WILSON BLAMED BY THE GERMANS

Accuse Him of Weakness, Yet
Many Base Their Hopes
Upon Him.

London, May 9.—In a review of German opinion on the terms of peace telegraphed here Reuters Berlin correspondent says that remarks heard on all sides in Berlin are "rather anarchic than slavish" and that all the people are discussing the consequences of a refusal by Germany to sign the treaty.

"President Wilson," continues the correspondent, "is particularly the object of criticism, his so-called weakness evoking indignation, although there are still many who base their hopes upon him."

LAURENTE POWER LED MONTREAL TRADE

Montreal, May 10.—The market opened strong with Laurente Power showing a good rain. Considering the reactionary tendency in Wall Street, our market showed no signs of any weakness whatever and in fact closed stronger all along the line. Montreal Power was strong and at the close was 9 1/2. A. S. Smith, of the power exchange, said that the market was strong, some offered under 8 1/2, Canadian Cottons sold at 90, but reacted to 80, their statement, which was issued today, was a considerably strong one. We look to see our market broaden out considerably in the near future. However, it was very strong but did not hold all its advance. Some of the oil stocks in Wall Street had some sharp reactions, but this will strengthen the market, as undoubtedly there have been a lot of stop orders in the Victory Loan out of the way, money easier in New York is expected.

GERMAN STOCK EXCHANGES SUSPEND

Berlin, Friday, May 9.—The stock exchange at Bremen, Hanover and Frankfurt, in addition to those at Hamburg and Berlin, have temporarily suspended operations on account of the tension in the political situation.

That was all. In a small provincial town the clerk to the magistrate had added to the flowers legal language, and the rustic brought before the bench are ten quite active when they hear their offences set forth by him.

On one occasion a young laborer had struck another youth, who had summoned him for the offence, and when the case came before the magistrate the clerk read the indictment as follows:

"That you, Edward Jones, wilfully and with malice aforethought and premeditation, did assault, beat, wound, batter, or otherwise maltreat one William B. Smith, a laborer, by striking him with your fist, and thereby caused him to be injured, and to suffer pain, and to be in danger of his life, contrary to the statute in such case made and provided."

"Are you guilty or not guilty?" asked the clerk.

"What! I am all that!" exclaimed a delighted and excited witness.

"Yes, guilty or not guilty?"

"Why, I only punched him!"

Had Hacking Cough
Couldn't Sleep Nights.

Hacking coughs are very wearing on the system. The constant coughing disturbs the rest, and keeps the lungs and bronchial tubes in an irritated and inflamed condition.

Don't neglect the hacking cough. You can get rid of it with a few doses of Wood's Norway Pine Syrup; the most prompt, pleasant and perfect cough remedy known.

Miss Catherine M. McLean, Craik, Sask., writes: "Last winter I caught a heavy cold and was laid up for some time. I had such a hacking cough I couldn't sleep at night. I didn't think I would get over it. One day a friend dropped in to see me and was surprised to see how bad my cough was. She advised me to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. The next day I sent for a bottle, and I soon got relief, and by the time I had taken two bottles, my cough was all gone, and now I am able to do my work again. I don't think there is anything to equal it."

There are plenty of "cough" preparations on the market trying to live on the reputation of "Dr. Wood's." The genuine is put up in a yellow wrapper, three plus lines the trade mark, price 25c and 50c a bottle. Put up only by The T. Milburn Co. Limited, Toronto, Ont.

BERLIN GOVT REQUESTS OPEN DISCUSSIONS

Belief at Versailles That Some Parts of the Treaty May be Opened up to Verbal Discussion.

Berlin, May 8. (Havas).—The German government has telegraphed to the delegates at Versailles ordering them to present to the Allied and Associated Powers, within the fifteen days allowed, a proposition demanding verbal discussions, despatches from Berlin say.

The peace committee of the German national assembly at a meeting Thursday discussed the peace terms. President Brüning of the assembly, declared that the terms presented to Germany were more drastic than the most pessimistic forecast, and indicated that the provisions of the German terms, he described the terms as being a death sentence for the German people.

The committee adjourned after approving the announced intention of the government to obtain "an acceptable peace" by negotiation.

EDITORIAL COMMENT OF LEADING PAPERS THROUGHOUT COUNTRY

Following are excerpts from leading newspaper editorials throughout the country on the peace treaty—

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Severe as the terms are few can say that they are not essentially just in view of the colossal calamity which Germany brought upon the world. And it should be observed that they strike primarily at the military power, the military system, and the older fruit of that system, which Germany has brought the world to have. With the payment of its debt, the total eradication of that system and the development of a government upon a foundation of humanity, there will be nothing to prevent the restoration of Germany to a high place in the affairs of the world.

St. Louis Star.

The peace treaty may justify neither the hopes of some nor the fears of others, but nobody can compare it with other notable international conventions without recognizing a superior purpose in this document. . . . A reassertion of militarism in Germany or in Russia, following a social upheaval in France or in Great Britain, would threaten the future peace to a degree which can scarcely be appreciated. This hazard must be added to the difficulties which will be experienced in the administration of some of the more delicate provisions of the treaty.

