Mr. F. T. Costello,
Macdonell and Costello,
Alexandria, Ontario.

Dear Mr. Costello:

I thank you cordially for your wire just received.

I have also had particulars by telephone from Mr. Cline.

It is too soon to express an opinion as to the course it is wisest to take under the circumstances. In this matter, I shall wish to be guided wholly by the views of yourself and my other Glengarry friends. I shall be glad to have any suggestions or opinions you may think it well to communicate.

With kind regards,

Believe me,

Yours very sincerely,
