

THE LAW SCHOOL.

118. The Legal Education Committee shall have power to make regulations, not inconsistent with these Rules, with respect to all matters relating to the proper working of the Law School, and the carrying out of all matters incidental to the Rules relating thereto, which regulations shall be reported to Convocation at its first meeting after the making thereof.

119. The Law School is continued upon the basis established by these rules.

120. The staff of the Law School shall consist of (a) a Principal, who shall be a Barrister of not less than ten years' standing; (b) Four Lecturers; (c) Four Examiners.

121. No person, while holding the office of Lecturer, shall be appointed or act as Examiner.

122. The Principal shall, in addition to the duty of lecturing and the discharge of such other duties as may be assigned to him by Convocation, have supervision and general direction of the School; and shall engage in no professional work other than that of consulting counsel; nor shall he be a member of any firm of practising Barristers or Solicitors; and he shall reside in or near Toronto.

123. Subject to the approval of the Legal Education Committee, the Principal shall arrange the subjects and books for lectures, the branches to be treated upon by each Lecturer, and the days and hours for lectures and discussions in the School during the School Term.

124. The duties of Lecturers shall be to deliver viva voce lectures, to superintend classes, prepare questions for classes, and to perform such other duties as may be assigned to them by the Principal under his superintendence.

125. The duties of the Examiners shall be to prepare all questions for, and to conduct and report to the Legal
