DEAR SIR,—Kindly inferience—now happily but a pilgrim here—whether the saturnalia of drunkenness and blackgardism at the recent hanging in Kentville is a normal thing in Canada, or something peculiar to the degree of civilization in this Province. After witnessing the horror I have mentioned I had occasion to notice with sarprise buildings resembling churches, scattered over Kings county, where I have been looking at properties. Are these buildings in use: and feo, what for?

I am told that there are two legislatures engaged during about half they wear (on large salaries) making laws for your people. What kind of men hold seats there?
