JEWELRY, Etc.	TO ADVERTISERS	ONE JURYMAN.	ing tried by a jury which believed him guilty before the trial began. Mr. McKeown contended that the wit-	Skipts Made to Opdep
FERGUSON & PAGE,	Copy for Saturday's Issues of	In Three Hours This Morning	ness was a fit and a proper man for a juror. He might have formed an opin- ion but was a fair-minded man and would base his verdict on the evidence.	OVII DO MUND DA ALADI.
ave in stock and daily receiving additions their lines of Watches, Fine Jeweiry, Solid liver and Silver Plated Goods, Cases of earl Handle Dessert and Fish Eating	the STAR must be sent in by Three- Thirty O'Clock Friday Afternoons, otherwise it is absolutely impossible to	One Man Selected	The triers rejected Mr. Allen as not indifferent. Harvey W. DeForest was not present and J. Newton Harvey was next called	finished and pressed the same as your tailor would do them for less than half price.
	ensure a change for that issue, as the paper goes to press earlier on Satur-	Higgins For Murder-The	was challenged for the same cause. He had formed opinions and believed the prisoner guilty of Doherty's mur- der. 'He did not feel that he could be	Mrs. McDonough, who has been so favorably known in the skirt making
At 41 King Street.	days than on other days of the week.	Prisoner in Court.	indifferent between the king and the reisoner. The triers decided that he was not qualified to act as a juryman. James Galuit, similarly challenged,	will be pleased to see all her regular customers again and as many new ones as will favor us with a share of their skirt making business.
Corn! Squash!	The second s	obtain one suitable juryman for the Higgins trial. Twenty names were called and nineteen responded. Of	had also formed a strong opinion re- garding the prisoner's guilt which would be hard to remove. He thought	would advise placing them as soon as possible.
Our own make of Sausages and Sau- age Meat.	The attention of advertisers is direct- ed to the notice at the top of this col- umn.	these Mr. Mullin for the defence per- emptorily challenged six and the crown one. The others did not feel themselves	wanted to give fair play and would not find the prisoner gulity unless he	WALKING SKIRIS A SPECIALIY.
HENERY EGGS.	The talked-of K. of P. moonlight ex- cursion has been called off, owing to the lateness of the season.	fit to serve and so were rejected. At seven minutes after ten this morning Judge Landry took his seat	was sure of his guilt. He could not say what he would base his decision upon. In answer to a direct question from Mr. McKcown he admitted that he did
COUNTRY MARKET.	A. McArthur's, 548 Main street.	and the court was formally opened. Judges Forbes occupied a seat beside the presiding judge. After the roll of the jury had been	not want to serve on the jury. Mr. Gault was accepted by the triers, but was challenged peremptorily by Mr. Mullin and stood aside.	/VIUI 1 011 (X OUDIIOI 1(11)U. 29 Charlotte St. Opp. Y. M. C. A
NOW ON DISPLAY	The New Victoria hotel can accom- modate a number of steady boarders for the winter, See advt.	called Hon. H. A. McKeown, counsel for the crown, moved that the case of the King against Frank Higgins be	Jacob W. Caldwell challenged by the defence for the same cause believed the prisoner guilty. Strong evidence
NEW DECORATIONS AND SHAPES IN	William Walker of the waterworks department left yesterday for Three Rivers to inspect some pipe ordered for the department.	The crowd that filled to overflowing the space allotted to spectators craned	He had no feeling against the prisoner and would not find him guilty unless the evidence showed him so.	HIGH GRADE PIANUS.
'ELITE" FRENGH CHINA.	on the sidewalk on the south side of North Market street. It was greatly	forward eagerly. Five minutes later the prisoner entered in care of Con- stable Wiley and took his seat behind the wooden bars of the prisoners'	Higgins grinned with amused cheer-
Elite Decorations cannot be sur- passed. Acknowledged by all to be	A rumor thatt he Bar Tenders' Union would withdraw from the Trade and	with the same quiet nonchalance that has characterized all his actions since the arrest. He was a little paler than	fulness. To the triers Mr. Caldwell said he would judge by the evidence produced in court.	Mendélssohn and others.
he richest French china made. PRICES MODERATE	The union has no such intention. An illustration of the Hot Blast	examination, but was otherwise un- changed. The green necktle and dark clothes were the same he wore when arrested.	He was found indifferent, but was challenged by the defence peremptor- ily and allowed to go. Chas. E. Harding, David Magee, jr.,	MASON & HAMLIN and other ORGANS
D. H. WARWICK.	stove described in yesterday's issue of the Star, appears on the first page of today's issue.	Formally arraigned by the clerk on the charge of the murder of William Doherty he shook his head emphatic- ally as he pose to his feet and said	R. W. Williams, J. H. D. Turner were absent. Robt. Reid, the next called, was challenged as the previous jurors	Get the best. Special prices this week.
