

PEOPLE FORCE SULTAN'S HAND

PALACE "CAMARILLA" TO BE DRIVEN OUT

Abdul Grows Uneasy Under Pressure—Troops Prevent Demonstrations.

Constantinople, July 29.—The crisis in Turkish affairs is by no means over. The demonstration that has been made in favor of the Sultan may at any moment turn against him if he does not yield to demands of the constitutional party for the dismissal of the Palace "Camarilla." It is believed that the Sultan will make these concessions, although to do so is difficult. Some of the officials already have been removed and it is believed that others will either flee the country or seek refuge at one of the foreign legations. It is apparent that the Sultan is becoming uneasy.

Troops yesterday evening prevented further demonstrations in front of the palace.

Parliament Convoked.

Constantinople, July 29.—An Imperial decree public to-day convokes the first Turkish parliament under the new constitution for Nov. 1st. The document announcing this decision appeals to the people to cease their demonstrations, pointing out that as the Sultan has proven good sentiments and his intentions strictly to observe the constitution, there is no longer reason to continue the manifestations which only impede progress.

WOMAN IS VICTIM OF ATROCIOUS CRIME

Murderer's Gruesome Effort to Incinerate Body on Va- cant Lot.

New York, July 30.—The finding of the half charred body of a young woman yesterday in a vacant lot in an isolated section of Williamsburg, Brooklyn, revealed an atrocious and cunningly planned murder. Death was caused by a cut across the throat, and then in an endeavor to utterly destroy evidence of the crime, the murderer wrapped the body in an oil-soaked mattress, poured oil over the victim's clothing and set fire to the bundle. A powerful acid had previously been poured over the face to obliterate the woman's features and make identification impossible.

Although two arrests have been made the police do not believe they have in custody any one who can shed any light upon the mystery. The prisoners are Jas. Ruddock, an old man, who lived in a stable not far from where the body was found, and his son, Joseph, a peddler, who discovered the body. It was Jas. Ruddock who notified the police of the finding of the body. He told conflicting stories as to the discovery of the body, but the police seem to believe that under stress of excitement, Ruddock, who is a very old man, may have been confused.

A woman has been found who says she saw the heart of the woman drive to the spot where the body was found about 3:30 o'clock yesterday morning. A few minutes later she heard the wagon departing. It went toward the Green Point ferry. As it was only half an hour later when young Ruddock saw the blazing mattress, the police feel sure that the wagon carried the body to the lot.

The murdered woman was apparently a woman of gentle breeding. She was about 30 years old and had been a mother.

DEATH AND DISASTER IN TORNADO'S WAKE

Boy Killed When Building is Blown Down in Fillmore, Sask.

Fillmore, Sask., July 30.—A tornado visited this district yesterday afternoon doing considerable damage in the town and country south of here. The ideal school pupils had just come out and several scholars entered the house of Mr. Johnson for shelter, but just at that moment the building was demolished, Alfred Johnson, aged 17, being instantly killed. Mrs. Johnson had her hip dislocated and received other injuries.

A large barn, full of horses and several men, was blown down. E. Latchman was kicked and trampled on and had his hip broken by the horses when the barn started to move. Two commercial travellers named Fisher and Bair sought refuge in a barn which was demolished, and they were imprisoned in the debris for several hours.

Mr. Moore proposed any further delay, not on his own account but on that of the business men who were being brought there day after day in connection with the case. It was not fair that their time should be taken up in this way. He would like to see the case proceeded with. As to this honest, hard working German woman, he might just say that she has twice within a few days been reported by the immigration authorities as an undesirable character.

Mr. Alkman—Oh no, she is not that kind of a woman.

Mr. Moore—The police should know. She escaped the authorities yesterday

PASSAGE-AT-ARMS IN THE POLICE COURT

Messrs. Alkman and Moore En- gage in Argument Over Issuing of Warrants.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

The feature of the police court proceedings this morning was a passage-at-arms between H. W. R. Moore, the city prosecutor, and J. A. Alkman, over the manner in which warrants are issued. Mr. Alkman complained that sufficient care was not exercised in this matter, referring particularly to the case of Ah Chung, cook for J. W. Laing, principal of the Collegiate school, charged with stealing $10.20 from Lou Hing, something Mr. Moore warmly resented. After hearing the evidence for the prosecution, the magistrate, at Mr. Moore's suggestion, dismissed the case, saying that it was one for the small debts court, and then it was that Mr. Alkman asked the magistrate to censure the prosecution for lack of care in drawing up informations and issuing warrants of arrest.

