EVERY man ought to be as good as his word. Nothing is expected of those who never have a good word for anybody. - New Orleans Picayune.

At an extraordinary general meeting of the Trust and Loan Company of Canada at the close of November, the dividend proposed by the directors was agreed to, and Mr. Fearon, the retiring secretary, was granted a retiring allowance.

PRELIMINARY inquiries into boiler explosions in Great Britain were held in 67 cases during the year ending with last June. By the explosions thus dealt with, 33 persons were killed and 79 injured. The annual average of explosions inquired into by the Board of Trade during the six preceding years was 47, and of deaths 30.

THE man who doesn't pay as much attention to the daily market reports as he does to the latest sensational trial, or to the last baseball game, is going to pay pretty dear for his reading very frequently. The market reports are the backbone of business, and if they are too dry reading for the merchant he had better change his occupation as soon as possible. - Philadelphia Grocer.

THE Montreal firm of E. Massicotte & Frere, originally retail grocers, but since 1884 also dabbling in a jobbing trade as well, have met the fate frequent with such essays and are reported insolvent. They owe $12,000 or thereabout. - F. E. Edwards, a boot and shoe man in the same city, who only began business in last January, has speedily become discouraged, and has apparently left the limits. Upon petition of his creditors, a meeting of those interested is called for the 16th inst.
