NEW OBSERVATORY ON DOUGLAS AVENUE

The Dominion government is planning to build a modern observatory in St. John. Conditions in the Customs House are not entirely satisfactory both as regards location, the vibration and other features. These drawbacks were brought to the attention of Hon. Mr. Hazen by the National History Society and recommending the valuable work the St. John observatory, under D. L. Hutchinson is doing, has arranged to provide a suitable home.

D. L. Hutchinson recommended a site on Douglas Avenue, between the residence of J. Fraser Gregory and the new home of J. E. Cowan is building, and Dr. R. F. Stupart, head of the department, on a recent visit to St. John fully approved the selection. The property has now been purchased from Ward Hazen, and at the coming session of parliament an appropriation will be provided for the erection of a modern observatory building. The lot has a frontage of 180 feet on Douglas Avenue and extends back about 300 feet. It is considered a particularly good site for an observatory.

CONDITION OF THE BESIEGED CITY IS BECOMING WORSE

fore necessary to place beyond all doubt the absolute defeat of the Ottoman army and to prove to the world who is the conqueror by the entry of Bulgarian troops into Constantinople. A severe and decisive blow was inflicted on the Turkish fortress of Janina in the extreme western part of the Balkan peninsula, according to a news despatch from Athens. It is reported that indestructible atrocities have been committed there by the Turkish authorities.

Athens, Nov. 8.—The Greek army commanded by Crown Prince Constantine occupied Saloniki, the Turkish stronghold in southwestern Turkey in Europe, today.

Athens, Greece, Nov. 8.—The Greek capital was illuminated this evening in celebration of the fall of the Turkish stronghold of Salonki. Services of praise were held in various churches.

Details of the battle of Yenidje received here today from Yolos show that 20,000 Turkish troops were engaged. The fighting lasted throughout the morning and ended in favor of the Greeks, two divisions of whom attacked the Turks in the rear and gave a decisive turn to the battle.

Rome, Nov. 8.—The representatives of Germany, Austria-Hungary and Italy during their conference in Berlin decided to propose to Great Britain, France and Russia the formula of "Albania for the Albanians," as a solution of the Balkan situation, according to information received here. Both Austria-Hungary and Italy are represented as having agreed not to make any territorial claims for themselves and jointly to bar Serbia from reaching the sea through Albania.

Plan Concerted Action.

Constantinople, Nov. 8.—The commanders of the foreign warships in the port assembled today on board the French cruiser Leon Gambetta to arrange for concerted action should naval assistance become necessary for the maintenance of order in the city.

Near Admiral Louis Dartiege Du Port, net of the French navy, presided as senior officer. The French admiral at first towards the Galata Tower to study the lay of the land. The Austrian and Italian war vessels and the second cruisers of the other powers have not yet arrived.

Paris, Nov. 8.—The threatened rupture between Austria-Hungary and Serbia on the question of Servian access to the Adriatic Sea and the intensity of numerous other political questions caused by the collapse of Turkey, are causing grave concern in diplomatic circles in Paris. At the moment when an intimate accord is more desirable than ever before it is pointed out that the two groups of European nations known as the Triple Alliance and the Triple Entente, which together compose the so-called council of Europe find themselves badly out of tune and arrayed in hostile camps.

With Russia leading, France and England are inclined to support the Servian claims on which Austria-Hungary, encouraged by Germany and Italy, has apparently placed a direct veto. Among other irritating international difficulties are the compensation Roumania will demand as an

COUNTRY SUFFERS SEVERE DAMAGE IN HEAVY STORM

Work Delayed.

At Millidgeville the storm was also felt to a large extent and yacht owners throughout the city are thankful that their boats were hauled up in the winter. The ferryboat Maggie Miller which runs between Millidgeville and Millish came in for a rough time, however, and made but one trip during the day.

Along the river front at Indiantown the heavy wind made itself felt to a considerable extent, all the tugs, yachts and other boats being well looked after during the day.

In Courtenay Bay where soundings have been started the work will probably be delayed for a couple of days. The large scow employed by the workmen in making the borings was swept away yesterday from her mooring.

Even the Marah Creek and landed on the bank near the bridge. Although four anchors were attached to the scow, the fastenings were insufficient to hold the scow against the wind and heavy tides. The scow was not seriously damaged, but it will require a couple of days probably before it can be brought back and placed where needed in the work.

A motor boat which has been used in connection with the work filled with water yesterday.

The unfavorable weather has also interfered with the starting of the dredging operations in Courtenay Bay. The work was to have started on Wednesday, but as the weather has been exceptionally rough it was impossible to get the plant in place.

Even the Calvee Austin, with her powerful screws was inconvenienced. She was unable to make her way from her berth at Reed's Point unassisted. The heavy waves were so high that the harbor was almost closed to sailing.

Cells in the downtown section of the city received more than their usual supply of dampness. The water in the building on Prince William street was one of those to suffer severely, more than an inch of water fell on the streets and flooded the cellar floor.

Cases of wrathful persons who had the shifting wind turn their umbrellas out of shape and consequently out of use were frequent.

The Storm Was General.

The storm was general throughout the entire part of the continent. With its centre in the region of the Great Lakes it spread and swept with violence over New Brunswick, the St. Lawrence River and the New England States and finally lost itself at sea, going in the direction of the Gulf of St. Lawrence.

Heavy falls of rain were experienced in all the leading cities. New York getting over an inch, Montreal 1.2 inches, Quebec 1.4 inches, Boston 1.4 inches. When the wind veered to the northwest at about four o'clock the rain ceased.

Fortunately the weather was warm, the temperature being 55 at nine o'clock yesterday morning and 57 at three o'clock in the afternoon. In the evening the mercury took a drop. One year ago yesterday the records showed the weather to have been cooler, the thermometer registering as low as 42 and a week later going well below the freezing point.

Forecasters Hutchinson advises that St. John people be on the lookout for cooler weather.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Adds Healthful Qualities to the Food

Prof. Prescott, of the University of Michigan, explains why Royal Baking Powder adds healthful qualities to the food.

Testifying before the Pure Food Committee of Congress, the Professor stated that fruit acids were excellent articles of food and that of these cream of tartar, the acid of grapes, held rank with the highest both in itself and its effect in the process of leavening and baking. He regarded the results from cream of tartar baking powder as favorable to health. Scientists and hygienists are in accord with this opinion.

Royal is the only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar.
