

THE EVENING JOURNAL.

THE JOURNAL is the best and cleanest newspaper in Ottawa.

THE JOURNAL has nearly doubled its circulation in the last six months.

THE JOURNAL wants to be tried by everybody, and believes it will be liked by all.

THE JOURNAL is under the impression that there is room in and around Ottawa for a first-class newspaper, honest in its opinions and moderate in their expression, fair to all, afraid of none, and independent without being neutral. To err is human, and THE JOURNAL may make its mistakes and have its shortcomings, but first, last and all the time it will aim steadily and earnestly at gaining the friendship and support of every honest man who reads it, and will repay such friendship and support by doing with all its strength whatever honest public work it can find to turn its hand to in the Ottawa Valley.

THE JOURNAL aims at giving The Best and Earliest City News, and has a strong staff of good reporters.

THE JOURNAL aims at giving The Best and Earliest District News, and possesses wide-awake correspondents throughout the Ottawa Valley.

THE JOURNAL aims at giving The Best and Earliest Telegraphic News, and has special correspondence from every city in the Dominion and from Europe.