78 and 80 KING STREET.	Several west side residents are mak- ing an effort to raise $125 to provide prizes for a four-oared race to take place in the harbor early in October.	clearly but quietly, "not guilty." By order of the judge 20 of the jury were then called, their names being	of the prisoner's guilt, but felt he could give a fair trial without beng in- fluenced by previous opinions. He
	The special attraction for tonight will be the concert by the Abbey choir in the Main struct Bantiat behavior. The	drawn from the box containing the names of those summoned on the first panel. The names of the 40 additional men summoned were allowed to stand	was challenged peremptorily. H. C. Tilley, challenged for the same cause, also believed in the guilt of Higgins. He was influenced by this	The W. H. JOHNSON CO., Ltd.
CORN STARCH ! Canned Salmon !	concert will commence at 8 o'clock. Tickets for sale at the door. The many friends of Rev. G. W.	to be dealt with separately should the first panel prove not sufficient. Through all the proceedings the crowd was eagerly attentive. It was	verdict according to the evidence. He was passed by the triers but challenged peremptorily by Mr. Mul-	7 Market Square.
Above goods just received lirect from factories.	Schurman, formerly pastor of Carleton	a queerly mixed assemblage, mostly young men, not without a prominent	lin. John Condon, likewise challenged, thought that his opinion regarding Hig- gins' guilt might prejudice his decision
	An effort is being made to organize a rifle club in the city. A number of names of those who are anxious to join	just behind the dock, with the prisoner right under his eyes. Mrs. Goodspeed sat with the witnesses and Mrs. Hig-	in the case. He was rejected as not indifferent. Jas. D. Seely did not answer to his name.	25c. LAMPS AT 17c. EACH
210 Union Street.	have already been handed to R. J. Wil- kins, and a meeting will be called later of those interested in the scheme.	gins sat at one side of the room, within full view of her son in the dock. The jurymen were then called in the following order: John H. Walker,	J. Otty Morrell, the next, was chal- lenged for cases, said his opinion was unfavorable to the prisoner and strong
Sold by bushel,	A few days ago, Gerald, the six-year- old son of Mark Lhoyd, who resides on Eim street, swallowed a wire board nail. The little fellow has suffered	Chas. E. Scammel, Thos W. Robinson, Albert McArthur, Clarence B. Allen, Harry W. DeForest, J. Newton Har- vey, James Gault, Jacob W. Coldwell,	enough to affect his judgment. As a juror he would decide by the evi- dence, Mr. Mullin challenged him per- emptorily after the triers had decided barrel or ton. Wood in any quantity at	nail. The little fellow has suffered considerably since from the effects and will likely be taken to the hospital to- day to have it dislodged.	Chas. E. Harding, David Magee, Jr., Rainsforth Williams, J. H. D. Turner, Robt. Reid, H. C. Tilley, John Condon, Jas. D. Seely, J. Otty Morrel, Thos. W.	he was fit to act. Thos. W. Kickham, challenged, be- lieved in the prispner's guilt, but would not be influenced by such opin-
LAW & CO'S., Tel. 1346. Foot of Clarence St.	for the freshman class of Bates the other day in the annual game against	Kickham, J. W. Holly. The names were then read to the prisoner for acceptance or rejection in	ion in giving a verdict. Mr. Mullin agreed to him as a juror, but he was challenged peremptorily by Mr. Mc- Keown and stood aside.	SUPPLIES , Flay Dall,
HARD WOOD Cut, split and delivered at lowest	the sophomore. He held the opposing team down to one hit and shut them out, striking out ten men.	the order in which they were drawn. John H. Walker, the first juror call- ed, was challenged by Mr. Mullin, for cause as not standing indifferent be-	Tt being 1 o'clock court here ad- journed to 2.15 p. m. RECORD BREAKEN.	But before getting you outfit call and see ou large line and get ou prices. Very nice heavy Soft Wood , worth $1.50, but, while it lasts, will	of New Brunswick, gave a fine sparring exhibition in one of the tents. He would like to arrange a bout with Mc-	tween the king and the accused. Mr. McKeown took issue and asked for the appointment of triers, who should decide as to the juror's indiffer-	Hard Coal Seils Here for Thirteen Dol- lars a Ton.	prices. We can interes sell for cash at $1.25 per load. Dry Kindling of best quality. RESERVE and CALEDONIA COAL, well screen-	Intyre or any man of his weight in HalifaxRecorder, Monday. Rev. Mr. Barnes of Patterson, N. J.,	ence. Sheriff Ritchie chose J. V. Mc- Lellan and Alex Blaine as triers. These and Mr. Walker were sworn and the juror examined by Mr. Mullin said: I	If you are lucky you may get a ton or so of hard coal in the city at $13 a ton. People will be wearing chunks of coal for jewelry soon if this price	KEE & BURCESS, Sporting Coods
