It is said there are some fifteen million feet of logs in the river below Grand Falls that cannot be got into the booms without a rise of water, and that there is an equal quantity above the falls. There is thus in the neighborhood of thirty million feet of logs to be brought down as they begin to move the work of rafting will be rushed forward. Thus far less than ninety million feet have been rafted at the Fredericton booms, and at Springhill, which is a few mile above Fredericton. The expense of driving the logs on the upper St. John this year has been materially increas ed by the unfavorable condition of the

THIS HITS MONTREAL

The Montreal Herald says that the shortage in the corn crop threatens the grain trade of that port. The shipments of corn from Montreal in May pared with 2.586.914 in the like period last year; but in July only 720,849 bushels were shipped, compared with 1,593,-110 in July, 1900; and the outlook is that scarcely any, perhaps none at all, will be shipped in August, compared with 2,578,098 in August of last year. From August 1st to the close of navigation last year some 7,000,000 bushels and the Herald fears there will be little or none for the balance of the pres ent season. While the shipments of wheat were nearly a million bushels last year, our contemporary sees indications that this activity has slackened of late, while there was also a falling off in the export of oats to the extent of half a million bushels in July, compared with July, 1990, although in May and June there had been an in-crease. The question of what the steamers will take as cargo in place of the corn is one that is causing some anxiety.

STATE OWNED CABLES.

Heniker Heaton, M. P., of England: With the manufacturers the vital point is the preservation of the ballowing the committee, and the chairman is Sir Edward Sassoon, M. For nearly two years, with marvellous ability and tact, Sir Edward Sassoon has led us and awakened great public interest in the question. AMATEUR ATHLETICS.

The Star recently referred to the ack of interest in amateur athletics in St. John, and urged that something be done to restore something of the ord-time prestige of the city in that respect. Since then a correspondent has written to the Sun, agreeing with the views expressed by this paper, and the Telegraph this morning takes similar ground. These signs of a healthy awakening of interest are a source of gratification. Why should not some of the retired athletes, who made a name for themselves in former years, in-augurate a movement to bring the younger generation to the front? It could easily be done.

When Mr. Tarte comes to Memram-cook Col Tucker should go to Mone-ton and introduce him to "the bore." That great natural phenomenon is like Mr. Tarto's tide of promises, rising with a rush and then silently subsid-ing.

The Boer prisoners on St. Helena ad meat when the loyal citizens had one. The latter asked to be placed is the kind of oppression of the Boers. This is the kind of oppression of the Boers that Mike Davitt and his friends say nothing about.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE. A CALL TO THE VETERANS

A CALL TO THE VETERANS.

To the Editor of the Star:

Sir,—I was very much struck by the report of the citizens' meeting, called for the purpose of discussing the steps to be taken by the city to welcome the Duke of Cornwall and noted the presence of a few societies were represented and the absence of other bodies. Now, this is not as it should be there are a large number of cocidies in St. John, of whom the city is justly proud. Masons, Oddfellowa, Knights of Pythlas, Foresters, Orangemen, and different Catholic organisations, temperance, trades associations, and a new society, which, in my estimation, should not be absent on that occasion, viz., the Veterans' Association. This body is composed of the men who have in the past proved their loyalty to Queen and country, by being prepared to defend both from the attack of enemies from within or without, and often at great sacrifice to themselves. Now, in view of the fact that a body of veterans residing in the United States have proposed coming to St. John to take part in our demonstration, it would be highly proper that they should be met on landing by veterans of this city, who should be formed as an escort or guard to the visitors. Let the veterans of our city get to work, and enroll themselves in the body already formed, or form others, but get to gether and prepare to do your part to show H. R. H. that at all time New Brunswick has had men prepared to defend their country from all comers.

