

impress—a divine and human inscription. One, the Lord's knowledge of His own; the other, a departure from iniquity by those who name the name of Christ.

Nor is the apostle Paul peculiar in this mode of presenting truth. Peter also admonishes those who are called into the kingdom of God's dear Son, to be holy in all manner of conversation; and because they are begotten again to a lively hope of an unfeigned, undefiled inheritance, he bids them, as obedient children, to be sober, and gird up the loins of their mind.

Therefore, beloved brethren, we exhort you as Christ Jesus the Lord Jesus, who has died for us, that we may present ourselves unto him a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

Wherefore, beloved brethren, we exhort you, as ye have received Him, and established in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

... as ye have been taught, abounding

CHURCHMAN - N. A. CHALSTON, pastor. - Our meetings will be held in the church building, 111 N. 1st St., on Wednesdays at 8 o'clock. A deep interest in the entire community is invited.

CANTERBURY.—No Pastor.—During the last year, Rev. B. O. Gandy was Pastor. The Church called him to resignation. His place was filled by Mr. A. H. Brown, who was called to leave May 1st, 1890.

The church came
He labored with us well into May.
We keep up our prayer meetings.

PIONEER.—Rev. George Burdett, of Iowa, last Sunday preached two sermons.

A number of our members (reported 1932) are in different parts of the Province, working with our effort to maintain the worship of God.

REDEMPTION (Queen Street)—No Father—We were organized on Nov. 1, 1885. Rev. J. O. Hart, D.D., was the first pastor. His labors were only called to rest on the 11th of June last. About 25 of our members are in foreign lands.

was removed that a Prior be seconded (aloud).

GRAND FALLS - The Forest - But no action is necessary -

...of worship and have it nearly completed. Gold's cause is successful.

HOW AND SETTLEMENT.—No Pastor.—If the people desire to have a pastor, they must first settle upon one, and then call him.

We wish to obtain the labor of some talented and experienced men in this place and I lately happened to hear of you. I therefore wrote and hope I have not lost the opportunity.

JACKSON TOWN—Rev. George Howard (Linc.) noting Pastor—We are born organized anew. We wish to obtain the record of the church.