ed and promptly delivered. Lowest prices. J. S. FROST, ¹¹ Union Street.	grand chaplain of the Order of Sons of Temperance of New Jersey, paid a visit to Gordon Division last evening and addressed the division at some length.	reside in the city of St. John. I read the newspapers and have read part of	keeps up. In a few days there will not	Near Opera House, St. John, N. I
	Loyalist Division will fraternize with Gordon on Monday evening next.	formed any decisive opinion. I think my mind is quite open on the subject. I believe I am not prejudiced against the prisoner at the bar and can give	quantity of hard coal has been forced by the price of that staple to use coke. It has been found to be fairly satisfac-	A Pretty Wedding at St. John the Bantist Church.
	Aay of St. Stephen, won the 2.27 class at the Pembroke, Me., fair on Friday, H. E. Barter's Turtrix being a good	him a fair trial. After hearing Mr. Walker's state- ment Mr. Mullin withdrew his objec-	tory, but a man has to be kept to look after the furnace all the time. It is expected that soft coal will take an advance in price within a very short.	A very pretty wedding took place at an early hour this morning at the church of St. John the Baptist, when
GIBBON & CO'S., SMYTHE STREET	second. Wheelwright, owned by J. F. McLaughlin of Milltown, was the win- ner of the three minute class; best time, 2.41. Lady Lumps best time was	tion and Mr. Walker was sworn. The next called—Chas. E. Scammel— was suitably challenged and examined by Mr. Mullin before triers J. V. Mc-	through the scarcity of anthracite. By the looks of things now there will not	the Rev. W. C. Gaynor united in wed- A meeting of the electors of th
JOHN RUBINS,	Another lot of those $1.16 three	Lellan and John H. Walker. Mr. Scammel said he had read the accounts of the murder in the papers and had formed the opinion that the prisoner	be a very large amount of hard coal burnt in the city this winter. People will have to get back to first principles and use wood. Hard wood is now sell-	Although the event took place at an early hour the church was thronged with friends of the bride and groom. TUESDAY, THE 16TH. INSTAN .
CUSTOM TAILOR Plothes cleaned, repaired and pressed at short notice.	frill black sateen underskirts have just been received at Dyke- man's.	at the bar was guilty. He did not think, however, that he was prejudiced against the prisoner and considered	ing at two dollars and two and a quar- ter a load, while soft wood may be ob- tained at $1.25 a load. There was a time when people got along pretty well	The bride had her sister, Miss Margaret McManus, as bridesmaid, while T. L. Gallivan acted as groomsman. The bride was given away by her father, constituency at the next Provinc
53 Germain Street.	THE COURTS.	that he could give a fair trial. To Mr. McKeown he said the pre- formed opinion was based upon the accounts in the papers. As a juror he	time when people got along pretty well without anthracite, and this coming season is Hable to duplicate that period.	James McManus. Her wedding dress was of pearl grey and white cloth, with black chiffon pic-
Mayor White received this morning rom Joseph Pipe, the undersecretary f state a letter asking for a list of the	fore Judge Forbes, the plaintiff made a motion for a new trial but was re- fused. A stay of proceedings was stranted for appeal L R M United	Mr. Mullin in addressing the triers submitted that Mr. Scammell was not	NOVA SCOTIA COAL WANTED. (Portland, Me., Press.) Local coal dealers have practically	white roses, asters and sweet peas. The bridesmald was attired in bisque colored slik with black hat and carentlemen who formed the citizens' re- eption committee and the various ub-committees on the occasion of the	tiff's attorney; A. B. Connell, K. C., for	indifferent. He had pre-formed opin- ions and was not sure but that they might influence his decision. He asked that he projected	given up hope of obtaining anything like an adequate supply of anthracite and are making preparations to fur- nish bituminous coal for domestic use.	The groom's present to the bride was a handsome gold watch, and to the preferenced a begutiful near crescent of the first bar bar broom breaker and the set of the first bar isit of their royal highnesses last Oc-	In the case of E. R. Chapman, ad-	Mr McKeown urged that no intelli-	It is said that the Nova Scotla coal is	pin. The grooman's gift to the bride V. Johnston at one time of this in orward the names immediately,	Susan A. Wilson v. Geo. B. Crom- well, A. W. Baird made application	not formed some opinion. The desire	and an ample supply of this will be put in.	was a magnificent silver candelabra., Immediately after the marital event the happy young couple with their im- Collier's Weekly in Africa, a pho-

