WE'LL NEVER LET THE OLD FLAG FALL

Britain's flag has always stood for justice.

Britain's hope has always been for peace.

Britain's foes have known that they could trust us.

To do our best to make the cannons cease.

Britain's blood will never stand for insult.

Britain's sons will rally at her call.

Britain's pride will never let her exit.

And we'll never let the old flag fall.

Chorus:

We'll never let the old flag fall.

For we love it the best of all.

We don't want to fight, to show our might.

But when we start we'll fight, fight, fight!

In peace or war, you'll hear us sing.

God save the flag, God save the king.

At the end of the world, the flags unfurled.

We'll never let the old flag fall.

Britain's sons have always loved her mother.

Britain's sons have always loved her best.

Britain's sons would die to show, they love her.

The dear old flag laid on each manly breast.

Britain's ships have always ruled the ocean.

Britain's sons will show their true devotion.

And we'll never let the old flag fall.

THE ONLY THING TO DO

(From the Boston Transcript)

"What would you do?" said an officer on an examining board, to an applicant for a commission, "if your company were suddenly fired upon from a trench a hundred yards in your front, a machine gun opened on your right flank and a cavalry charge developed on the left?"

The candidate pondered "I think I would order the company to sing 'Lead Kindly Light,' and ask the chaplain to lead us in prayer."

PUTTING IT UP TO THE JUDGE

A negro was recently brought into police court in a little town in Georgia, charged with assault and battery. The negro, who was well known to the judge, was charged with having struck another. After the usual preliminaries the judge inquired:

"Why did you hit this man?"

"Jedge, he called me a black rascal."

"Well, you are one, aren't you?"

"Yessah I is one. But, jedge, s'pose some body'd call you a black rascal, wouldn't you hit 'em?"

"But I'm a judge, am I?"

"Naw, sah, naw, sah, you ain't one; but s'pose somebody's call you de kind of rascal you is, what's you do?"

I have fitted up the CARDING MILL AT STEAM MILL and will be ready now for Carding Wool. All work will receive prompt attention.