Hing was the first witness of the case. He swore that he had left Mr. Laing's employ two weeks ago, after working there for months as a dishwasher, his reason for doing so being that he had been told by Chung to look for another job at the end of that time. Chung had given him an envelope containing $10.20 in payment of his month's work, enclosing a bill for $10.20 for dishes broken, thus making up the $10 which he was to have received for his work. There had been nothing in his agreement with Chung about having the value of broken dishes being deducted from his wages.

In cross-examination Hing said that he had been hired by Chung and not by Mr. Laing. He might have broken two or three saucers and a couple of dinner plates, but not all these which Chung had charged him with.

W. Laing swore that he gave Chung $5 per month to do the cooking, out of which he was to provide a dish washer and a waiter. He never deducted anything from Chung's money for breakages. He merely gave him charge over the kitchen and had never instructed him to deduct anything from the wages of Hing or any one else on account of breakages. He always replaced all dishes at his own expense at the end of the term. As he understood the matter, Hing had left without notice when Chung was busy preparing for the annual closing, when a lot of messes were expected. As a result, Chung had had to hire a man at $1.50 per day to take his place, while Hing was getting only 53 cents per day. He presumed that it was to get even with him on this account that Chung had charged Hing with the breakages. Chung had not paid him the money deducted from Hing; not so far as he knew had he replaced the broken dishes. In cross-examination he gave Chung a high character.

At this stage Mr. Moore asked that the case be dismissed. The facts appeared to be that Chung had withheld his money from Hing as alleged, but turned out to be a case for the small debts court. Apparently Hing had not understood the conditions upon which he was engaged as to whether he was engaged by Chung or Mr. Laing. Mr. Alkman, replying, said he wanted to draw attention to the carelessness shown in the drawing of informations and the issuing of warrants. He said that Chung had been charged as a good Chinaman, had been arrested at the instance of an ignorant boy, who had gone to Mr. Moore with an interview and told his story and who had had to spend the night in jail if he had not been lucky enough to find a justice of the peace to grant him bail. He thought his honor should draw his learned friend's attention to this matter.

Magistrate Jay—The issuing of warrants lies with the justice of the peace. Mr. Alkman—But they take the word of the prosecutor.

Magistrate Jay—They are supposed to use their discretion, and do so.

Mr. Moore said he desired to resent Mr. Alkman's criticism of his conduct in this matter. He might say that he had not gone on Hing's word alone but had made other inquiries before having a warrant issued. Now that the matter had been brought up, he might say that he did not think that Chung would have been getting any more than his deserts if he had had to spend a night in jail for it was quite apparent that he had tried to beat his ignorant young countryman out of his wages. "In view of the fact that I voluntarily withdrew the case I think that Mr. Alkman's remarks were uncalled for," said Mr. Moore in conclusion.

Mr. Alkman—You only withdrew it after hearing the evidence.

The magistrate said he saw no reason whatever for commenting upon the action of the prosecution in this matter. He would, however, dismiss the case as was one which should come up in the small debts court.

The next case called was that of Charles Beards, who recently pleaded guilty to stealing a woman's hand satchel from Bovey drug store, and who is now up on a charge of being in possession of goods knowing them to have been stolen. In this case Mr. Alkman also appeared for the defence and asked the magistrate to dismiss the case. He said that an honest, hard-working German woman, a friend of Beards' family, had come over from Seattle to see him yesterday and from what she had said he believed there was some important evidence bearing on the case which he would be able to secure if given until Monday.

Mr. Moore proposed any further delay, not on his own account but on that of the business men who were being brought there day after day in connection with the case. It was not fair that their time should be taken up in this way. He would like to see the case proceeded with. As to this honest, hard working German woman, he might just say that she has twice within a few days been reported by the immigration authorities as an undesirable character.

Mr. Alkman—Oh no, she is not that kind of a woman.

Mr. Moore—The police should know. She escaped the authorities yesterday

REGINA CITY IS STORM CENTRE

GRAVE CHARGE AGAINST TORY CANDIDATE

The Saskatchewan Campaign Leads to Startling Dis- closure.

