Don't physic and physic to cure indigestion. K. D. C. is not a physic. It cleanses and strengthens the stomach without weakening and destroying the tissues. Try K. D. C.

The clump of spruce trees on the lot corner of Main and Chapel streets, which have long been an eyesore, have been removed during the past week, making a great improvement in the appearance of that part of the town.

The first private night for the season ticket-holders will be on Friday, Dec. 29th. Those who have not provided themselves with tickets will please do so at once in order to be admitted on this evening. Only a limited number are issued and are on sale at E. Pratt's.

There was a good attendance at the rink on Christmas night. The rink looked very pretty, decorated with flags and good trimmings. The ice was in good condition, and the number of skaters looked like old times.

Headache is the cry of nature for relief. Relief is quickly obtained when K. D. C. is taken. Try it and you will see the pain, K. D. C. Company, Ltd., New Glasgow, N. S., Canada, or 127 State St., Boston, Mass.

The Acadia University of our town are negotiating with the talented "Coco" Grove Family Concert Co. for a date about the 15th of January. This Company has a continental reputation of being the cleverest musical organization now before the public, and as it would be a rare treat to our people we hope the University in placing the date will be successful.

Kentville News. Mr E. Hart Nichols, teacher in the High School, left for his home in Digby on Saturday, to spend his Christmas vacation.

D. B. Woodworth, ex-M. P. for this county, has been in town this week. The latest telephone subscriber to this circuit is Mr S. S. Strong, grocer.

Beverly Webster is now home from his studies in Lennoxville, Quebec. F. Wiltshire and wife, of Halifax, came to Kentville last Saturday for a short visit.

Mr C. W. Eaton, of Vancouver, B. C., is now home after an absence of over three years. He finds his parents located here in town, instead of in Canada, where his home was when he left. His brother, L. E. Eaton, is also here from Eatonville, Cumberland Co.

C. F. Rockwell, Prothonotary, has left for a few weeks' travel. His daughter now has charge of his office.

Application was made to Judge Chipman to allow Stephen DeAdder, now in jail here, to be released on bail, but bail has been refused. DeAdder was indicted by the grand jury for larceny at the last Supreme Court, and could not be found. Subsequently he was captured in another county and committed to jail. If bail cannot be obtained he will be obliged to remain where he is, till the time of his trial in June next.

James Rockwell returned from his trip to New York last week, feeling much better for the change. He is advised that times are still very dull at his late home in California.

Avonport. Our school teachers and students are mostly home for the holidays. Clarence Reid has gone to Prince Edward Island to preach for a few weeks; Mr David Fuller and Mrs Eva have gone to Yarmouth to spend Christmas with Dr Fuller.

Mr and Mrs John Ransweiler are visiting Geo. E. Cox, her father. On their honeymoon trip they have spent a fortnight in Chicago, a month at his old home in Ohio, and a few days in Boston. From here they return to Tasmania.

At a tea-meeting recently held here the sum of $32.00 was realized for church purposes.

Friday evening the Baptist church of Lockhartville held a tea and fancy sale at which $54.00 was made beyond expense. This money is to go towards purchasing an organ. Already Prof. Morse has put in an organ for Miller Bove. The professor will lead the music next Sunday and will also assist in a concert to be given in February.

Hopeful Division this year adopted a new and appropriate method of celebrating the joyous season. A pound party was made by each member bringing some kind of food material as bread, butter, potatoes, or turkey. These parcels were then left where they would be most acceptable. The division is in a more healthy condition now than at any time for some years.
