

HOW ITALIANS ARE OPERATING AGAINST AUSTRIANS

Monfalcone is being bombarded by the Italian forces, which crossed the Isonzo River near its mouth, and another portion of the army, proceeding south from Terzo, has occupied Grado. At the same time Italian hydro-aeroplanes have attacked the coast railroad to Trieste near Nabresina and, it is believed, interrupting the line. While these operations are going on along the Austrian frontier an Italian force has been landed on the Island of Rhodes, possibly to co-operate with the Allies against Smyrna or the Dardanelles further north.

LANGFORD

Rev. Mr. Bowers had charge of the service on Sunday morning and preached a very inspiring sermon Next Sunday, June 6th, service will begin at 10.30 and Sunday school right after the church service.

Mr. and Mrs. Richards and daughter, Binbrook, Mr. and Mrs. George Kendrick and two daughters, Ancaster, were Sunday guests at Mr. and Mrs. Maddison Wilson's. Mr. and Mrs. James W. Westbrook spent one day last week in the city. Mr. C. Smith, Fergus, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Vanderlip on last week. Mrs. E. Buckberry, city, spent Sunday at the Wilson brothers. Mr. and Mrs. John R. Vanderlip, Brantford, were also present.

attended the obsequies of the late Mrs. Shaw of Selmon Arm, B.C., at Mount Pleasant. The deceased was a former resident of this community. Mr. Theodore Young, South Cote, was the Sunday guest of his sister, Mrs. Herb. Sumler. Mr. and Mrs. Burke, of Hartford, were guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Woltz, last Thursday. Misses Bessie and Gladys Thompson, Inverkip, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Tomlin.

Advertisement for COLES' SHOE COMPANY. Features an illustration of a child's foot in a shoe. Text includes: 'Summer Shoes For LITTLE FOLKS', 'Sandals are getting more and more popular every year for children's summer wear...', 'Get Them Here!', 'We have a very large assortment of sandals and other types of children's footwear at the most moderate prices.', 'COLES' SHOE COMPANY', 'Brantford's "Better" Shoe Store', 'Both Phones 122 Colborne Street 474'.

Went last week of the death of her sister in Scotland. Mrs. H. Day is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. James Westbrook. Word was received here on Saturday night of the death of Mrs. M. Shaw, wife of the late Thos. Shaw, of British Columbia, who resided for several years in this neighborhood. Mrs. Shaw was very highly respected. The funeral took place on Wednesday from Greens undertaking parlors, Hamilton. Mr. Robert Bodwell died at the Brantford general hospital on Monday afternoon. Much sympathy is felt for Mrs. Bodwell and son.

Cainsville News

At the morning service, Rev. Mr. Plyley preached a very uplifting sermon, founded on the first clause of the verse found in John 3: 31. "He that cometh from above is above all." A duet, "Oh it is wonderful," was very capably rendered by Miss Smith. Rev. Mr. Bowers, B.A., delivered an excellent sermon in the evening, his text being taken from Numbers 9:29-32. The morning service will be withdrawn next Sabbath, owing to the absence of the pastor, who will be attending conference. The league service held on Monday evening was especially interesting. The reports read by the convenors of the different departments showed marked progress during the past year so that the new staff of officers are greatly encouraged at the prospects for the coming year. Miss Addie Norrie sang a solo very sweetly. It was decided that Miss Gladys Woltz be the representative of the league at the summer school to be held in Oakville during the early part of July. Arrangements for a ten cent social to be held on the lawn of Mr. J. D. Norrie on Monday evening, June 21st were also made. The adult bible class will hold a social evening in the church parlors on Tuesday evening, June 8th. Mr. A. Yule, of the B. E. N. A., who has been spending a two weeks holiday at Lincoln, New Jersey, returned to resume his work on Monday. Mr. Newton, who was acting in the capacity of manager during the farmer's absence, left for Hamilton on the same date. Mr. George Woltz, Cayuga, paid a flying visit to his home on Wednesday evening. Mr. S. Harold Brantford, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Jas. Clarke, on Saturday. Mrs. G. Robinson and her youngest daughter, Violet, spent the week-end with friends at Caledonia. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sumler and family were guests of relatives at Mt. Hope on Sunday. Mr. Ira Day of Brant, is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Carmody, this week. Quite a number from our village

PLEASEING THE COOP.