WANTS THEIR NAMES.

PATTERSON'S or. Charlotte & Duke Sts. COR-G. Da SETS, The height of perfection. $1.00 Pair. EVELETS. re Open Every Evenin

In the case of E. R. Chapman, ad-ministrator of the estate of the late Susan A. Wilson v. Geo. B. Crom-well, A. W. Baird made application for a review of taxation of costs. The court ordered the clerk to reduce the taxable items one third. Baird & Baird for Mr. Cromwell; A. A. Wilson, K. C., for the administrator. In probate court the accounts of the estate of Rebecca Sterling were being passed this morning. J. D. Hazen, K. C., for W. H. Sterling; C. N. Skinner, K. C., for A. W. Macrae, one of the sureties; Dr. A. O. Earle, K. C., and H. H. Pickett for the administrator, James Sterling. The regular sitting of the equity court was held today. In Alward et al v. Alward et al, L. A. Allison, K. C., moved for decree absolute. Order made. <text><text><text><text><text><text><text> made. In James D. Suilivan v. Annie Suili-van et al, W. H. Trueman moved to take the bill pro confesso against all the defendants except the infants and as proved against them. Order made. Premises to be sold and after payment of costs balance to be paid into court, to be apportioned according to the bill.

the matter of Hazel Myles, an in-, L. A. Allison, K. C., moved for appointment of a guardian with e to sell the real estate. Order le, Jennie A. Myles to be guardian he person and estate on her enter-into recognizance before the clerk leas to the amount of $200 and two ties for $100 of the

"Here," yelled the policeman, "where are you goin' with that chunk of hard coal?" "To the jeweler's," the man replied. "My wife's crazy over gems." PERSONAL bride was given away by her father, James McManus. Her wedding dress was of pearl grey and white cloth, with black chiffon pic-ture hat, and she carried a bouquet of white roses, asters and sweet peas. The bridesmald was attired in bisque colored slik with black hat and cår-ried a pink bouquet. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome gold watch, and to the bridesmald a beautiful pearl crescent pin. The grooman's gift to the bride was a magnificent sliver candelabra. Immediately after the marital event the happy young couple with their im-mediate friends repaired to the bride's home where a sumptuous wedding re-past was served. After the wedding breakfast, amid showers of fice, old slippers, etc., Mr. and Mrs. Caples left for the station to take the outgoing train on a honeymoon tour to Montreal and Quebec. The bride's going-away drass was The refusion of the second sec

٠

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

ILL ON THE TRAIN.

Officer James McLaren, who has been in poor health since the accident which befel him while chasing a prisoner last winter, was taken seriously ill on the train last night. He has recently been granted his holidays and was beaving by the 11.25 p. m. train on & visit to his daughter, Mrs. Perry, in New Glasgow, N. S. In spite pf the jilness Officer McLaren did not leave the train, but started on the Journey, Arrangements were made for his com-fort on the way.

REV. MR. COSMAN LEAVES.

.

REV. MR. COSMAN LEAVES. Rev. H. H. Cosman has severed his connection with the Saamen's Mission and will leave about the last of the week for Sanford, Yarmouth county, where he has accepted, a pastorate. Mr. Parlee, who has assisted Mr. Cos-man at the home, will take darge un-til a new superintendent is appointed.

