QUESTION OF NUMBERS OF FREE BAPTISTS IN NEW BRUNSWICK.

Census Commissioner Stands by His Figures, Which Were Disputed.

Correspondence Instituted by Rev. Dr. McLeod, Who Claims 25,000 of the Denomination in This Province, While Census Gave 15,000.

Ottawa, Oct. 30-Some days ago the sponding secretary of the Free Baptist conference of New Brunswick, Dr. J. Mcgive the Free Baptists fully 25,000 people in the province, the census enumerators had shown only 15,000.

Doctor McLeod likewise stated that he had asked the census commissioner to had asked the census commissioner to make an explanation of this apparent falling off but had not been furnished with any satisfactory information. In his calculation of the Free Baptists in New Brunswick Doctor McLeod stated that from the figures of 130 churches, they had found 9,601 members. Leaving out the members of 26 unreported churches, he estimated that in all the province should have fully 25,000 members of the Free Baptist church.

reason to believe that the work of enumerating the various religious sects was carefully and methodically carried out.

There are, however, numerous branches of Baptists in New Brunswick, all of which excepting Free Baptists, were enumerated under the general head of Baptists. And, although it is possible that names were confused by the enumerators, the correspondence shows that in each case they were familiar with the names of the people and the districts in which they as enumerators were employed, that they were aware of the distinction between Free Baptists and Baptists of other they were aware of the distinction between Free Baptists and Baptists of other names or sects, and that they aimed to make an accurate record according to the several religious denominations.

Dottor McLeod corresponded with Commissioner Blue in connection with the matter last June, and at the time was given all possible information. It was also missioner Blue in connection with the matter last June, and at the time was given all possible information. It was also pointed out to him that in many cases where the head of a family was enumerated as being of one religious denomination, other members of the family were found to belong to various other churches. In this connection Mr. Blue in his correspondence with Doctor McLeod gave several instances which had come under his notice. It is quite possible, therefore, that Doctor McLeod in making his report to the conference in New Brunswick, has based his calculation of the membership of the Free Baptists on the ground that each family of which the head was a member of his church would show at least two or three who were also members of the Free Baptists in New Brunswick, formed as it was, after a careful and thorough investigation, is correct notwithstanding what has been said by Doctor McLeod (Signed)

The general census of Baptists in the lower provinces shows that there has been little growth during the past decade, and understally the Free Bastists of the and undoubtedly the Free Baptists suffered as well as others.—Montreal Herald.

(Signed the most favorable time to forward it to market. Such was the statement given to the Globe correspondent today by Hon. A. G. Blair, minister of railways and canals, in stating what had been the exact results of this trip through the west to the Pacific coast. There cannot be any wonder, the minster of railways went on to say, that the railways should find it impossible to rush the grain through and the various letters. Old Mr. Graham is chreat distance possible between periods. Our bright young men have discovered how to make a pretty good article of potted chicken, and they don't need any help from hens, either; and you can smell the clover in our butterine if you've developed the poetic side of your nose; but none of the boys have been able to discovered. If you graduate with a sound conscience, I shan't care so much if there are a few stitute for work, even in a boarding house, though I'll give some of them credit for Baptist, church.

In connection with this matter Commissioner Blue says that when his attention was first drawn to it by Doctor McLeod he procured: Tevision of the old religious population of all the districts in New Brunswick, and the result was a discovery of 166 persons described as "T. C." Baptists, who had been added by the compilers to the Calvinistic Baptists, who had been added by the compilers to the Calvinistic Baptists.

The colonial secretary at Fiji also sent compressioners the Baptists for New Brunswick, and the result of the result with a sound conscience, the saw the grain through and the result was a first drawn and the result was a discovery of 166 persons described as "T. C." Baptists, who had been added by the compilers to the Calvinistic Baptists.

The colonial secretary at Fiji also sent compressioners to the Calvinistic Baptists.

The result of the result will have been counted as Free Baptists of New Brunswick 15,668.

Commissioner Blue also corresponded with the enumerators and from information which he has received he has every reason to believe that the work of enumerating the various religious sects was because the various religious period of the procured the cable, thus forming another strong link that the railways should find it to say, that the railways should find it and to avoid blockades, even if there were four times as many railways as there are the about a variety of the fact that farmers from all the districts in the cable, the area of the about and a strong the province of the railway and expect the read and want to get in on the

it in the open season. What I was parti-cularly anxious to find out was, how do cularly anxious to find out was, how do the present railways, the Canadian Pacific, the Canadian Northern, the Great Northern and the Northern Pacific; and the needs of the country and the needs of the needs of the country and the needs of the needs of the country and the needs of the needs the progress it could the country has grown greatly beyond them. In fact, I am thoroughly convinced that there is room for at least four more railways right through the Northwest to the Pacific coast today, not only convinced of that, but even of the fact that it must have them. I travelled over portions of all the four present railways and branched in-land to see the condition of the country. for a moment to say that 20 miles on either side would be amply sufficient for a railway to be run with satisfactory results. Then I went among the people and I found that there was a very general opinion in favor of a government railway, right through to the coast. I had thought so for many years. I am mere than ever convinced of the fact, as the farmers pointed out to me it would be the one great thing that would tend to equalize rates, the one thing that would tend to equalize rates, the one thing that would prevent their continually being at the mercy of the railways. They have the right to such a railway, and there cannot be any doubt that such a line might be run with great profit to the country. But then the country has gone ahead so fast that more railways must be established or immigrafor a moment to say that 20 miles on either side would be amply sufficient for try has gone ahead so fast that more railways must be established or immigra-tion will receive a severe set back. Setlying districts and unless railway facili-ties are afforded them in order to get their produce to market they will become discontented and get anxious to leave the country. Everywhere you go the same cry is to be heard, more railways. Then I was specially interested in the big immigration from the United States. While in England last summer the objection was often made that so many Ameriwas any desire for anything of the kind. I found that there was not. They are and now I am going to prophesy. From what I have seen and learned I will prophesy that the next year at least 100-000 Americans will find their way into offset the disaster that now threatens the west, for they will, by example, show the Canadian farmers the benefit to be derived from holding on to their grain.

Then, naturally, I was interested in see ing what progress had been made by the Doukhobors and the Galicians. For the nost part I found that the Doukhobor The present trouble among them is not likely to spread very much. The Galicians have certainly gone ahead very rapidly They have adapted themselves admirably
