WANT REV. R. H. STEACY

Under above heading, the Ottawa Citizen of June 9 says:—Yesterday afternoon a deputation of members of the Anglican congregation of Bell's Corners waited on Rev. R. H. Steacy, curate of St. John's church, and requested him to accept the rectorship of Bell's Corners, made vacant by the removal of Rev. J. Arthur Shaw to Plantagenet. Rev. Mr. Steacy informed the deputation that as the matter of appointments is in the hands of the bishop the matter would have to be taken by his lordship. The members of the deputation were Messrs. Dawson, Bell, Davis, Foster, Hodgins and Abbott. Bell's Corners parish is considered the most important rural one in the diocese of Ottawa, including as it does Fallowfield and Hazeldean. The congregations are all strong and the invitation extended to Rev. Mr. Steacy is indicative of the esteem in which he is held and the regard felt for him as priest and pastor. Rev. Mr. Steacy is one of the most popular of the younger clergymen of the diocese, and should he be appointed to Bell's Corners the congregation of St. John's would deeply regret the step.

To Great a Risk

In almost every neighborhood someone has died from an attack of cholera or cholera morbus, often before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. A reliable remedy for these diseases should be kept on hand. The risk is too great for anyone to take.
 Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has undoubtedly saved the lives of more people and relieved more pain and suffering than any other medicine in use. It can always be depended upon. For sale by J. P.
 Lamb & Son.

 periences one hears about." Tell a and Diarrhoea Remedy will cure cholera morbus and he will forget it