Hens Have a Sense of Humor, and They Should Be Amused. An eastern psychologist who devotes a good deal of time to practical applications of his theories declares that hens have a sense of humor. He says they would lay more regularly if properly amused. Unfortunately he fails to suggest the forms of amusement that hens could be expected to appreciate. Of course roller skates are out of the question, and so are Teddy bears and paper dolls. A hen might learn to play hopscotch and tag and blind man's buff, but that would be about the limit. Of course the comic supplements could be hung around the coop and the "Lays of Ancient Rome," and other entertaining pulchrum might be mixed in with the daily pan of mush. But it's all experimental. Hens are so different. There have been hen owners whose whiskers alone were funny enough to prompt a hen to crawl into the hay mow and lay a hatful of eggs. Yet they never do. That's the great trouble with psychologists. They start something and leave you to finish it.—Cleveland Plain Dealer. L-o-v-e—A Romance of Four Letters. He sent her a letter, a passion filled letter. That promised her joy for the rest of her life. She sent him a letter, a soul throbbing letter. Accepting his offer and soon was his wife. SIX MONTHS LATER. He sent her a letter, a drummer's night letter. To ask, "where's the razor I told you to pack?" She sent him a letter, a "two cents due" letter. To say she'd gone home and was not coming back. —Frederick Moxon in Judge. A Jury of Ladies. "Well, how did you get along with your jury of ladies?" "Pretty fair," said the judge. "They demanded some things not usually accorded juries. Wanted a chafing dish in the jury room and to go shopping every afternoon."—Louisville Courier-Journal. Fore! There was a girl who played golf. Who was foolish to leave her hat off. She was caught in the rain. And suffered great pain. And now has a terrible cold. —Philadelphia Ledger. "We should all eat more bread, it is cheaper and more nutritious than meat. Make it with PURITY FLOUR." Norman Berry died in Brazil, and his widow at Milo, Me., must wait the legal term of six years to obtain the body.

A SUNDAY SERMON BY PASTOR RUSSELL

CROWNS OF GLORY RICHES OF GRACE God's New Creation Purposed Before Foundation of the World. The Lord Jesus the First Member of the New Creation—Steps to the Glory Plane—The Church Called to Follow Him—Real and Imitation Christians—Preparations For Appearing in the Presence of Jehovah—Cleansing Our Garments—Garments Spotted and Garments White.

