TSI ANN'S PICTURES.

When I gaze upon your face, Tsi Ann. And it's printed every place, Tsi Ann.

Many memories it brings—
Not so much of queens and kings
As it does of other things,
Tsi Ann.

Tis a face I've seen before,
Tsi Apm.
Bout a thousand times, or more,
Tsi Apn.
Truth to tell, I can see there Traces of some faces fair
I have noticed everywhere,
Tsi Ann.

There's a lady who elopes, Tsi Ann. And the one who praises soaps, Tsi Apri.
And the one who took a "cure," That was advertised as "sure, For the ills that we endure,

Though you've ringlets on your pate Tsi Ann.
And your crown is not on straight,
Tsi Ann. Still, the pictures that we see Are familiar sights to me, And perhaps they look like thee, Tsi Ann.

Tsi Ann.
Yet your picture I have traced,
Tsi Ann. And if you appear the way You are pictured every day, You're a hundred faced, I'd say, Costumes Worn by Some of the Bathers Shocked Brisben Walker's Guests.

Tarrytown, N. Y., Aug. 29.-John Brisben Walker has decided that a gauzy calico wrapper or a diaphonous Mother Hubbard does not constitute a proper bathing suit for women.

Mr. Walker does not pose as an arbiter of bathing costumes, but circumstances forced him into the tribunal and he has rendered a judgment that will make Kingsland Point less picesque but more attractive for young women of delicate sensibilities.

Some time ago, Mr. Walker, having purchased the point, erected several bathing houses, which he turned over to the use of the public. Crowds flock-ed to the Point to bathe.

At first the bathers were all modest-ly costumed, and Mr. Walker was con-tent. Some of the men soon became tired of donning a full bathing suit, however, and went bathing in tights This scandalized the neighborhood, but there was wore to come. Several women of mature age, fol-Several women of mature age, following the example of the men, appeared a few days ago on the point clothed in flimsy calico wrappers, or in thin and clinging Mother Hubbards. Mr. Walker has now put up a notice that no one will be permitted to use the bath houses or to bathe on the beach unless he or she has a full bathing suit on. Mr. Walker does not give all the specifications that go to make up a full bathing suit, but cali co wrappers, Mother Hubbards, and other clinging costumes are barred,

FOR THE SALARY

Maine Voters Will Again Elect Helpless Congressman Boutelle.

Although His Once Bright Mind Is Forever Clouded and His Days Are Few.

Bangor, Me., Aug. 30.-In spite of the fact that Congressman Charles A. Boutelle is an inmate of the lunatic asylum at Waverly, Mass., and his case is said to be hopeless, he has been renominated to congress and will unquestionably be elected, as no democrat can hope to overcome the large natural majority in his district. From a blood clot on the brain, de veloped last winter, his mind-for a score of years among the brightest-has been utterly clouded ever since. There is no chance that his faculties will clear in time for him to perform any of the duties of the office; indeed, there is only the vaguest hope that Congressman Boutelle will ever be sane again.

All of these things were known to the man who placed him in nomination and to the people who will vote for him on election day, but they would rather vote for Charles A. Boutles of the people who will a san the same though him mind is a san the same though him mind is a san the same the would rather vote for Charles A. Boutelle, even though his mind is a jangled wreck than for any other human being in America.

It is understood that Boutelle is failing fast, and his end is to be expected at any time in the near future. This understanding is one thing that will move the voters to cast their ballots for him. They argue that if the man has not long to live they might as well give him the benefit of the salary so long as he shall live.

The district has an estimated voting strength of 25,000, and at the last elec-
