HURLEY - NEASHAW WEDDINGS

Wednesday, June 24th, was the wedding day of Miss Dorothy Hurley of North Kingston, and the weather man was unkind enough to prevent the ceremony being performed on the lawn under the blossoming apple trees as had been intended. However, he was sympathetic enough to allow the sun to shine on the bride, though the faithful words were said in a hall decked alcove in the sitting room.

To the strains of the Wedding March played by Miss Eleanor Nelson, the bride entered on her father's arm and took her place beside the groom, Mr. Herbert Neashaw of Newmarket, Ont. White broadcloth, Canton crepe, was the wedding dress, with skirt ornamented of waxen orange blossoms and trailers of buds and foliage, fashioned by the clever fingers of flower makers of France. A bandeau of the same held in place the veil, and the bouquet of pink and white sweet peas and lily of the valley, completed a charming toilette.

At the close of the ceremony Mr. J. Hurley, brother of the bride, sang "O Promise Me" in his usual good form, and the strains of the wedding march again sounding, the bride, now on the groom's arm, and preceded by the officiating clergyman, Rev. A. McLeod of Kingston, adjourned to the music room, where the Register was signed.

A light luncheon was served to the guests, and, after an interval, the bride appeared in her going away gown, an ensemble suit of grey flannel and blue crepe-de-chine, topped by a quaint little grey poke.

The happy couple departed by motor for an unknown destination. The guests included: Mr. Archibald McDougall of Newmarket and his wife, who wore cocoa brown canton crepe; Mr. and Mrs. Nelson of Meadowvale, the latter in black satin with touches of blue; Mr. Thomas Hill; Messrs. Willard and Harold Nelson and Miss Nelson, who wore chiffon velvet, with crimson ornament and Miss Dorothy Nelson in yellow muslin.

There were some charming and valuable gifts, including a complete set of flat community silverware from the groom's family in Newmarket; silver cream and sugar set from Mr. and Mrs. McDougall; a luncheon set and a beautiful pearl necklace from Miss Nora Hind of the Manitoba Free Press and linen, china, cut glass and silverware from various friends. One of the most interesting gifts was a case of desert knives and forks with ivory handles and silver furis, that had been a silver wedding gift to the bride's grandmother and a dozen exquisitely fine table napkins hemmed by her grandmother, who died 20 years ago.

The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful string of pearls; to Mr. John Hurley, gold cuff links and to Miss Nelson, a bar pin.

ANNUAL CHURCH MEETING AT KINGSTON

On Thursday afternoon and evening of last week, there took place in the Kingston Church the Annual Meeting of the new Kingston Circuit.

In the afternoon the Official Board met and closed their work for the past year.

Following this meeting the representatives from all parts of the Circuit, which numbered over one hundred, sat down to a very sumptuous supper.

The evening session took the form of an open meeting in the main church. Here the Pastor, Mr. L. D. Dant, gave a detailed report of the activities for the past year which showed the circuit to closing its year in a very healthy condition.

The Rev. J. G. Hockin of Middleton who is the Superintendent of the Circuit was present and gave the main address of the evening, basing his remarks mainly on the subject of the coming Church Union.

Mr. Arthur Hilton, the leader of the Kingston Orchestra and one of the most interested workers gave a very interesting paper on the work of the year. Miss Belle Wiswall of Wilmet, another of our staunch workers, was heard from with much acceptance.

The balance of the evening program was in the hands of the Choir and with the Orchestra, many fine selections were rendered.

This is the first meeting of its kind to be held, but from the interest displayed at that it is likely that it will not be the last.

OBITUARY

JAMES M. FOSTER

There passed to rest after a very short illness on the 3rd of June, at his home, 114 Buckman St., Everett, Mass., James M. Foster, aged 74 years.

His death came with startling suddenness as he had always enjoyed comparatively good health, unknown however he contracted septic poisoning and although all that medical aid could do was called upon, he passed very suddenly.

Mr. Foster has resided for many years in the States, where he has been very successful in business up to the time of his death. Previous to this he resided in Nova Scotia and many friends will remember him as one of the North Kingston boys.

He leaves to mourn his loss a wife and one son; four brothers also survive him, two resident in the States and Norman and William both at North Kingston. Mrs. Allan Forbes of Kingston is also a sister of the late Mr. Foster. His mother is also living. Mrs. Wesley Foster, at the rather unique age of 83.

Our sincere sympathy goes out to the family in this bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kaulback and daughter, also Emory Kaulback were recent guests of Mrs. L. L. Langille.

Rev. and Mrs. deWolfe, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. deWolfe and L. F. Morton attended the Baptist Association of Digby.

Children's Day was observed at the Baptist Church.

For the Glory of Nova Scotia

The one high-class apple which is capable of beating the McIntosh Red for the Gold Medal at the Imperial Fruit Show in England, this fall, is our magnificent Cox Orange. Nova Scotia grows this apple to perfection which allows us to compete against McIntosh as grown in Quebec and British Columbia.

My friend, Mr. Elliott Smith, of Wexville, who represents Gerald DeCosta, the celebrated English Fruit firm, will advise us as to this exhibit and his firm will sell all our Cox Orange going to various markets.

Gerald DeCosta last year ran a large exhibit at the Imperial Fruit Show and they also kept the Nova Scotian exhibitors posted on various vital matters. I am confident our large (prospective) shipments of Cox to them will be sold for good prices—those arriving in time, at Wembley.

It is needless to say that it is expensive to box and pack apples to be fit to exhibit but the net returns, after we deduct our expenses, are what count. We will add all money prices to the best class of boxed Cox, and I think your cheques will please. Last year we received $50.00 a piece, for four boxes each, of Cox Orange selected from those grown by P. M. Chute and Mr. Henry Watts of Waterville. (This is approximately $40.00 a barrel clear of all expenses). We do not hope to hit such extreme prices again.