Regina, July 29.—Regina City is to be the storm centre in the Saskatchewan campaign. At a monster meeting here last night, J. F. Boie, Liberal candidate for Regina, made a specific charge that H. W. Laird, the Conservative candidate, attempted to buy him to arrange for orders for sand, lime and brick of kinds for which he (Mr. Laird) is agent, the materials to be used on government building work.

Declaring that he was driven to show up some of his opponents who were daily making slanderous statements about the members of the cabinet, Premier Scott declared that he had not by him in his possession to show that Mr. Laird had been "a grafter" in connection with the municipality.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE COMING CAMP

Many Recruits Are Joining the Fifth—Innovations This Year.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

As has already been notified in orders, the Fifth Regiment go into camp for their annual training on Sunday next, the parade being called for 10 a. m. on that day at the drill hall. The camp this year being nearly six weeks later than usual, it will have the advantage of having the warm weather but with the shortening daylight it has been found necessary to have drill before dinner so that the "fall in" will be sounded each evening at 6:30, and as a pick-me-up, light refreshments in the way of coffee, cheese and crackers may be obtained by those who are in camp in time, dinner being served after drill. Nos. 2 and 3 companies will drill on Macdonald Plains as heretofore, and No. 1 company, under Major Currie, will go into barracks at the navy yard, where they will find most comfortable quarters, spottily clean with every convenience, almost luxury.

It would be well for the uninitiated to remember that for the time of this annual training all members of the regiment come under the discipline and penalties of the military law and that it is necessary for them to clean and polish up their equipment, get the regulation military haircut, and as there has been practically no other drill so far this season for most of them, they will need to attend every night at camp in order to draw the annual drill pay. Though no allowance is made for recruits on the first Sunday in camp, arrangements have been made to give a good square meal to all ranks as soon as camp is pitched and blankets are issued.

The following names have been selected to act as camp police: W. G. Eden, T. Targett, S. R. Bell, F. J. Fleury, W. A. J. Whittle, Capt. W. Winsty, the quarter-master, will be glad to see any members of the regiment who are out of work, on the company ground at 8 a. m. sharp on Saturday next, to assist in pitching camp, for which payment will be allowed.

A large number of recruits are offering, and considerably more interest is being taken in regimental matters. But many curious fact most complimentary to the members of the Fifth, that the regiment seems to be so well appreciated and sought after by old service men.

A larger per cent. of the recruits come from this class than from native-born Victorians.

VISITOR FROM SCOTLAND.

Fur Manufacturer May Transfer to This City.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

John Bentley, whose fur manufacturing establishment in Hanover street, Edinburgh, is well-known throughout the British Isles, is spending a few weeks looking about Victoria and the surrounding country on a tour to the Canadian west.

Mr. Bentley has sold out his business in the Old Country, which he has successfully conducted for over twenty-eight years. He is not quite certain yet whether he will settle down in British Columbia or return to Scotland. In any case he expects to take a trip up the coast in order to get some idea of Canada's great northern hinterland.

CENTS.

Put up in 50c. boxes only, "Fruit-a-tives" has in the last four years gained a tremendous and rapidly increasing sale, and a reputation for remarkable cures in every part of Canada.

During this time hundreds of people have been asking for a 25c. box of "Fruit-a-tives," and of the benefit it is giving to thousands, but some people hesitate to pay 50c. just to try a remedy that is new to them.

It has been found, too, that many would like to carry a box of "Fruit-a-tives" in their pocket, so as to have them handy for regular use, and the 50c. box is too large for that. To meet these needs we have put out a new 25c. trial size—a neat, compact little box that can easily be carried in the vest-pocket, and which contains tablets enough to last two or three weeks—long enough to find out that "Fruit-a-tives" is the best remedy of the kind in the world.

There is now no reason why every person in Canada who suffers from Constipation, Biliousness, Kidney or Liver Trouble, Rheumatism, Sciatica, Neuralgia, Skin Diseases, Indigestion, Dyspepsia or Headache should not try "Fruit-a-tives" and get quick relief and eventually a complete cure. "Fruit-a-tives" are concentrated Fruit Juice Tablets. 25c. is all it costs to test the value of the most successful medicine ever produced in Canada.

