PIMPLES CURED.

Miss J. M. Wallace, Black's Harbor, N.B., writes:—"About five years ago my face was entirely covered with pimples. I tried everything people told me about, but found no relief. At last I thought of B.B.B. and decided to try a bottle. After finishing two bottles I was entirely cured, and would advise any lady who wants a beautiful complexion to use B.B.B."

BOILS CURED.

Mrs. Ellsworth Mayne, Springfield, P.E.I., writes:—"My face and neck were covered with boils, and I tried all kinds of remedies, but they did me no good. I went to many doctors, but they could not cure me. I then tried Burdock Blood Bitters, and I must say it is a wonderful remedy for the cure of boils."

I Will Develop Any Woman's Bust

I Will Tell Any Woman Absolutely Free of Charge How To Do It Positively and Safely.

Many women believe that the bust cannot be developed or brought back to its former vigorous condition. Thousands of women have vainly used massage, electricity, pump-instruments, ointments, general tonics, constitutional treatments, exercises and other methods without results.

Any Woman May Now Develop Her Bust

I will explain to any woman the plain truth in regard to bust development, the reason for failure and the way to success. The Mme. Du Barre Positive French Method is different from anything else ever brought before American women. By this method, any lady—young, middle aged or elderly—may develop her bust from 2 to 8 inches in 30 days, and see definite results in 3 to 5 days, no matter what the cause of the lack of development. It is based on scientific facts absolutely.

This method has been used in Europe with astounding success, and has been accepted as the most positive method known. To any woman who will send a 2c stamp, to pay postage, I will send complete illustrated booklet of information, sealed in plain envelope. Address

Wears a No. Six Shoe.

Saskatchewan, Feb. 2, 1912.
Dear Editor and Readers of The Western Home Monthly,—I have been a silent and interested reader of The Western Home Monthly, and always turn to either the fashion or correspondence pages first. I am a dress-maker, but my father and mother live in the country, and as I sew at home a lot would like some good correspondents to write away the long evenings. I am a Canadian girl, five feet eight inches tall and weight about 120 pounds. I have dark brown hair and blue eyes; take a number six shoe. Now, don't laugh all of you. Am very fond of reading, music, card playing, and would like to be a good dancer, but as I have attended only a few parties where they danced I never got very good. My age if anyone cares to know is eighteen. So, now, if any member cares to write I

One of the Happy Ones.

Alberta, Feb., 1912.

Dear Sir,—Having been an interested reader and subscriber of your valuable paper for some time, I would very much like to join in with the boys and girls. I live 12 miles from town and am a bachelor, but not one of those poor lonely sort. No, sir. I haven't time. My family here see that I don't get lonely. If you could have heard the racket going on here when I got home from town this evening, you would certainly understand why I am not lonely. I had a bunch of horses to feed, chickens and pigs to feed, and cows to milk, and I can tell you I had to jump around. But what a fine life this is, boys. It is a pleasure to wake in the morning with my family all waiting to be fed. And it makes me feel proud when I look at them to think they are mine, bought and paid for. Some people tell me I am lucky, but it's not all luck, boys. No; it's the average amount of luck and hard work. So my advice to the poor lonely bachelor is—dig in. I am 29 years of age. I neither drink or chew, but, oh, girls! I must plead guilty to smoking a pipe. Really, girls, you must leave me that, or I'll sure get cranky, as it is, I

NOTICE TO FAT WOMEN

Presumably you know, ladies, that the proper caper nowadays is lines. Curves are passe. You have got to take off your fat. This must be done in one of three ways. By dieting, by exercise, or by means of Marmola Prescription Tablets. The two former will keep you busy for months and punish you pretty severely; the latter will cost you 75 cents at the druggist's. The tablets will not make any alteration in your diet necessary, and yet in all probability, before you have used up one case, you will be losing from 12 to 16 ounces of fat a day. Which method do you like the best? If you fancy this pleasant method of getting off the fat, see your druggist instantly, or else write the Marmola Co., 1412 Farmer Bldg., Detroit, Mich., to send you a case by mail. These cases contain so generous a quantity of tablets that the treatment is very economical. It is, also, quite harmless, for the tablets are made exactly in accordance with the famous Marmola Prescription.

Every Woman is interested and should know about the wonderful MARVEL Whirling Spray. The new Vaginal Spray. Best—Most convenient. It cleanses instantly. Ask your druggist for it.

If he cannot supply the MARVEL, accept no other, but send stamp for illustrated book—sealed. It gives full particulars and directions invaluable to ladies.

When the Postman Comes.

Grandview, Vancouver, B.C.
Dear Editor,—As I have been a reader of The Western Home Monthly for the last three years, I think it's time to take part in your correspondence columns, if you think this worth while putting in. The Western Home Monthly is the best paper I've ever read, especially the "Young Woman and Her Problem" and the correspondence. There's a regular scrap at the door when the postman brings it, as we all look eagerly forward to its coming. I certainly recommend it to all my friends as a good reliable and instructive paper. I would like to receive some letters from the lonesome boys between 20 and 25 who live on the farm. I live in the city myself, but prefer the country life every time. I am just 17 years old, have light brown hair, dark grey eyes, good complexion and teeth (but eat lots of candy), weigh about 125 lbs, and am 5 feet 5 inches in height. I like skating, horseback riding, cards, and am passionately fond of music. I play the piano a little. Would like to correspond with Sask. Kid, Sask. Batch, and any others that care to write, so get busy, boys; although it is leap year don't get frightened. I'm not looking for a "hubby" yet. Will answer all letters at once. Leaving my address with the editor, I will say so-long. Dimples.

"Life is Real—Life is Earnest."

Winside, Sask., Feb. 2, 1912.

Dear Editor,—I like your paper, The Western Home Monthly, very well; it has much good reading in it and many instructive articles, and I find a few good letters in the correspondence columns also. I think Constance's letter was very impressive. It will not hurt to try a definition of the deep, much expressed words quoted from Longfellow. Let us know that "Life is real, life is earnest." I consider this word to be worthy of every person's consideration. This sentence is both conjuring, warning and very instructive, if one will turn them over a few times and analyse the contents. We are so very much inclined to carelessness. Beware! Wake up while young and take the necessary precautions for future life! While young we should arm and equip ourselves and make ourselves fit to meet the future. If our youth is spent in a thoughtless way, we are liable to get some rough sailing later on. Longfellow wants to tell us that we should begin to use our faculties early, commence to prepare our own self for the world we are to pass through. In parenthesis I will say that I think much of horseback riding, because it is healthy for boys and girls, but dance