PASTOR RUSSELL

San Francisco, Cal., May 30.—Pastor Russell is here, in attendance upon the I. B. S. convention, which was assembled at Oakland. He spoke in our city today, from the text, "All things are yours; and ye are Christ's, and Christ is God's." (1 Corinthians 3:22, 23.) The Pastor spoke in part as follows: The Apostle Paul tells us that before God created the world, in His infinite Wisdom He purposed in Himself to have a Church, which He arranged the terms and conditions upon which membership in this New Creation was to be offered specifically to certain created beings. As the Father wished that in all things His Son, the mighty Logos, should have pre-eminence, the first offer was made to Him. This new nature was to be the highest of all creation. To gain this prize the Logos must demonstrate His love and loyalty to the Father. God does not wish any will. So He voluntarily left the Heavenly glory and humbled Himself to take a human form—not a sinful form, but perfect human nature. "Little lower than the angels," "Then the Logos himself still further, even unto the ignominious death of the Cross, on the charge that He was a blasphemer against God. After His death came His resurrection, after which He ascended into the presence of the Father, where He did a work for the Church, as the Apostle points out. Then the Father gave our Lord the Holy Spirit to shed forth upon the faithful little band of disciples who had been with Him during His earthly ministry. This indicated that Christ is God's—that God had glorified Him and had empowered and anointed Him with the Spirit of the Father, and that the begetting to this Divine nature would be granted to all who would follow in Jesus' steps.—Philippians 2:7-11; Hebrews 9:24; 2 Corinthians 5:17. For eighteen centuries the Gospel Message has gone forth, the object being to call out from amongst mankind those who will follow in Jesus' footsteps and become members of the Body of Christ—a New Creation. These are to be His joint-heirs in the Heavenly inheritance. (1 Peter 1:4, 5.) We are living in "the last time," the end of this Gospel Age, when His special salvation of the Church is to be revealed. Those who desire to become members of the New Creation must first turn away from sin and toward God. This must be a heart turning—a shunning of sin, and a turning to God. The decedent was a former resident of this community. Mr. Theodore Young, South Cote, was the Sunday guest of his sister, Mrs. Herb. Sumler. Mr. and Mrs. Burke, of Hartford, were guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Woltz, last Thursday. Misses Bessie and Gladys Thompson, Inverkip, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Tomlin. Hens Have a Sense of Humor, and They Should Be Amused. An eastern psychologist who devotes a good deal of time to practical applications of his theories declares that hens have a sense of humor. He says they would lay more regularly if properly amused. Unfortunately he fails to suggest the forms of amusement that hens could be expected to appreciate. Of course roller skates are out of the question, and so are Teddy bears and paper dolls. A hen might learn to play hopscotch and tag and blind man's buff, but that would be about the limit. Of course the comic supplements could be hung around the coop and the "Lays of Ancient Rome," and other entertaining pulchrum might be mixed in with the daily pan of mush. But it's all experimental. Hens are so different. There have been hen owners whose whiskers alone were funny enough to prompt a hen to crawl into the hay mow and lay a hatful of eggs. Yet they never do. That's the great trouble with psychologists. They start something and leave you to finish it.—Cleveland Plain Dealer. L-o-v-e—A Romance of Four Letters. He sent her a letter, a passion filled letter. That promised her joy for the rest of her life. She sent him a letter, a soul throbbing letter. Accepting his offer and soon was his wife. SIX MONTHS LATER. He sent her a letter, a drummer's night letter. To ask, "where's the razor I told you to pack?" She sent him a letter, a "two cents due" letter. To say she'd gone home and was not coming back. —Frederick Moxon in Judge. A Jury of Ladies. "Well, how did you get along with your jury of ladies?" "Pretty fair," said the judge. "They demanded some things not usually accorded juries. Wanted a chafing dish in the jury room and to go shopping every afternoon."—Louisville Courier-Journal. Fore! There was a girl who played golf. Who was foolish to leave her hat off. She was caught in the rain. And suffered great pain. And now has a terrible cold. —Philadelphia Ledger. "We should all eat more bread, it is cheaper and more nutritious than meat. Make it with PURITY FLOUR." Norman Berry died in Brazil, and his widow at Milo, Me., must wait the legal term of six years to obtain the body.

Advertisement for SUNDAY SCHOOL. Lesson X.—Second Quarter, For June 6, 1915. THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES. Text of the Lesson, II Sam. xi, 22 to xli, 7.—Memory Verses, xli, 5, 6, 7.—Golden Text, Ps. li, 10.—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns. Includes text of the sermon and a large illustration of a man's face.

Advertisement for EDDY'S. Includes text: 'The Artistic Design BROADBENT', 'WOOD'S GREAT PEPPERMINT CURE FOR COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE THROAT AND LUNGS', 'CLIFFORD'S... $2 TO CHOOSE', 'This shop Clifford piece of in a life ITUR MAIN PRICE it will young furnish the lar', 'Come W CLIFF'.