

more claim to be heard, the Court shall decide between them which shall be heard ;

6. No publication or service of any such supplementary or counter-questions or propositions shall be necessary, but the same shall be printed, and, when they are filed, at least fifty copies thereof shall be delivered to the Clerk of Appeals, who shall give copies to the Attorney General and to the Advocates appearing for Seigniors or Censitaires ;

Copies of counter-questions, &c., to be furnished to all parties.

7. From the expiration of the said thirty days after the last publication of the said Questions, the matter shall be dealt with by the said Judges, as if an appeal were pending and inscribed and ready for hearing, in which the said Questions had arisen for decision, but no case, or pleadings, or other proceeding than such as are herein prescribed shall be required previously to such hearing ; no technical objection of procedure shall be entertained, and if any question arise as to the proceedings in any matter not provided for by this Act, the Judges sitting shall instante make such order therein as shall seem most equitable and convenient ;

How the questions shall be heard, &c.

8. The decision and opinions of the said Judges shall be motivées and delivered as in a judgment on a case in appeal in which all the Questions had arisen and were put in issue, but without any further sentence in favor of the Crown the Seigniors or the Censitaires, whether as to costs or otherwise. (See also 19 Vict. Chap. 53, s. 14.)

Form of Decisions.

9. The decision so to be pronounced on each of the said Questions and Propositions shall guide the Commissioners and the Attorney General, and shall in any actual case thereafter to arise, be held to have been a judgment in appeal en dernier ressort on the point raised by such Question, in a like case, though between other parties ; Provided always, that it shall be competent to the said Judges to render separate decisions upon any particular question or questions ; And
