

- emy had laid
ry waste with
word.
- asants were
ound a bonfire
no children, he
is money.
- sold all his
de.
- quite a feat o
e then in the
nter.
- broken the
work.
- e the journey
expense, —
enses.
- have elbow-
s on both
e same time.
a bear me no
- en confined
is room the
- ood watch
away.
- 173 Ci-git un homme ver-
tueux.
- 174 Ils riaient tous à gorge
déployée.
- 175 Ces deux frères se res-
semblent comme deux
gouttes d'eau.
- 176 Je vous fais grâce du
reste.
- 177 Nous fûmes ballottés
au gré des vents et des flots.
- 178 J'ai terminé le gros de
la besogne.
- 179 Nous achetons en gros
et nous vendons au détail.
- 180 Il en sortit avec tous les
honneurs de la guerre.
- 181 Ce que vous dites là
est hors de propos.
- 182 Ils avaient inondé le
marché d'articles étran-
gers.
- 183 Je l'ai vu qui courait
à toutes jambes.
- 184 Ces gens-là vivent au
jour le jour.
- 185 On a fait justice de tou-
tes ces calomnies.
- 186 Je me promenais de
long en large.
- 173 Sacred to the memory
of a virtuous man.
- 174 They were all splitting
their sides with laughter.
- 175 Those two brothers are
as like one another as
two pins.
- 176 I let you off the remainder.
- 177 We were tossed about
at the mercy of wind and wave.
- 178 I have got through the
best part of the work.
- 179 We buy wholesale and
sell by retail.
- 180 He came out of it with flying colours.
- 181 What you are saying is
quite out of place.
- 182 They had glutted the
market with foreign
goods.
- 183 I saw him running
with all his might.
- 184 Those people live from
hand to mouth.
- 185 Justice has been done
on all those calumnies.
- 186 I was walking to and
fro-up and down waiting
for you.