THE NATIONAL FESTIVAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

To the Editor of the Catholic Record. DEAR SIR,-The national festival passed off very quietly in the "Ancient Capital." There was no procession. At ten o'clock Solemn High Mass was celebrated in St. Patrick's Church, the celebrant being Rev. Mr. Fahey, son of Mr. Patrick Fahey of this city, who has been recently ordained, and who sang his first mass on this occasion. Rev. Messrs. O'Leary and McGrathy, who were ordained not quite a year ago, acted as deacon and sub-deacon, respectlvely, and the sermon was preached by Rev. Mr. Callahan of Montreal. seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, as have been told it was the most eloquent nineteenth century, and at the hands of sermon preached there for some years. The Saint Patrick's Society the erudite librarian of Parliament, the sermon preached there for some years. The Saint Patrick's Society, composed of Catholic and Protestant Irishmen, and whose rules provided for the principal offices being held by members of the dif-ferent creeds alternately, dispensed with their annual banquet, "as a mark of sym-pathy with their suffering fellow-country-men in Ireland." In the evening there opprobrious epithets of the sixteenth and applied to Catholics, would have fallen into disuetude. But the erudite Mr. Todd has decided otherwise, and he has consequently got himself into a "pot of men in Ireland." In the evening there were two concerts, as has been usual for four or five years back. The St. Patrick's Literary Institute held their's in their own cosy hall in Anne street, and it was a complete success both in respect of music and oratory as well as pecuniarily. The fresco work in Irish scenery on the ceiling which I mentioned in a former letter, showed to great advantage, and was very much admired by a number of strangers who admired by a number of strangers who opened by the President, Owen Murphy, Esq., Ex-Mayor, and the address of the evening was given by Robert J. Bradley, Esq., Advocate, and President of the St. Patrick Society. Besides a large number of our own fellow-countrymen and women from the most influential to the women from the most influential to the women from the most influential to the humblest, there was a good attendance of English, Scotch and French Canadians, including two members of the Local Gov-ernment, Hon. Messrs. Robertson and Lynch, Rev. Mr. O'Leary, of the Univ-ersity; Hon J. Hearn, A. H. White, Esq. Ex-Densident of St. Patrick's Society, &c. Ex-President of St. Patrick's Society. &c. The programme of songs was exclusively Irish, as it should always be on the night. The other concert was held in the Music Hall, and addresses were delivered by Mr. W. M. McDonald, President, Rev. Father Henning, C. S.S. R., Pastor of St. Patrick's, Mr. J. K. Foran, a student of Laval University; the attendance was also large, and included, I believe, Hon Messrs. Chapleau and Flynn, the clergy of St. s and others.

The Irish Protestant Benevolent Society held their annual service in Chalmer's Free Church, on the evening of the 18th. The preacher, on the occassion, was the pastor of the church—"Rev. Doctor" Mathews, save the mark !--- a Scotchman re cently imported from New York. A report of his "charity" (?) sermon appeared in Friday's Chronicle, and, although not pub-lished in extenso, proves him to be a com-Inshed in extense, proves him to be a com-pound of ignorance and bigotry and all uncharitableness. A friend of mine, who was present, told me that he has heard nothing to equal it since he listened to Gavazzi's howlings. Another, an English-man, has assured me that his language "sent a thrill through him and made his vary fleck crean." very flesh creep." A circumstance occurred here recently pointment of a successor to the late Mr. Recorder Sexton, of Montreal. The Montreal Evening Post says that the late lamented gentleman was the only Irish Catholic amongst the higher city officials of Montreal, and it would seem only fair that at least this one office should be conferred on one of that race. Mr. John J. Curran, Q. C., independent of his ad mitted fitness, has strong claims on the Conservative party, claims which it is to be hoped will not be overlooked. consequently got himself into a "pot of trouble." Mr. Todd, it appears, has re-cently published a work on "Parliaments," speaking of which the Ottawa corres-pondent of Le Courier de Montreal says:— "I have further to reproach Mr. Todd with the tone adopted by him, in speak-ing of what he is pleased to call the pre-tensions of the Church of Rome, &c." this medicine we do not claim that it always performs cures; but this we do say, it purifies and enriches the blood, perman-ently curing a large majority of diseases arising from its impurities. It stands far ahead and unequalled among the hun-dreds of competing medicines of the day. It has stood the test for ten years, and is to-day more popular than ever. As a summer restorative it stands unrivaled; it guards the system against the constant draw to which it is subjected by a high temperature. Persons who are subject to bilious Colic, Dysentery, Indigestion, &c., should take the Shoshonees Remedy. Price of the Remedy in pint bottles, 81; Pills, 25 ets, a box. Sold by all medicine dealers. Abraham Davies has been committed to Jordana Walkerton, charged with the mur-der of three Indians at Cape Hurd in Jan-uary, 1874. The principal witness against him was his son-in-law, George Nelson, who swears he was with him at the time and saw him kill the Indians. He claims he concealed the matter through fear of Davies, who threatened to kill him if he told anything about it. The Magistrate sent Nelson to jail also, in order to secure his attendance at the trial.

A circumstance occurred here recently which has given rise to a good deal of feeling. On Sunday, 7th inst., at High Mass, Rev. Father Henning read a letter which had been addressed to him by one of the vicaires of the Basilica, Rev. Mr. Cote. The purport of this letter, as read to the congregation, was a com-plaint of the manner in which the Irish intruded themselves into the Basilica and the Church of Our Lady of Victories in Many Irish Catholics have acted on the suggestion of the rev. pastor, whilst others have continued to do as herewhist others have continued to do as here-tofore—looking upon all Catholic Churches edifices as alike and possessing the same Sacrifice. One thing I do not hesitate to say, and that is, that, in view of the occurrences of last summer this contractemps is most unfortunate, and is certainly not calculated to allay the bad feelings then employed.
