The Planet.

S. STEPHENSON - Proprietor.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1903.

OURSELTES.

The Planet was yesterday the fortunate recipient of scores of congratmlations-some from the most unexpected sources-on its big Saturday issue. Several of these kind words came in by telephone from outsiders.

We merely mention this matter to give evidence of our appreciation of the complimentary comments, and to point out that that while The Big Saturday Planet is specially prepared each week as the great home jourmal of the west, it is still the aim to turn out every lawful day a progressive type of "the fittest" in clean and up-to-date Canadian journalism.

A GRACIOUL ACT

It would be a gracious act on the part of the Public Library Board, and one which would be universally commended, to offer the ladies of the Home for the Friendless the board room of their new library building for their meetings.

The ladies meet at present in the City Council Chambers, but this neressitates a long and tedious climbing of stairs which would be avoided by meeting at the library building.

Every encouragement and assistance should be given the good ladies who devote their energies to this noble work. The satisfactory and gratifying reports submitted at their meeting yesterday are a culogistic commentary on the splendid work which has been done.

And in the new year upon which they are entering the ladies have every reason to look for continued and increased success.

How time flies! Here it is the 494th day of the North Renfrew vacancy, and Ross is still scared to face

BACKING OUT OF THE FIGHT. Toronto World.

It would not surprise many people who have been watching the trend of events political if Lorne Hale, Liberal candidate in North Renfrew, ratired from the contest in that constituency. Indeed, it seems to be generally understood by those in the inner circle down there that Mr. Hale has made up his mind not to go to the polls, and that the continued delay in bringing on the by-election was due in a large measure to this fact. The World learns from a reliable correspondent in the constituency that Mr. Hale has definitely decided to withdraw, and that the matter is being kept for various reasons. Though an es timable young man, Mr. Hale, who has canvassed the riding pretty thoroughly. finds that the chances of carrying it are slim indeed.

OFFICIAL VISIT

Chatham was visited on Saturday by some of the head officials of the Frand Trunk Railway, including Chas Grand Trunk Railway, including Chas. M. Heys, second vice-president; F. H. McGuigan, manager; F. W. Morris, third vice-president; L. J. Ferritor, St. Thomas; C. S. Cunninghan, London, and many others. The train they came on was a special and an inspection of the local yards, freight buildings and denot was ward was ings and depot was made.

A PUZZLER

C. E. Lister, of the Maple City, exhibited samples of butter from the Maple City Creamery at the Japan Exposition. To-day he received his diploma, or supposedly his diploma, and as a result he is one of the most bewildered and worried men in town. The diploma is written in Japanese and Mr. Lister is not sufficiently educated in this particular language to know what meaning the writer intended to convey. He took the manuscript to a Chinaman and he said it meant "Like your butter. King will send for it."

Mr. Lister is now worried for fear that he is neglecting to fill an order that he is neglecting to fill an order for the King. He is still looking for someone to read the fetter.

FRIGHTFUL LANGUAGE

"I heard some language on Queen street Sunday night which I never wish to hear the Tike of again," a Queen street merchant told a Planet reporter this morning. "It was the worst I ever heard A young man, barber by trade, who has of late gone down at a fast rate, was walking down the street with another fellow but the first was doing the sursing at the top of his voice. It was just when all the people were coming from church and there were many children present. The young man had just enough in him to force such language from him, but was not drunk. The police should take some action in the matter because there are many who can confirm my statements."

Chairman White, of the O.O. I Members - a Business Meeting.

'The members of the Collegiate Institute Board should be more at tentive to duties and more prompt in attending meetings," chairman J White remarked to The Planet before the regular monthly meeting vesterday afternoon as he, Dr. Battisby, Robert Smith and S. B. Arnold sat in secretary's office awaiting a quorum. At the same time the sec

Mr. White continued to say that the neglected his business, having put five people out of his office who were waiting to see him in order to arrive at the appointed time. He couldn't see why the other members couldn't do the same. At last Dr. Thornton and W. G. Richards dropped in and business proceeded.

Commercial Master Harry Collins applied for a grant of $15 for the commercial library. He stated it was a great help to the students.

Rev. Dr. Battisby moved, seconded by W. G. Richards, that the grant be made and the motion carried.

The contracts for the rental of Remington-typewriters caused considerable discussion, and it was finally decided to sign the contracts, the first quarter's rental being ordered paid.

Dr. Thornton reported for the Pro-dered paid.

Dr. Thornton reported for the Property committee that the work on the old building was almost complete. He also reported he had ordered the desks required for the commercial department from J. Piggott & Sons.
