Indies. If the treaty of mutual preferential trade, that has been concluded, is not put into effect, it will be, by the inauguration of a steamship service adequate to the needs, I look for material benefits to the Dominion as a whole, but more particularly to Ontario, Quebec and the maritime provinces.

"It is a pleasure to note that our government has opened the way for a free movement of goods between Canada and the British West Indies. If the treaty of mutual preferential trade, that has been concluded, is not put into effect, it will be, by the inauguration of a steamship service adequate to the needs, I look for material benefits to the Dominion as a whole, but more particularly to Ontario, Quebec and the maritime provinces."

SKETCH OF THE LATE SIR RICHARD CARTWRIGHT
The Right Honorable Sir Richard Cartwright was the only son of the late Rev. R. D. Cartwright, chaplain to the forces at Kingston, Ontario, and father of the late Honorable Sir Richard Cartwright, Knight of the Order of St. Michael and St. George, formerly a judge of the Common Pleas in Upper Canada and afterwards a member of the legislative council of that province. He was born in Kingston, Dec. 4, 1835 and educated at Trinity College, Dublin. He was called to the bar in 1858 and became president of the Local Council of Women, and eldest son of the late Honorable Alexander Cartwright, Chief Justice of the Province of Ontario, and president of the Frontenac and Lennox and Addington, Canadian Assembly, from 1863 till the union of the provinces in 1871. He was also member for Lennox and Addington, Ontario, from 1867 to 1871. He then went to the Centre Ward and represented that constituency from November 1871 to May 1882. It was a member of the Ontario Legislative Council from 1882 to 1894. He was a member of the Ontario Legislative Council from 1882 to 1894. He was a member of the Ontario Legislative Council from 1882 to 1894.

Let me say just a few words on the naval question that is now so prominently before us. As business men, we are naturally not so much interested in the navy as in a businesslike way. The protection of our coast, for the nation as a whole to adopt, comparable in all respects, with the modern of being provided for our municipalities adopted in affording our property police protection. We do not look to the navy to protect us, but to the navy to protect us, but to the navy to protect us.

The so-called German peril may be a reality or it may not, I do not know, nor do I know how to judge. We sincerely hope it is not for war of any kind as it is unwise to be involved in any such emergency, however great. Instead of temporizing with vain promises we should rather heed to the actions of those who are charged with the responsibility for providing for our defence.

Waste action can be avoided and parting assessed by the government taking into confidence the leader of the opposition, the Hon. Mr. Mackenzie Bowden. He means to lead a conference, but he has not yet done so. He means to lead a conference, but he has not yet done so. He means to lead a conference, but he has not yet done so.

The great need of Canada today, as it is not wider markets, but as equipment and a service that will enable us better to supply the demands of the market, and to do so in a way that we want a transportation, more transportation and better transportation.

Paris, Sept. 25.—Doctor Capitan, professor at the College of France, has had the good fortune to discover the remains of the first sculptor in the world, buried at the foot of his masterpiece, executed some 30,000 years ago.

Last year the archaeological world was stirred by the unearthing under the pick of Doctor Lalanne, of Bordeaux, of a prehistoric Venus, carved in the native rock of a grotto near Lausselle. The rocky pocket in which this momentous discovery was made, was filled with archaeological remains, which were common, especially reindeer, which were common, especially reindeer, which were common, especially reindeer.

Most of these, evidently, could have served only for the hunt, but there were others mingled with them, exceptionally big and heavy whose use remained unexplained until the dust of ages having been cleared from the wall of the grotto, five bleached horses, cut in the fire and living workmanship were revealed. The excavations were continued and soon a spade struck on the skull of the author. The old artist lay crouched on his left side, something in the attitude of Rodin's statue, "The Thinker," which stands outside the Pantheon in Paris.

WEAK AND SICKLY ME
Can Become Strong and Healthy
This is How They Feel

The men who had given up hope, who thought there was no cure for them, until they came upon Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt. Now they are full of life and overflowing with joyous spirit. Pains are gone, weakness has gone, and full vigor is in every action.

Do you want to feel like that? Then wear the grand, life-saving appliance for two months. At night, it will charge every nerve with electric life, and you will feel rejuvenated and invigorated. It pulls steam into your run-down system, drives away pain and renews youth.

What's the use of dragging your legs about like a wooden peg? Feel like a person of spirit. Away with the pains and aches; off this wretched feeling as if you were eighty years old and had one in the grave. Come and let me put life into your nerves, let me support your chest out and your head up and saying to yourself, "I'm young and full of life." Let me give you back that old health, STRONG AND HEALTHY! Let me give you back that old health, STRONG AND HEALTHY!

Dear Sir: You will excuse me for not writing before, but I was a right. It is better and stronger now than it has been for thirty years. My head isn't bother me; my nerves are strong; I am a permanent cure. My head isn't bother me; my nerves are strong; I am a permanent cure. RECORDED BY THREE NATIONS
Starkey Has Finally Found a Lodgment in England

London, Sept. 25.—After being a man without a country for some time, Frederick Starkey, of Bristol, has proved his right to remain in England, but he will stay here under restraint. Last December Starkey was convicted on a charge of theft, but he was an American by birth and was an American by birth and was an American by birth.

He was appointed a member of the Most Honorable Privy Council in 1902. He declined appointment as lieutenant governor of Ontario in 1908. He has suggested "That Canada, with its close acquaintance with the Republic of the Old and the New world, could be the medium through which an alliance of the English-speaking people of the world, which so combination of its nations dare treat lightly or whose demands they dare disregard if disposed to urge the disarmament of the world." He was the author of several pamphlets, including one containing his recollections of the Confederation period. In 1911 he lectured on "The Perils of Democracy."

Some of the comments made concerning him are as follows:—"Montreal Gazette," "His satire is deadly."—Canadian Collector. "The nestor of Canadian Liberalism."—Montreal Herald. "Laurier never had a truer colleague."—Montreal Herald. "One of the masters of the spoken word in the English-speaking world."—Toronto Globe. "As a debater it without an equal in our parliament in 1868."—Toronto Star. "The most masterly speaker this generation has listened to in the night."

Within ten minutes after an application of Dandruff you cannot find a single trace of Dandruff or a loose or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you will actually see new hair fine and downy at first—yet—yet—really new hair—growing all over the scalp. A little Dandruff will immediately double the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just smother a cloth with Dandruff and carefully draw it through your hair, taking it if you will just try a little Dandruff.

CHICAGO SOCIETY WOMEN Takes NEAL Treatment

Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt

Drink Habi
CURED IN THREE DAYS

A very large per cent. of all Neal patients are from the highest and best classes of men and women. Recently one very wealthy and prominent society woman of Chicago was given Neal treatment by one of our physicians in the privacy of her room in a leading New York city hotel. The satisfaction of a woman is best evidenced by the fact that after her return to Chicago she sent $100 as a present to the lady attendant who cared for her during the treatment. The Neal treatment has been administered many persons in this city, in the privacy of their own room at hotel.
