ENTERTAINING HOME COMERS

Magnificent Firework Effects on Toronto Bay.

Toronto, July 3.—Of a certainty, the home comers—and their numbers were augmented yesterday—will not complain that they have not had a warm welcome. The weather man looked after that. But the welcome in the hearts of the people was just as warm. It found expression in the humor, the common-sense patriotism and national optimism of Premier Ross' eloquent periods at the garden party, in the address of his Worship Mayor Urquhart, in the throngs that witnessed the "old boys" procession, and yet again, and with infinitely more spectacular effect, in the pyrotechnic display and fairyland illumination of the harbor last night.

The scene was one that far exceeded in beauty any ever before produced in Toronto. It was a show for the whole city, and it did look as if the greater part of the population were on the waterfront, on the Island and on the bay. Apparently every point of vantage from Yonge street west was crowded; York street bridge was a mass of people; the new wharf could hold no more, and wherever a view of the bay could be had there were the people assembled. No description in words can convey an adequate idea of the brilliant, kaleidoscopic panorama spread before them. Far east and far west a huge bonfire reared an unstable pyramid of flame. First along the western sandbar; later, and principally, at Island Park, Hand & Co. maintained a lively and exceedingly beautiful display of fireworks, mostly of the ascending order; then on the bay, beginning at Hanlan's, and gradually spreading over the harbor, we had hundreds of illuminated small craft, each setting off rockets, and conducting a small fireworks display of its own. The small boats, divided with Hand's fireworks the honors of the evening. All of them were lighted with overhead strings of Chinese lanterns, and as they glided higher and thither, in long chains and singly, spitting small rockets like shooting stars, the scene was a very lovely one. Over all the moon shed a misty light.

LORD ROSEBURY'S VIEW.

Ridicule for Chamberlain's Programme.

London, July 3.—Lord Rosebery, in the House of Lords, renewed the debate on the preferential tariff propositions, making a further request for information regarding the Cabinet's plans. In the course of a long speech he ridiculed Colonial Secretary Chamberlain's programme, and said he did not believe the Government intended to prosecute any inquiry into the matter. The allegations that such an inquiry was being made were, said Lord Rosebery, merely a cloak to screen the irreconcilable differences between the Colonial Secretary and the other members of the Cabinet, and he demanded to know whether the inquiry would be definite and organized, whether it would be individual or collective, and whether the results would be published.

A PECULIAR DEATH.

Man Pinned Between Bed and Wall Seven Days.

Binghamton, N.Y., July 3.—Geo. Barnes, a civil war veteran, fifty years old, who lived alone at Berkshire, was found nearly dead in his house by neighbors who broke in the doors. The man had not been seen for a week. He was found wedged between his bed and the wall, where he said he fell in an apoplectic fit a week ago, and was unable to release himself. He died soon after being found, but the physician said death was due to starvation, as it would be possible for him to have recovered from the stroke of apoplexy had he had proper attendance.

TWENTY PEOPLE DROWNED.

Disastrous Cloudburst in Southwestern Part of Texas.

San Antonio, Tex., July 3.—A cloudburst visited the southwestern section of Texas, causing the death of several persons and a heavy property loss. No accurate despatches of loss of life can be obtained, as the telegraph wires are down in the storm-swept section, but enough is known to warrant the belief that at least twenty people, mostly Mexican laborers and farm hands, perished in the flood.

THE GREAT MOTOR RACE.

Won by Jenatzy of the German Team.

Ballyshannon, Ireland, July 3.—The international race for the James Gordon Bennett Cup, run yesterday, was won by Jenatzy, a member of the German team, who covered the distance of 370 3/4 miles in 6 hours 36 minutes and 9 seconds, including the stops imposed by the regulations. Two members of the French team ran each other so close for second place that it will not be known until Friday whether De Knyff or Farman is entitled to the honor. Only one minute divided them; it is thought likely that De Knyff's claim to second place will be upheld.

FIGHTING THE TURKS.

One Band of Brigands Lost Thirteen Men.

Salonica, July 3.—A band of thirty brigands has been defeated by Turkish troops near Perlep, and thirteen of them killed.

Ushub, European Turkey, July 3.—Severe fighting is reported at Oskin between Gievgreh and Grunendia. No details have been received.
