THE RUSSIAN SUFFRAGE

Sweeping Extension in the Assembly Elections.

Count Witte Names His Cabinet, With Which He Will Undertake to Guide the Nation on Its New Course of Constitutionalism — Reign of Riot Dying Out — Polish Flags Fly in Warsaw.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 8.—The project for a sweeping extension of the suffrage in elections to the National Assembly, promised by the Emperor, is published. The new measure grants representation to the workmen on the same basis as peasants, one representative for each 250,000, and extends the suffrage to the great class of "landless" possessing college degrees who have been the heart and soul of the reform movement. Voters will also, under the new regulations, include tenants paying an annual rent of $250, petty traders, except the lowest class, holders of high school diplomas, and officials of St. Petersburg and Moscow with salaries of not less than $500.

Witte's Colleagues.

Count Witte's new Government appears to be getting fairly under way. The Cabinet is now beginning to take form. The names of the two Shipoff's one of them, Ivan, having been Count Witte's former assistant in the Ministry of Finance, and his associate at Portsmouth, N. H., and the other, Dimitri, the Moscow zemstvoist, who was president of the first zemstvo congress, have been semi-officially announced as his selections, respectively, for Minister of Finance and Comptroller-General. M. Nemchikoff, president of the Southeastern Railroad, who is recommended by the railroad men to succeed Prince Hukoff, is now on his way to St. Petersburg to consider the tender of the portfolio of ways and communications. With the nomination of Prince Alexis Obolensky, as Procurator-General of the holy synod, already gazetted, this provides four of the eight ministerial posts at the disposition of the Premier. For the portfolios of education and of justice, Count Witte has been disappointed in not obtaining the names of the two desired, but he has other possible Cabinet members in view for these posts. The former Ministers, except four who are not subject to the jurisdiction of the Premier, are slated for dismissal.

Reign of Riot Dying.

The news from the provinces indicates the dying down of the reign of riot and license following the promulgation of the Imperial manifesto. Not only conditions are gradually resuming. The most interesting developments are in Poland, where a Polish national movement has blossomed forth under favorable conditions. The greatest manifestation has occurred in Warsaw, where the city is decorated with Polish flags, whose display heretofore has been treated as a crime. A giant demonstration, including 250,000 persons, was organized, paraded the streets Monday night and listened to speeches delivered by Henryk Sienkiewicz, the author, and other prominent Poles. The demonstration passed off without disturbance or disorder, though in the Jewish quarter seven persons suspected of being provocative agents of the police service were killed by the enraged populace after the nationalist parade.

HENRYK SIENKIEWICZ.

Funerals at Odessa.

Odessa, Nov. 8.—Four hundred and twelve Jews, victims of the massacres of last week, were buried yesterday. A majority of the shops were closed, including many of those belonging to Christians. The scenes of grief were heartrending as the bodies were placed in trenches, each trench containing seventy. Similar funerals will continue for three days. On each grave wreaths were placed, bearing the inscription: "Martyrs to the Faith—Victims of the Autocracy."

Mobs have completely devastated, plundered and burned all the Jewish houses in the suburb of Dalnik. In the large villages of Severinovsk and Anadolivka, and the Towns of Vovdiopol, Malaki, Akkerman, Atakles, Oviopol, and Winitza many hundred persons are reported to have been killed and thousands wounded.

Caucasus Ravaged by Civil War.

London, Nov. 8.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of The Daily Mail says: "War, hopeless war, prevails in the Caucasus. The Transcaucasian Railway, the sole line, is effectively crippled and reinforcements have been compelled to march. Seventeen bridges have been wrecked and the rails have been torn up in forty places. Telegraph lines have been destroyed and Georgia and Daghestan are isolated. Every male is in arms and the War Office is helpless."

Kishineff Strawn With Dead. The Bucharest correspondent of the Daily Mail sends the following: "There is a terrible news still from Kishineff. The city is strewn with dead. An unwieldy provisional Government has been established. "Famine reigns throughout Bessarabia, and the Hebrews are taking refuge in the cellars, where they are dying by wholesale. A mob of a thousand and rioters engaged in a massacre of Hebrews in Ismaili, Bessarabia, and a force of dragoons arriving from Bender fired on the mob, killing forty-two and wounding one hundred and fourteen persons. The Bessarabian revolt is assuming immense proportions."

Raising Relief Funds. New York, Nov. 8.—At a mass meeting of Jewish residents of this city, held in Temple Emanuel yesterday, $56,800 was collected for the relief of the sufferers of the massacres in Russia.

Atrocities in Caucasus. St. Petersburg, Nov. 8.—The news from the Caucasus is particularly bad today. Fighting between Armenians, Tartars and Russians assumed a ferocious character, and every attempt of the troops to restore order resulted in the deputations turning upon the soldiers and fighting them with arms and bombs.

According to a merchant who has just arrived from Baku, the scenes witnessed there were beyond belief, and not only murder but torture in all forms has been perpetrated. An Armenian girl's fingers were cut off one by one, and afterwards her arms and legs were amputated by Tartars, and she was allowed to expire in untold agony.

