

1834.

VI. Month.—APRIL.—30 days.

1834.

Ye strove with France in days of yore,—
Once more she dares you to the field;
Not that your bravest blood should pour
Again a Bourbon's throne to shield.

With her she calls you to advance,
On the broad path of truth and right.
What answer do you give to France?
UP, MEN OF ENGLAND, TO THE FIGHT!

Quakers, Menonists, Tunkards, Unitarians, Moravians, Chrystians, Universalists. These Sects are in considerable numbers in Upper Canada; Perhaps on the aggregate they amount to eighteen or twenty thousand souls, but we are unable to give a detailed account of their Preachers and Stations. Next year we will try.

Methodist Church. [The defection of the hollow hearted and deceitful Ryersons, with the Christian Guardian their organ, added to the rumour that there is a secret clause in the Union of the Episcopal Methodists with the Tory Conference in England, puts it out of our power to state on what footing the preachers are placed. We fear their Union with Jabez Bunting & Co. will turn out a black job, but time will tell.---2nd. Edition, Oct. 30.]

Primitive Methodists. Connected with this Station are 5 Travelling Preachers, 14 Local Preachers, 250 Members, and 42 distinct Congregations. Stationed Preachers in York—J. Partington, W. Lyle, J. Arthur, T. Lowdon, Stationed Preachers in Niagara—Messrs Summersides and Barry.

Children of Peace. This Society numbers about 280 Members, in Hope, east of Newmarket: They have also stated places of preaching, at the old court house, York, on Yonge Street, and at Markham. Their principal speaker is David Willson, assisted by Murdoch M'Leod, Samuel Hughes, and others. Their music, vocal and instrumental, is excellent, and their Preachers seek no pay from the Governor, out of the taxes.

Canadian Protestant Wesleyans. (The Chapel in York is situated in Market Lane.) Preachers—Robert Cosway and others.
