

"The legislation they have introduced is ill prepared and mainly farcical. It has no relation to the vital needs of the country. It makes no progress in Parliament, the Government indeed has no real control of Parliament."

"No matter how the Prime Minister may talk a defeat in North Bruce means the defeat of his Administration. feeble and defeated

North Bruce ~~constituency~~ will have a chance to do a great good ~~signal service~~ to Canada at a critical time and North Bruce will not fail."

Do life hangs now on high pressure personal appeals by new made ministers - in a situation like the present a mere personal appeal is absurd
