

1823. January 10, London.	Gillespie, Moffat, Finlay & Co., to Wilmot. Tender to distribute the money to be paid in Upper Canada for damages caused by the late war. The charge for bills of exchange and how they were to be drawn.	Page 163 166
January 11, London.	Calculation of the saving to be effected by their offer. Galt to Wilmot. In event of government agreeing to pay five shillings on the amount of the Upper Canadian claims, recommends the acceptance of Gillespie & Co.'s offer.	166 186
January 20, London.	Robinson to the same. The incorporation of a provincial bank; it might act as agent for the raising of money for the sufferers by the war as proposed by Galt. How it could be made useful.	285
January 22, London.	Galt to Harrison. The arrangements that will be necessary to pay over the dividend of five shillings to the sufferers by the war.	187
January 27, London.	The same to Wilmot. Proposals of arrangements to repay the payments to the sufferers by the war by a sinking fund or a lottery.	190
January 27, London.	The same to the same. Respecting the best method of drawing for the payment in Upper Canada of the sufferers by the war.	193
January 27, London.	The same to the same. Recapitulates the measures proposed and taken to pay the sufferers by the war.	196
January 28, Winchelsea.	Henry Powell to the same. Respecting the grant to his son of 1,000 acres which includes two islands regarding which there is some obstacle. His son is willing to have a clause that he will give up possession of the islands if wanted for government purposes on being remunerated for his outlay.	271
January 28, London.	Robinson to Wilmot. The claimants for losses in Upper Canada having employed a private agent, he would not trouble government with suggestions unless referred to. Objects to the employment of mercantile agents as the claimants are nearly all indebted to mercantile houses and it would not be fair if the money intended for those debtors should pass through the hands of one creditor. Remedies that might be applied which would only partially remove the evil. His diffidence in proposing that the newly chartered bank should act as agent, not being sure if the directors would undertake to negotiate the payment, but he had no idea of the objections raised by Galt; sends statement respecting the bank which may remove injurious impressions. Sees no objections to Galt's proposal that the matter might be left in the hands of the Lieut. Governor, nor does he see why the Receiver General might not manage the transaction.	288
	Notes on banks and on the circulating medium of the Canadas.	294
	Statement of the terms on which government has agreed to convey a limited number of settlers from Ireland to Upper Canada.	301
January 30, Winchelsea.	Henry Powell to Wilmot. Further respecting the two islands for which he has written on behalf of his son.	274
January 31, Treasury.	Lushington to the same. Respecting the sums deposited by settlers repaid to them in Canada, and amount restored to the Treasury to represent the amount paid in Canada to the settlers.	37
	Enclosed. Statements.	39 to 41
February 10, London.	Galt to Wilmot. Presumes that the changes in the terms of the proposed loan have arisen from its being supposed that the loan was to be raised in Canada. Is still ready to go on with the arrangement as at first agreed to. Objects to the intricacy of the scheme as now proposed, by which two loans would be necessary.	200
	Remarks on the government loan.	203
	Reid to Galt. That no reasonable arrangement can be made to borrow by Canada unless the British Government should guarantee the whole of the interest; to guarantee only half the interest would necessitate two loans; the one not guaranteed would be negotiated with difficulty.	204
