

Section 89, of 13 and 14
Vict. c. 53
cited.

II. And whereas it is provided, in the 89th section of the 53rd chapter of the Acts passed in the 13th and 14th years of the reign of Queen Victoria, being "An Act to regulate the practice of Division Courts in Upper Canada," "That every Bailiff or officer executing any process of 5
"execution issuing out of any Division Court in Upper "Canada, against the goods and chattels of any person,
"may by virtue thereof seize and take any of the goods
"and chattels of such person (excepting the wearing
"apparel and bedding of such person and his family, 10
"and the tools and implements of his trade to the value
"of five pounds, which shall to that extent be protected "from such seizure);" be it enacted, that instead of the exemption from seizure of such apparel, bedding, and tools of trade, to the value of £5, under authority of the 15 said Division Courts Act, (passed August 10, 1850,) and instead of any exemptions from seizure under acts, ordinances or usages of the late Legislature of Lower Canada, the property to be hereafter exempt shall be that which is described in the next following section of this Act. 20

The exemption therein
contained extended.

To what property the exemption from seizure shall extend.

III. And be it enacted, That the following property owned by a householder, and in actual use, or kept in use by and for his family, or, in case of his death, by and for his widow or children, or when being removed from one habitation to another upon a change of residence, 25 shall be exempt from execution, except as herein otherwise specially provided:—

1. Books, pictures and musical instruments, to the value of £12 10s.

2. Necessary household, table, and kitchen furniture; 30 including stoves, stove pipe, and stove furniture, wearing apparel, beds, bedding and bedsteads, provisions actually provided for family use, sufficient for six months, including meat, fish, vegetables, flour and meal, with fuel for sixty days, one cow, ten sheep, two swine, and food 35 for them for three months.

3. The seat or pew occupied by the debtor or his family, in a house of Public Worship where seats are sold or rented.

4. The tools and implements of a mechanic, necessary 40 to carry on his trade.

5. A horse, harness, and cart, or other vehicle, by the use of which a physician or constable, or a cartman, teamster, or other labourer, habitually earns his living.

But the aggregate value of all the property so exempt, 45 cannot exceed £62 10s. ; nor shall any article be exempt from an execution issued on a judgment for its price.