Favors Partis Nationale.

Windsor, Nov. 8.—Dr. Reaume has expressed himself as strongly favoring The Partis Nationale, the new French organization recently started here.

"As a political party I do not think it will be recognized, but as a national party to rever St. John the Baptist, just as the Irish do St. Patrick, I think it is a splendid idea. I am heartily in favor of the teaching of French in the public schools, for what language could be more useful in Canada. The diplomatic and political language of the Dominion is as much French as English. The official documents are printed in both languages."

Charged With Manslaughter.

Shelburne, Nov. 8.—County Crown Attorney McKay of Orangeville has set the machinery of the law in motion against Harry Seace, the Melancthon Township "Church of God" faith healer, whose two-year-old daughter, Sarah Adeline, died from diphtheria in July last from lack of medical attention. Yesterday Seace appeared for trial before Magistrate Ruthenberg of Shelburne, charged with manslaughter. The accused put in no defence and was committed to stand his trial.

Blame Shamrock Navigators.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Nov. 8.—The Maritime inspectors have reported on the sinking of the Canadian tug Shamrock by the steamer Richardson, Sept. 5, about two miles from here. They state that the accident which resulted in the death of two of the crew of the tug "was due wholly to the illegal manner in which the Shamrock was navigated, and that no criticism can be made of the manner of navigating the steamer Richardson."

Sweden's New Cabinet.

Stockholm, Sweden, Nov. 8.—The new Cabinet, as approved by King Oscar, is as follows: Premier and Minister of Justice, M. Staaff; foreign affairs, M. Trolle; war, Col. L. B. Tingsten; finance, M. J. E. Eliser; marine, Rear-Admiral Hider; education, Fridtjuf Berg; interior, M. Schotte; agriculture, Goeste Tamm; ministers without portfolio, Dr. David Bergstrom, M. Helmer and M. Marks.

Railway Commission in Toronto.

Toronto, Nov. 8.—The Railway Commission sat all day yesterday at the City Hall, and there were many interested parties in the court room. On the docket for consideration here are 27 applications, and only a few of them have been disposed of. The sittings will be resumed at 10.30 to-day.

Shot By Her Son.

Winnipeg, Nov. 8.—Mrs. Douzok, wife of a progressive Galician farmer at Valley River, near Dauphin, was found dead at her home on Sunday afternoon. The woman's death was the result of a gunshot. From what can be learned, it was caused by her youngest son, aged 12 years.

Four Die in Collision.

Syracuse, Nov. 8.—Four men were killed and two injured in a head-on collision between the Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg passenger train bound from this city to Oswego, at 5 o'clock yesterday morning, and a locomotive drawing two freight cars, near the Liverpool station.

For Alfonso's Protection.

Madrid, Prussia, Nov. 8.—The political police arrested three Spanish-looking men here Monday before King Alfonso arrived, who seemed to show undue interest in the King's movements. The men asserted that they were Ecuadorians on their way to Berlin to study.

Crushed Between Cars.

Buffalo, Nov. 8.—A switching train on the Delaware and Lackawanna road collided with a train of empty cars of the New York Central early yesterday. Bartholomew Moriarty, engineer of the Lackawanna train, was caught between his engine and tender and crushed to death.

Women's Champion Dead.

London, Nov. 8.—Lady Florence Dixie, the well-known writer, explorer and champion of woman's rights, who acted as war correspondent for a London paper during the Boer war, died yesterday at her home, Glen Stupart, Annan, Dumfriesshire, Scotland.

His Head Knocked Off.

Scranton, Pa., Nov. 8.—James Langgan, aged 28, a fireman on the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad, was leaning out of the cab window of his engine yesterday when a passenger train flew past and literally knocked his head off.

B. C. Pioneer Dead.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 8.—James Orr, one of the wealthiest provincial politicians and a member of the first Legislative Council in Crown colony, died at St. Joseph's Hospital yesterday afternoon, aged 80 years.

Jap Student Dies.

Ithaca, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Toyokichi Muramatsu, aged 25, a student at Cornell University, sent by the Japanese Government, died here yesterday of tuberculosis, after an illness of six weeks.

A RAINCOAT

May be rainproof but you'll certainly get soaked unless you are sure of the sort of woollens and work goes into the garment.

Our raincoats measure up to the same high standard of cloth and workmanship that governs our regular clothing. We might also mention that they are absolutely correct in style.

OGILVIE'S ROYAL HOUSEHOLD

is in a class by itself.

Flour that gives half nourishment and double work to digest is not good flour.

Cheap and inferior flour gives the digestive organs double work and half pay—inferior flours contain indigestible waste—this waste must first be overcome by nature,—that means extra digestive work.

Indigestibles destroy the nutriment of flour, therefore poor flour gives more work and less nutriment to the system.

Royal Household Flour is in a class by itself—it is the only really pure flour—and it is pure because it is purified and sterilized by electricity.—it is the most easily digested and most nourishing because it is absolutely pure.

The moment a woman puts her hands into "Royal Household" she knows it is a finer flour than she ever used before.