ST. STEPHEN WANTS PAPER MILL

Lumber Concern Which Contemplates Sale of Its Property Insists Upor

CALAIS, Aug. 6.-It is rumored that CALAIS, Aug. 6.—It is rumored that the hitch in the negotiations between the New York syndicate and the St. Stephen lumber concern for the purchase of the mill privileges and timber lands of the iatter, is caused by the unwillingness of the New Yorkers to erect a paper plant in connection with the pulp mill which they intenderecting here. The St. Stephen concern is willing to sell out providing a paper manufacturing plant is established to give employment to the men who will be thrown out of work by the abolishment of the saw mills now who will be thrown out of work by the abolishment of the saw milis now operating on the privileges held by the concern, and the New Yorkers appear unwilling to make the promise. The public spirit which prompts the St. Stephen firm in making the proviso is highly appreciated on the border by all classes of citizens who readize that the mere erection of a pulp mill will not help out the present low state of industrial conditions to any marked extent, whereas the erection of a paper plant, employing additional help, would tend to brighten matters considerably along the line.

THE POINT AT ISSUE.

What is Involved in the Big Steel Strike.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 7.—The developments of the last few days in the steel strike have clouded the matters at issue with statements that do not really cover the fundamental points. With the recession made by the United States Steel Corporation and the concessions made by the Amalgamated Association, the members of the latter feel now that the point at issue with them is the life of their organization.

association. The proposition of Mr. Morgan was to sign for all mills, signed for last year, but Leechburg and Old Meadow, at Scottdale. This would be a loss of two mills, even under favorable conditions for the workers. Next year the trust might ask that some of the present union strongholds be omitted in signing the scale and so on each year.

year the trust might ask that some of the present union strongholds be omitted in signing the scale and so on each year.

Now that the men in previously non-union mills, including McKeesport, Wellsville, Painter, Lindsey, and McCutcheon and Clark mills have thrown their fate in with the association and struck, the national officers claim that they cannot consistently abandon the men with honor. To abandon them now, the leaders contend, means that the leaders at the different mills would immediately go on the black list.

At the present stage of the crisis both sides are looking to the future.

Were it not for precedents that may be sent, a conclusion could be arrived at in a short time. Under the present laws of the Amalgamated Association non-union men cannot work in union mills. This applies only to skilled men. Plants in which it is permissible for both union and non-union men are classed as open mills, but in the concerns classed as non-union Amalgamated members are not permitted to be employed unless dispensations are obtained so that they may enter as organizers or for other purposes. While seven men constitute a lodge, and where such lodge exists the Association has abandoned any claim except that the scale be signed for the mills that have demonstrated that they are thion by going out on strike. Usually a majority of the men make a mill union, the seven rule being created for emergency purposes.

Under present rules, if the scale were signed for McKeesport, both union and non-union men would remain employed, as that mill is entirely shut down at the present time, and has been classed as an open mill.

In the Campbell-Napier Matter by the Safety Board—Carleton Lighting.

At the adjourned meeting of the common council yesterday Ald. Maxwell was, after considerapie d'scussion, reappointed a member of the board of school trustees. Chief Clark's communication in the Campbell-Napier matter was then taken up, and also one from Officer Napier's lawyer, Dr. A. A. Stockton, asking that he be allowed to be present at any investigation. Chief Clark's report, published in Tuesday's Star, and Dr. Stockton's letter were referred to the safety board. Ald. Christie moved that Officer Napier's complaint with all papers pertaining to it be referred to the board of safety for investigation. There was a great deal of discussion as a result of this resolution, but it finally passed. A number of other communications were referred to the different boards. Ald. Baxter moved for the issue of debentures to purchase the Carleton electric lighting plant. The motion was lost and afterwards the contract was awarded to Clark & Son for lighting the Carleton streets for five years at 2105 per lamp. The thanks of the common council were extended to Commodore Robert Thomson, R. K. Y. C., for placing at their disposal the steam yacht Scionda for the purpose of entertaining Lord and Lady Minto.

BURNED AT THE STAKE.

At Enterprise, Ala, yesterday morning a mob of 500 people, both blacks and whites, burned at the stake a negro named John Wesley Pennington, who confessed to having brutally assauked Mrs. J. C. Davis, wife of a prominent farmer. An iron pipe₄ was driven into the ground; the victim was chained up; brush was piled around him, oil poured over it and over him, and he died in the most horrible agony, praying and cursing by turns.
