The Rev. F. L. Deane, M.A., rector of St. Mary the Virgin, Glasgow, has been appointed Provost and Canon of Glasgow Cathedral.

Dr. Boyd Carpenter, who completes twenty-five years' service in the episcopacy shortly, is promoting a scheme for new residential houses at Ripon. Writing in the "Diocesan Gazette," he describes plans for providing residences for the four Canons instead of, as at present, possessing one house that has to be used in turn by them. The Bishop hopes at a cost of between £5,500 and £6,000 to alter the present position on the lines indicated, in order that the Canons may be in actual residence all the year through. He is also arranging that the Residential Canons shall each have a well-defined sphere of Church work under his charge. For instance, Canon Waugh, who is Examining Chaplain, will continue to hold the latter office and give help to the Bishop in respect to diocesan finance; the Bishop of Knaresborough will act as Suffragan; Canon Garrod will act as helper in educational movements both in day and Sunday School, and the canonry to be presently vacated by Archdeacon Danks will, says the Bishop, be held by one who will devote himself to mission work.

Holy Trinity Church, Sac City, Iowa, has received a silver Communion service as a memorial gift from a donor in Pennsylvania.

Improvements have been in progress during the past year in the Lady Chapel of St. James', Hackettstown, N.J. The most notable, the gift of an anonymous parishioner, is the altar piece. In addition to this several other gifts have been presented, notably a peal of five bells, four of which are memorials.

The Rev. J. H. Cooper, curate of St. John's, North Adams, Western Massachusetts, was ordained priest on Sunday, January 19th, by the Bishop of the diocese. Mr. Cooper was formerly a Methodist minister. He was confirmed in St. Stephen's, Pittsfield, and on the 7th July last was ordained to the diaconate in St. John's.
