GOD SEES IT ALL.

God sees it all,
The hand stretched out to help the weak,
Or point the way to those who seek ;
The feet, perchance, so swift to run
To do some good.—or evil shun,
Though we may judge the action small
Our God looks down and sees it all.

God hears it all,
The words with which we sought to cheer
The heart bowed down with grief and fear,
The song with which we tried to raise
Some soul from gloom, to yield Thee praise,
From trembling lips the words may fall,
But God in heaven hears it all.

God knows it all,
The angry thoughts that in us rise,
The tears that sometimes fill our eyes,
The words, so oft misunderstood,
That crush our hearts with heavy load,
Still from the depths we dare to call,
" Be still, my soul, God knows it all."
