NOTE AND COMMENT. We hope that the labor department of Kingston Penitentiary will have the addition of the great grit leader and guide, Mr. Murphy.

It would be interesting to learn what claims the editor of the silly Telegraph has put forward as entitling him to an office from the Provincial government.

The silly Telegraph does not display much enthusiasm over the appointment of the Hon. David McCreary to the regency of the province.

There appears to be no public servant which has been made against him by Murphy and his friends.

Both the Globe and Telegraph quote the Pall Mall Gazette's recent article on what it terms "Canadian Corruption."

The Pall Mall Gazette's article in which that paper is pleased to say "A more scurrilous spectacle of corruption has never been presented by a free people."

On the item of appropriation in the estimates, the annual discussion on the subject of retiring allowances to civil servants took place.