If your dealer has not both the 25c. trial size and the regular 50c. boxes, write direct to Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa, Ont., and we will send you direct.

PROVINCIAL FRUIT MADE GOOD SHOWING

R. M. Palmer Has Returned From the Prairie Provinces.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

R. M. Palmer, chief of the immigration department of the provincial government, has just returned from the prairie provinces, where he has been in charge of the British Columbia exhibit at the Calgary, Regina, Brandon and Winnipeg exhibitions.

"There is an increasing demand for citrus strawberries on the Winnipeg markets," said Mr. Palmer. "A great many of the strawberry shipments which were sent there arrived in a partially green condition. The fruit was shipped where it was ripe as it was thought that otherwise it might spoil on route. The refrigerator accommodation, however, kept the fruit in excellent condition, and hereafter shippers will know that fruit shipped in that way from Victoria will arrive at its destination in the same condition in which it starts out."

The principal advertisement for the new very little fruit collapsed from the east to the prairie provinces and British Columbia is now establishing herself in the apple market."

Mr. Palmer was much impressed with the thriving condition of the middle-west.

"In some districts," he said, "the farmers are already cutting barley, and the wheat crop will commence to be harvested by the middle of August. They should have no trouble in getting in the immense crop before the frosts set in as there is no dearth of labor in the west."

"Although it was too early in the season for fresh exhibits of plums and other similar fruits, the preserved specimens attracted a large amount of attention at the exhibitions in the prairie towns. Lots of fresh cherries were on hand, however, and there was very little of that luscious fruit left when the last exhibition closed. Invitations have been received from the Toronto Exhibition Association to send exhibits to the National Exhibition there, but as British Columbia fruits have no market in the east it is scarcely probable that any exhibits of the fruit of this province will be sent."

John Hendry Will No Longer Handle G. N. R. Property in Vancouver.

Vancouver, July 29.—The final transfer of deeds of all the Great Northern property in Vancouver and New Westminster and between the two cities, which have for several years been handled by John Hendry and associates, were filed to-day, conveying the property to the Vancouver, Victoria and Eastern Railway, under which name the Great Northern affairs will hereafter be carried on in British Columbia.

The Great Northern secured thousands of feet of frontage of False Creek tidelands and also got two thousand feet of deep sea inlet water front immediately adjoining the wharves and yards of the Canadian Pacific. The Great Northern's property in Vancouver cost them in the neighborhood of two and a half million dollars.

SHAWMUT AND TREMONT ARE WITHDRAWN

Two Tramp Steamships Will Replace Big Liners in Oriental Trade.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

Practical confirmation of the story to the effect that the Boston S. S. company's big liners Tremont and Shawmut were to be withdrawn from the Oriental trade is offered by the issuance of a new schedule for the service by Waterhouse and Company in which the sailings of the two liners are taken by other cargo steamships.

The Tacoma Ledger says: "In place of the Tremont, the British tramp steamer Craigvar, 3,669 tons, has evidently been substituted. The character of the Craigvar was made known a day or two ago. Under the new schedule she is to depart from Tacoma August 15th and from Seattle four days later. The Craigvar is at present discharging coal for the government at Honolulu. She has been fixed on time."

"Another steamer, whose name has not yet been made public, will also be placed on this run. In shipping circles it is surmised to be the Boverie, one of the Waterhouse-Wells line, now en route to San Francisco from Australia. This vessel is to be here during the latter part of August, steaming from here September 5th and from Seattle for the Orient September 8th.

"Following these two, the schedule for the balance of the year is as follows, the date being that of departure from Tacoma, each to put to sea from Seattle four days later:

"Saverie, September 15; Kumerie, October 16; Inverie, November 6; Craigvar, November 26; steamer (name unannounced), December 18.

"This new arrangement provides for a steamer every twenty days on the run to the Philippines. As heretofore, the ports of call will be Yokohama, Kobe, Manila and Hongkong. Returning, the steamer will make Shanghai when sufficient cargo offers and also call at Japanese ports.

"The Inverie, which loaded most of her cargo here, leaves Seattle for Japan, China and Manila, this week, taking the place of the American steamer Shawmut, which is disengaged pending a decision of the government regarding her purchase.