Boston Globe.

Forever the Peace makers had before them the problem of demanding the full limit and of stopping before adding the straw that would break the back of the German people. To determine that fine line of the "thousand experts," and on that point depends the verdict on this history-making document. For the strength of a peace treaty is not discovered in a day. Its virtue is measured by its length of life. For it embraces the League of Nations covenant and it provides for the creation of many international commissions. Commissions and arbitration have often proved the best solution in municipal, state, national and international affairs. There is the hope of this treaty.

St. John's Evening Telegram.

My own late husband simply had to have expression. He was kept alive by expression. Denied the right to shoot off his dear mouth, he would, I am sure, have perished years before he did. It is a terrible mistake many mothers make, the mistake of putting a gag in baby's mouth and restricting him to sit back and let the other babies do the honours.

My dear Mr. Henry Heep, of course I think I can see him in the next table while his wife is in the society news, about his wife. I see him looking to the account of how Mr. and Mrs. Cilliblow gave a dainty luncheon for their daughter Vera, when all the time he is dying to reach out and grab the sporting page to see how many rounds Young Jabbo lasted with Kid Knockout.

Wife, what do not forever deny to your husbands the privilege of speech. And when you do allow your husbands to talk, let them be natural. Let them talk about the things that interest them. If you don't let them go out and stay out. Somewhere in the city there is an end to the world. Let them talk about how Aunt Sophie does with that nagging voice could only realize this truth.

Talk up, Mr. Heep! Yes, if you must! You're time to be still when you're asleep and don't!

JAPANESE FEELING AGAINST AMERICA RAPIDLY GROWING

Newspapers Call President
Wilson Hypocrite, Despot and Transformed Kaiser.

Tokio, May 9.—(By the Associated Press).—The anti-American campaign in the Japanese press continues with renewed force. Up to the present no serious overt acts have been committed against Americans or American property. Evidence exists, however, that the newspaper agitation, which has spread to virtually all the leading journals of the empire, is inciting popular feeling against America, and thus paving the way to possible open demonstrations.

Representative Japanese deplore the press campaign, and have begun to criticize the government for its failure to check the literary outbursts, on the ground that they are going so far that they are liable to engender ill feeling.

The participants in a mass meeting held on Sunday, at which some anti-American speeches were delivered, announced their intention of continuing the demonstration in front of the American Embassy. The police, however, interfered and prevented this step.

The belief is expressed here that the basis for the agitation is fear of the growing influence of the United States in international affairs, as evidenced by her position at the peace conference, and that it will act as a curb on what are regarded as Japan's legitimate aspirations in China and Siberia.

After declaring that renewed attempts for anti-Japanese legislation on the Pacific coast indicate that the American persecute Japan in everything, while wearing the mask of liberty and fairness, the Hochi Shimbun charges the Americans with having incited the Chinese to make the secret treaties public and also accuse American missionaries of fomenting the Korean insurrection.

The Yomiuri Shimbun says the Americans responsible for attempts at anti-Japanese legislation are nothing better than barbarians, that their actions are more despicable than those of the Germans, whose barbarities they attacked.

"Hypocrite," "despot," "transformed Kaiser," "man with the voice of an angel but with the soul of the devil," are some of the epithets applied by the newspapers to President Wilson. Today's newspapers print articles assailing Americans and their action in China with exciting headlines to the recent Chinese-Japanese action in Peking, based on the Japanese victory at the peace conference, and the question of Shantung. The papers declared to be the rooting out of Japan's superior rights in China and substituting their own influence.

At a meeting of the Kokumin Kaigi, held in Osaka, a resolution was passed declaring that recognition of the Monroe Doctrine by the League of Nations should be interpreted as recognition of Japan's predominance in the Far East.

ACID IN STOMACH SOURS THE FOOD

Says Excess of Hydrochloric
Acid is Cause of Indigestion.

A well known authority states that stomach trouble and indigestion are nearly always due to acidity—acid stomach—and not, as most folks believe, from a lack of digestive juices.

He states that an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach retards digestion and starts food fermentation, then our meals pour like garbage in a can, forming acids, fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. We then get that heavy lumpy feeling in the chest, we eructate sour food, belch gas, or have heartburn, flatulence, waterbrash, or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a teaspoonful in a glass of water before breakfast while it is still warm, and furthermore, to continue this for one week. While relief follows the first dose it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the salt of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salt is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.

QUOTATIONS IN ST. JOHN MARKET

Philadelphia Public Ledger.
Certainly no man can read the treaty and be in any doubt as to who lost the war. Yet there is no brutal and purely punitive spoliation. Germany is not dismembered. It is really amazing how little territory she will lose at the hands of her completely victorious enemies when we realize how wantonly she challenged them, how savagely she devastated their towns and countryside, how atrociously she murdered the people, and what enormous sacrifices in men and money she imposed upon them. She is left with no ranking wound, no just cause to revenge the war. If the Germans of the Saar Valley really want to go back to her they can go in fifteen years, not having been under French rule for a day in the meantime. The warlike shade of Bismarck must marvel at such restraint.
