Ireland.

Limerick, Dec. 26.—Riots occurred on Denmark street last night between soldiers and civilians. The latter attacked the military and a free fight ensued, the sol-diers using their belts. The soldiers were badly handled owing to the numerical superiority of their assailants. The police eventually quelled the disorder.

Dublin, Dec. 25.—The Government has ordered the prosecution of Harrington, Secretary of the Organizing Committee of the Irish National League, for his speech delivered at the Mulingar meeting last Monday night, when Harrington said the more prosperous farmers must be told that if they did not throw themselves into the new movement, they would have the whole force of the laborers' agitation directed against them. Prosecutions are pending against the proprietors of various Provincial journals, for articles published

An average of one hundred persons are searched nightly in Dublin under the Curfew clause of the Repression Act.

London, Dec. 28.—Davitt to-night addressed a meeting at Limehouse, London on the social and political position of Ire-land. A resolution was carried, declaring self-government, with resumption of land for the people, was the only means of restoring peace and contentment in Ire-land.

London, Dec. 27.-Earl Spencer using every means to put in force the worst features of the Coercion Bill. So far he has only succeeded in murder cases where special jurors have been in favor of the Government. The Curfew clause has not proved very obnoxious because of the difficulty of carrying it through. Where searches have been made under its provision neither weapons nor treasonable documents have been discovered. The clause has created great irritation amongood citizens, and unfavorable feeling against the Government is being excited. against the Government is being excited. It is inferred that the Government intend to suppress the National League. The Irish leaders are acting cautiously, and every word is carefully weighed, and much care taken not to provoke hostile feeling on the part of the Executive.

The Catholic chaplain, Father Bellord, was one of the first wounded, being struck by a bullet in the leg. The Church of Ingland chaplain perceiving the mishap of his comrade immediately hoisted Father Bellord on his shoulders and carried him to the field hospital, where his wound was attended to. The spectacle of a Protestant clergyman hastening over the battle-field with a Catholic priest on his shoulders attracted no little attention among those who witnessed the incident.

The closing examinations of the Wood-slee Catholic school took place on the 23rd slee Catholic school took place on the 23rd ult. The examination was conducted by Miss Sullivan, the efficient teacher of the school, assisted by teachers from neighbor-ing sections. After prizes had been dis-tributed to the successful children, the Rev. Father Cummins addressed those Rev. Father Cummins addressed those present in a few well chosen observations on the subject of education. He exhorted the children to the duties of diligence, industry, and subordination, and pointed out to perents the necessity of their cooperating with the teachers in securing a regular attendance of children.

FROM CHATHAM.

A conversatione and Christmas tree was held in St. Joseph's School House, Chat-ham, on the 22nd ult., under the patron-age of the Board of Separate School Trustees. The programme, consisting of readings, music, addresses and the distribution of prizes, was very interesting and enjoyable, and was much appreciated by a large audience. This is the first entertainment of the kind which has been held in correction with the school and the in connection with the school, and the children and parents were highly delighted at its success.

The school is under the able management of Mr. T. O'Hagan B. A., assisted by three other teachers, and is in a flourishing

WEDDING BELLS.

A correspondent from Port Huron, Mich., informs us that the Catholic Church in that town was on Thursday, Nov. 30th, the scene of a truly Christian marriage. The happy couple was Mr. Michael O'Brien of Fort Gratiot, and Miss Maggie Gleeson, daughter of Mr. J. Gleeson, formerly merchant of Lucan, Ont., but now of Port Huron. The High Mass on the occasion was celebrated by Rev. N. J. Quinn of St. Patrick's Church, Binghampton, N. Y., cousin of the bride, and the nuptial knot tied by Rev. Father Van-Lawe. After Mass the party repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a pleasant time was spent. They have since the marriage taken up residence at Fort Gratiot. Their Canadian friends wish them long life and happiness. Mich., informs us that the CatholicChurch

FROM GALT.

A Christmas tree in aid of the Catholic Church, Galt, was held in the Town Hall on 26th, 27th, and 28th December, which proved to be in every respect a very enjoyable and successful affair, and one which has never been surpassed in Galt except by the Catholic Bazaar held there over a year ago. This reflects great credit on our energetic pastor, kev. M. J. Maguire, as well as the ladies of the congregation who so willingly devoted their time and energies to make it a success, which they undoubtedly done, as the proceed netted over $700.

PASTORAL LETTER OF HIS LORDSHIP RT. REV. JOHN WALSH,

BISHOP OF LONDON, Promulgating the Decrees of the First Pro Council of Toronto.

JOHN WALSH, by the Grace of God a appointment of the Holy See, Bis London. To the Clergy, Religious Communities

Laity of the Diocese, health and diction in the Lord.

DEARLY BELOVED BRETHREN, Hence, we by these presents forma by our episcopal authority abrogat declare abrogated the law enacted predecessor, directing that only four shall be paid by each family for the s of its pastor; and we ordain the families pertaining to every mission according and in proportion to their be obliged to pay towards the support pastor such sums as in the aggregate be adjudged by us to be adequate to he per maintenance. For this purpose we direct each pase consult with the heads of families mission, as to the amount requisite honourable support, and the sum each head of family should pay in p tion to his means, in order to make required amount; and we furthermore that the aggregate sum agreed upon f support of the pastor, as well as the ance each head of family stipulates to shall be reported to us for our sanctio approval. Without this our sanction approval the agreement between the tor and people shall not have the fo ecclesiastical law. MIXED MARRIAGES. We deem it an imperative duty to our voice in warning and in protest ag the evil of Mixed Marriages, which two much frequency in this diocese. marriages are most dangerous to the and salvation of the faithful contra them; they imperil the salvation of children born of them, and, as a rule, destroy the peace and happiness of the ties contracting them, and embitter lives with dissensions and wranglings. is the teaching of the word of God. as also the sad lesson of experience. Th vation of the Catholic is endangered b ing in the intimate relation of man with a husband or wife professing a religion. When Almighty God introd His people to the holy land, He comma them never to marry with the people o country who were of a false religion they should be seduced by them and their souls, "Neither shalt thou marriages with them, says Almighty thou shalt not give thy daughter to his nor take his daughter to thy son; for will turn away thy son from following that he may serve strange gods, and wrath of the Lord shall be kindled, and quickly destroy thee."—(Deut. vii., 2.) warnings and commands of God are fo times and for his people in every age clime, and the dangers of mixed marr which He pointed out to His chosen pe and which He condemned, are as now and fraught with as many evils as were then.

Such marriages are most dangerou the salvation of the children born of i inasmuch as they are directly calculat beget in them a fatal indifferentism to profession and practice of the true without which it is impossible to please The unhappy children see the father pro ing one religion, the mother another; hear the father sneer at and condem false and pernicious the faith which mother professes and reverences as true necessary for salvation. Such a sta things is directly calculated to make believe that one religion is as good of bad as another, to make them cold indifferent to all forms of religion, and them into a practical unbelief fatal to immortal souls. When the Jews retu from their captivity, Nehemias saw son them who had married strange womenis, women professing false religions, an complained that their children spoke ne the language of father nor of mother half the one and half the other, for w reason Nehemias "Chidedthem and lai curse upon them," showing them the evil they did, and the danger they ran, concluded: "Shall we also be disobed to do all this great evil, to transg against our God and marry strange wom -(2 Esdras xiii., 27.)

How often, alas, do we find that children of parents who are of diffe religions, speak neither the languag one nor the other in religious matt For these and other weighty reasons Holy Church of God has always abho and forbidden such marriages, and i times and for grave and exceptional ca