"Longshoremen began to discharge the Tremont yesterday and work will be rushed in taking her freight out. By tomorrow night it is expected that the liner will be empty. In the meantime she is being painted and placed in shape for the inspection which she will undergo at the hands of the board of naval experts appointed to examine the two vessels.

"The withdrawal of the Tremont means that in a year and a half five American steamers have been taken off this run and replaced by the same number of British steamers. The Tremont and Shawmut formerly ran in conjunction with the Lyra, Hyades and Pleiades. The last three were the first taken off the run, and this was announced by the passenger liners Shawmut and Tremont were to follow.

This report has at last proved true. The vessels procured for the run are smaller than the big Americans, but will probably be of ample size to handle the business. They will not carry passengers.

"BOB" SIEVER IS FOUND NOT GUILTY

Verdict at Old Bailey Received With Loud Cheers.

London, July 29.—Robert Siever, editor of the Windsor Post, was today found not guilty at the Old Bailey on the charge that he had attempted to blackmail Jack Joel, a nephew of the late Barney Herno, by threatening to publish a defamatory article about Joel unless the latter paid him $25,000. The trial has been going on for several days.

The verdict of acquittal was greeted with loud cheering. Siever denied absolutely that there had been any attempt at blackmail and declared the whole affair was a conspiracy on the part of his enemies. The trial has been marked by extraordinary demonstrations outside the court in favor of Siever and against Joel.

SEATTLE COMPANY RAISES RATE

FARE ON CHIPPEWA TO SEATTLE IS A DOLLAR

Joshua Green Takes Advantage of Withdrawal of Prin- cess Royal.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

For the first time since the Inland Navigation Company placed the steamer Rosalie on the Victoria and Seattle route at 50 cents each way on February 14th the rate between the two ports has been raised. Joshua Green, president of the American company, announced to-day that advantage will be taken of the steamship Princess Royal's withdrawal from the triangular run by raising the rate on the Chippewa to $1 single or return fare between here and Seattle.

The local agent of the Inland Navigation Company confirmed the news of this change in the Seattle fare this morning, stating that the $1 fare would go into force to-morrow on the steamship Chippewa. On Sunday, when the C. P. R. steamship Princess Royal makes here triangular run, the rate on the Chippewa will be 50 cents, or double the fare on the Princess Victoria.

It is evident that the Inland Navigation Company will continue to take advantage of the fact that the C. P. R. needs another passenger boat on the Sound service to force the rate war to a finish. The removal of the Princess Royal to the Vancouver and Seattle at a discount of 25 cents will compel Mr. Green to make a like reduction on the steamship Inverie, but it leaves the C. P. R. with only one boat to make the trip to Seattle daily, the Princess Victoria sailing every two days. Having no opposition in the afternoon the Inland Navigation Company figures on taking back the crowd that the Chippewa herself brings besides those arriving at noon from the Princess Victoria. Counting on the fact that the excursionists who are coming over daily will furnish a large return traffic for the Chippewa, the Inland Navigation Company has raised the rate to four times the amount which the C. P. R. is charging on the Princess Victoria. On Sunday the Princess Royal will run alongside the Chippewa to Seattle at a 25 cent rate, but the American boat carries 250 more people than its rival, according to the United States passenger certificate, and can therefore pick up the excursionists that the Royal is forced to leave behind.

It is rumored that the C. P. R. may place both the Princess Royal and Princess Victoria on the triangular route, giving a return service on each run which will provide direct opposition for the Inland Navigation Company's boats, but this is not confirmed by the company's agents.

Another plan suggested by those who are following the rate war closely is that the Princess Victoria will return to her former schedule, leaving Seattle shortly after midnight, arriving here early in the morning and leaving here for Seattle again in the evening. The Charter would, in case this plan were followed, return to her schedule of some months ago, leaving here at 1:30 p. m. daily and arriving from Vancouver early in the morning.

From present indications it appears that the rate war will last until the steamship Princess Charlotte, now being rapidly completed for the C. P. R., arrives from Scotland, when, according to shipping men, the C. P. R. will be able to force it to a conclusion.

The Inland Navigation Company announced to-day that the change in the Seattle fare would not effect the rate to Vancouver by way of the steamships Chippewa and Inverie. This fare remains at $1.
