The BOSE 360 System.

Funny, it doesn't look revolutionary.

But it is. The Model 360 Direct/Reflecting® Music System is the first stereo system that shows you with music does, the way live music does, to give you a level of realism and excitement never before possible in a home music system. Experience. So we invite you to hear a 60-second demonstration in our store. If you hear the demonstration, you'll want the system.
